Inclusive Educational Administration Mary Konya Weishaar, Phillip M. Weishaar, John C. Borsa, 2014-01-30 The belief that regular and special education administrators should work together to create and maintain successful education programs for all students is not new nor is the assumption that administrator preparation programs should foster the development of an inclusive approach yet this critical educational partnership has not reached its full potential Despite the lack of agreement within the federal legislative branch on exactly what should be changed within our education system some promising points of consensus have emerged competitive grants college and career readiness multi tiered systems of support common core standards a rewards based rather than punitive system for school improvement the critical role of effective teachers and principals increased school choice options and evidence based learning strategies particularly in high need schools The third edition stresses the importance of these key points Each chapter features case studies that simulate real life situations readers are likely to encounter in their careers as administrators Within the safety of the classroom they will rehearse controversial scenarios involving inclusive school governance school reform identification and placement conflict resolution program evaluation fiscal issues transportation and discipline Enhanced practice situations and role play exercises emphasize the special education administrator's role in resolving difficult situations The case study approach is an effective learning tool for aspiring special and regular education administrators and instructors alike fostering enthusiastic classroom discussion and critical thinking about potential solutions to today's complex problems in inclusive educational administration

J. Dimmock, 2002 This text calls for a broader approach to comparative educational administration one which uses culture as the principle means of analysis The articles collected by Allan Walker and Clive Dimmock detail the educational practices and outcomes of other systems while taking into account the mediating influence of culture In this way these essays stress the specific aspects of the cultures studied and map out common ground for the study of administrators values beliefs and actions School Effectiveness and Educational Management Nikša Alfirić, Josip Burušić, Jurica Pavičić, Renata Relja, 2016-05-18 This book analyzes educational management in the context of developing effective schools in South Eastern European countries and situates the discussion within ongoing education debates in EU countries The book revolves around the specific role and practices of school principals who are positioned as a nexus of educational management in each school Presenting innovative research in the field of educational management and effectiveness this volume will be invaluable for a range of education specialists Mastering Theories of Educational Leadership and Management

Donnie Adams, 2018-10-08 The field of Educational Leadership and Management originated and grew to maturity in the Western societies of the USA UK and Australia However since the mid 1990s scholars in east Asia have asserted the need to ground leadership theories and practices in the local contexts in which school leaders practice Mastering Theories of Educational Leadership and Management is one of the first volumes published which seeks to do this The edited chapters illustrate and elaborate how perspectives on key concepts and theories of educational leadership are being interpreted and enacted in East Asian societies By doing so the book makes a valuable contribution which will hopefully reduce the gap between theories as explained by Western scholars and practices as enacted in East Asian societies Professor Dr Philip Hallinger Case Studies on Educational Administration

Theodore J. Kowalski, 2011-01 A collection of case studies for prospective school administrators that emphasizes problem solving decision making and effective management Based on the conviction that effective practice in school administration requires both leadership and management this text provides a mix of problems that require administrative decisions as presented in 24 open ended case studies In today's reform minded information based society practitioners must be able to frame problems correctly and then make effective decisions to ameliorate them As leaders district and school level administrators are expected to focus on what should be done to improve schools as managers they are expected to focus on how to do things successfully The cases in this book are designed to make students think about common problems of practice by encouraging them to bridge theory and practice Each case provides an active form of learning allowing students to demonstrate their ability to apply knowledge to common problem situations

K-12 Case Studies for School Administrators Marcia Norton, Paula E. Lester, 2017-09-29 Case studies enable aspiring administrators to refine their reaction skills as well as their critical thinking skills by responding to a multitude of problems in a short time Originally published in 1998 the case studies in this book provide a broad based overview of the kinds of real problems that schools were facing at the time The problems administrators face on a daily basis vary in scope and complexity Short cases provide opportunities to address analyse and resolve problems encountered in the real working environment Students must actively engage in a process of inquiry and problem solving This book can be used over several years according to the case studies selected for class use This is a multicourse multiyear action case study text The Dynamics of Changing Higher Education in the Global South Busani Mpofu, Sabelo Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2020-06-29 Today there are generally universities in Africa rather than African universities The legitimacy of the university in Africa is under serious questions now because of its complicity in racism patriarchy sexism colonialism capitalism genocide epistemicide linguicide culturecide and alienation In other words the university in Africa as we know it today is elitist and exclusionary Therefore rethinking the idea of the university is fundamental to overcoming its current deficiencies in the Global South This volume bringing together a number of national case studies and macro analyses on the dynamics of changing higher education in the Global South gestures towards the desired imagined decolonial African university which should be a site of multilingualism where African indigenous languages cosmologies and ontologies become a central part of its identity and soul intolerant of epistemicides linguicides and cultural imperialism but a site of cognitive and social justice that fully embraces the idea that all human beings are born into valid useful relevant and legitimate knowledge systems
