Case Studies of Educational Innovation: Strategies for innovation in education Centre for Educational Research and Innovation,1973 Handbook of Research on Enhancing Innovation in Higher Education Institutions Babić, Verica,Nedelko, Zlatko,2020-03-27 Innovation in higher education is a process of institutional adaptation to changes in the environment that enables higher education institutions to improve their existing practice and to be innovative at different levels and in different forms Moreover innovativeness is also related to internal characteristics of higher education institutions Innovation in higher education can be observed as a result of the changing contexts in which higher education institutions function Adjacent a comprehensive approach to considering innovativeness is needed in order to enable the examination of different elements of innovativeness in higher education that is to identify the key factors that de stimulate innovations and affect their interactions with other relevant stakeholders at the national level and beyond The Handbook of Research on Enhancing Innovation in Higher Education Institutions is a critical scholarly book that examines innovativeness in higher education and its complications and diversity Starting from the view that higher education is currently confronted by global forces that require new research ideas the publication suggests that comprehensive understanding of innovativeness is imperative for higher education s institutions in the 21st century Analyzing the recognized trends within the publication and concluding which aspects should be taken to improve innovativeness in higher education this reference book outlines quality and innovation in teaching innovative university business cooperation institutional framework and governance of higher education institutions knowledge management and leadership and organizational culture It is ideal for curriculum designers administrators researchers policymakers academicians professionals and students Resources in Education ,2001-10

Educational Innovations Beyond Technology Nancy Law,Allan Yuen,Robert Fox,2011-01-15 The text explores the concept of innovation and analyse and compare different dimensions of innovation found in the various case studies the transfer of innovation and the mechanisms of change on an innovative online case study database on education innovations that has been designed to be used by education practitioners to support organizational leadership international collaboration and reflective practice in the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC eEducation Leadership initiative on a project aimed to support the establishment of communities of practice for education practitioners facilitated through an extendable online database that can be used to contribute and share case studies of their own ICT supported pedagogical innovations It discusses roles of the teacher and the anticipated changes to the education profession at a system level in the coming decade on the basis of emerging changes observed in the case studies and leadership issues at the school level The book analyses change mechanisms for different kinds of innovation and how different contextual and cultural factors interact to bring about the changes observed Research in Education ,1974 What's Worth Aiming for in Educational Innovation and Change? Geraldine Mooney Simmie,Manfred Lang,2012 Results from international achievement test scores such as PISA

ROSE TIMSS indicate national deficits in literacy and numeracy among OECD countries In addition research findings indicate the inadequacy of inherited transmission models of teaching in generating critical thinking among pupils in lower secondary education This book presents case studies from six European countries Austria Denmark Czech Republic Germany Ireland and Spain based on capacity building with teachers to develop educational innovation and change in the science and mathematics classroom and school The teacher educators developed a theoretical framing that was responsive to both culture and context Educational innovation and change was positioned as a pedagogical and political text a deliberative discursive inquiry that crossed borders between teachers teacher educators and others including policymakers Findings show that while it is clearly necessary for teachers to form collaborative networks this is not sufficient to generate the level of creative and critical inquiry required for educational innovation and change in the classroom New roles are required for all education actors to bring teachers at all stages of their professional lifespan beyond their classrooms and schools into sustainable public spaces incubation spaces in a deliberative discourse with teacher educators and others including policymakers The study has implications for the way the education policy process is currently enacted and the roles played by various actors including teachers teacher educators school administrators and policymakers alike

Educational Innovation in Vietnam Trung Tran,Cuong Huu Nguyen,Loc Thi My Nguyen,2022-10-14 This edited collection one of the first to be written chiefly by Vietnamese scholars explores innovation in Vietnamese education under the impact of the Fourth Industrial Revolution Vietnam is considered a booming country with its continued economic rise and the contributors explore one of Vietnam s strategies to achieve further economic growth which is the innovation and modernization of its education system The content is split into two parts the first focusing on innovations in educational policy and management and the second looking at innovation in teaching theories and methods It shows the vitality and innovation coming from developing countries like Vietnam where necessity breeds fast adoption of education technology and development This insightful edited volume will help researchers in comparative education educational development and Asian studies understand the achievements and challenges of Vietnamese general education and higher education in the Fourth Industrial Revolution

Stromquist,Michael L. Basile,2003-08-29 In the educational arena new ideas often compete as solutions to recurrent problems making the concept of innovations a widespread discursive term While expectations are substantial for each innovation implementation of ideas has shown them to be more modest in practice This book examines innovations in several developing countries presenting case studies of technological curricular and organizational innovations selected for their magnitude in financial investment scope and duration The case studies explore the social and political contexts that shaped the features of these innovations and what they accomplished over time in terms of teacher cost reduction status mobility access to education and national unity The experience of countries such as Brazil Lesotho the Philippines and Namibia and the influence of international agencies such as the World Bank are described and analyzed against theories of social and organizational change The case studies themselves also serve as subjects for reflection on the prevailing positivist approaches to research and knowledge The Politics of Educational Innovations should be of considerable interest to students of educational change wither in the academic world or in the fields of government and international cooperation Learning Innovations with ICT Mario Barajas Frutos,2003 Infusing Real World Experiences into Engineering Education AMD NextGen Engineer,National Academy of Engineering,2012-11-15 The aim of this report is to encourage enhanced richness and relevance of the undergraduate engineering education experience and thus produce better prepared and more globally competitive graduates by providing practical guidance for incorporating real world experience in US engineering programs The report a collaborative effort of the National Academy of Engineering NAE and Advanced Micro Devices Inc AMD builds on two NAE reports on The Engineer of 2020 that cited the importance of grounding engineering education in real world experience This project also aligns with other NAE efforts in engineering education such as the Grand Challenges of Engineering Changing the Conversation and Frontiers of Engineering Education This publication presents 29 programs that have successfully infused real world experiences into engineering or engineering technology undergraduate education The Real World Engineering Education committee acknowledges the vision of AMD in supporting this project which provides useful exemplars for institutions of higher education who seek model programs for infusing real world experiences in their programs The NAE selection committee was impressed by the number of institutions committed to grounding their programs in real world experience and by the quality creativity and diversity of approaches reflected in the submissions A call for nominations sent to engineering and engineering technology deans chairs and faculty yielded 95 high quality submissions Two conditions were required of the nominations 1 an accredited 4 year undergraduate engineering or engineering technology program was the lead institutions and 2 the nominated program started operation no later than the fall 2010 semester Within these broad parameters nominations ranged from those based on innovations within a single course to enhancements across an entire curriculum or institution Infusing Real World Experiences into Engineering Education is intended to provide sufficient information to enable engineering and engineering technology faculty and administrators to assess and adapt effective innovative models of programs to their own institution s objectives Recognizing that change is rarely trivial the project included a brief survey of selected engineering deans concern in the adoption of such programs
