Educational Policy And International Assessment:

Educational Policy and International Assessment Alan Carroll Purves, Daniel U. Levine, 1975 Educational Policy Evaluation through International Comparative Assessments Rolf Strietholt, Wilfried Bos, Jan-Eric Gustafsson, Monica Rosén, 2014 One of the most salient findings from the field of education is that there are huge national differences in student achievement as shown in international comparative studies like PISA and TIMSS The shockingly large gap between the highest performing countries mostly in East Asia and many European countries corresponds to a difference in attainment of two years of schooling Although this finding has been replicated in several studies the reasons for and consequences of such differences are currently not well understood This book is a collection of essays and studies by leading experts in international comparative education who demonstrate how international comparative assessments can be used to evaluate educational policies The volume is organized into two parts that address first theoretical foundations and methodological developments in the field of international assessments and second innovative substantive studies that utilize international data for policy evaluation studies The intention of this book is to revisit the idea of using the world as an educational laboratory both to inform policy and to facilitate theory development Educational Policy and International Assessment Alan Carroll Purves, Daniel U. Levine, 1975 Handbook of Education Policy Studies Guorui Fan, Thomas S. Popkewitz, 2020-06-10 This open access handbook brings together the latest research from a wide range of internationally influential scholars to analyze educational policy research from international historical and interdisciplinary perspectives By effectively breaking through the boundaries between countries and disciplines it presents new theories techniques and methods for contemporary education policy and illustrates the educational policies and educational reform practices that various countries have introduced to meet the challenges of continuous change This volume focuses on policies and changes in schools and classrooms The studies on school changes present the differences in the policies and challenges of K 12 schools and universities in different countries and regions and in connection with the contradictions and conflicts between tradition and modernization as well as the changing roles of various stakeholders especially that of teachers In terms of curriculum and instruction many countries have undertaken experiments and introduced changes based on two major themes what to teach and how to teach International education assessments represented by PISA not only promote the improvement and extensive application of educational assessment and testing techniques but have also had far reaching impacts on education policies and education reforms in many countries Focusing on the changes in educational policies at the micro level this volume comprehensively reveals the complex interactions between school organizations teachers curricula teaching and learning evaluation and other elements within the education system as well as the latest related reforms worldwide Comparing Learning Outcomes Jay Moskowitz, Maria Stephens, 2004-05-20 Written by researchers from eleven different countries these accounts offer clear guidance on conducting different forms of international comparative research and valuable suggestions for new directions in such research The Intersection of International Achievement Testing and Educational Policy Louis Volante, 2016-06-10 Educational systems around the world look to student assessment programs as they initiate reforms and revise educational policies to increase student achievement This edited volume examines the intersection of international achievement testing and education policy development in key countries around the world exploring how assessments can inform curriculum pedagogy strategic planning and ultimately determine large scale education policy and governance Noted chapter contributors explore how educational leadership and governance issues have been influenced by assessment programs across a range of political economic cultural and educational contexts The Intersection of International Achievement Testing and Education Policy provides educators academics and policymakers with cultural insights historical contexts and a framework for negotiating and understanding the consequences of educational policy decisions in schools
