Educational Therapy In Clinic And Classroom:

The Clinical Practice of Educational Therapy Maxine Ficksman, Jane Utley Adelizzi, 2013-05-13 The Clinical Practice of Educational Therapy is the first book to provide a comprehensive review of the interdisciplinary profession and practice of educational therapy as it exists today It describes the scope and practice of educational therapy from its European roots to its growing presence in the United States and provides case studies to illustrate the work of educational therapists Key Features Interdisciplinary Perspective Other books focus on either educational or therapeutic interventions but rarely discuss the blend and synergy of disciplines that are the hallmark of the profession Illustrative Cases The text draws heavily on case studies as a means of understanding the practice of educational therapy especially the relationship between therapist and client Expertise Chapter authors are either experienced educational therapists or allied professionals who have made scholarly contributions to the profession such as Dorothy Ungerleider Patricia Waters Roslyn Arnold and George McCloskey In addition to educational therapy students and practitioners this book is appropriate for those working in related fields including special education school psychology school counseling and social work in educational settings The Clinical Practice of Educational Therapy Maxine Ficksman, Jane Adelizzi, 2017-09-01 The second edition of The Clinical Practice of Educational Therapy provides a comprehensive review of the interdisciplinary profession and practice of educational therapy as it exists today In addition to educational therapists and students this book is appropriate for professionals who work in related fields such as special education regular education school and educational psychology school counseling psychology speech and language pathology art therapy occupational therapy and social work as well as in medicine and psychiatry

Educational Therapy in the Clinic and the Classroom Muriel Barrett, Ved Varma, 1996-01-01 Educational Therapy in Clinic and Classroom Muriel Barrett, Ved P. Varma, 1996 Educational Therapy Marshall B. Rosenberg, William C. Rhodes, Matthew J. Trippe, Helen F. Gofman, Mary Engel, Frances P. Connor, Icchok Ignacy Goldberg, Carl Fenichel, Norris G. Haring, Jean E. Lukens, Beth H. Slingerland, 1973 Virtual Educational Therapy Marion E. Marshall, 2022-06-20 Virtual Educational Therapy presents a board certified educational therapist's year long case study of clinical supports and advocacy for a student with learning disabilities who is attending school remotely during the COVID 19 pandemic With online and blended learning now the norm in K 12 education educational therapists need new models of intervention treatment and relationship building for their child age clients This book offers detailed single case research focused on a middle school student who is learning virtually while challenged with ADHD as well as visual and verbal memory issues but who is nonetheless found ineligible for special education services Across eight chapters author and renowned educational therapist Marion E Marshall describes the neuropsychological principles research based techniques personal interactions clinical approaches and advocacy efforts that led to a vulnerable student's significant gains in academic skills and outcomes Educational Therapy Jerome Hellmuth, 1973 Educational Therapy Marshall B.

Rosenberg,1973-03-01 Evidence-Based Education in the Classroom Jennifer Friberg,Colleen Visconti,Sarah Ginsberg,2024-06-01 Evidence Based Education in the Classroom Examples From Clinical Disciplines shows educators how to use evidence to inform teaching practices and improve educational outcomes for students in clinically based fields of study Editors and speech language pathologists Drs Jennifer C Friberg Colleen F Visconti and Sarah M Ginsberg collaborated with a team of more than 65 expert contributors to share examples of how they have used evidence to inform their course design and delivery Each chapter is set up as a case study that includes A description of the teaching learning context focused on in the chapter A brief review of original data or extant literature being applied A description of how evidence was applied in the teaching learning context Additional ideas for how evidence could be applied in other teaching learning contexts across clinical disciplines Additional resources related to the pedagogy described in the case study e g journal articles books blogs websites Educators in the fields of speech language pathology audiology nursing social work sports medicine medicine dietetics dental assisting physician assisting radiology technology psychology and kinesiology already familiar with evidence based practice will find this resource helpful in implementing evidence informed approaches to their teaching While the content in clinical programs is quite different there are many similarities in how to teach students across such programs Evidence Based Education in the Classroom Examples From Clinical Disciplines highlights these similarities and represents a masterclass in how to practice evidence based education Educational Therapy in Action Dorothy Fink Ungerleider,2011-08-15 This book provides an in depth look at what a little known clinician the educational therapist does and how they do it It goes behind the clinician s door to illustrate the unusual and broad range of interventions both academic vocational and social emotional that an educational therapist employs This particular case study involves a young woman named Nora who had a severe but undiagnosed auditory processing disorder She could not give meaning to the spoken language that came at her too rapidly leaving her in a constant fog of words that she couldn t comprehend This case discloses the problems their causes and the emotional toll that had to be considered when developing an effective educational therapeutic plan for Nora It vividly illustrates the dynamic exchanges and mutual learning that goes on between client and therapist Parts I and II illustrate how the psycho educational interventions that addressed Nora s academic and non academic needs were gradually formulated over the first year Part III provides a series of vignettes from subsequent years that illustrate the ongoing applications of the therapist s work Distinguishing Features Explanatory Sidebars The rationale behind particular techniques and interventions is clarified through a system of explanatory sidebars that inform the reader without distracting from the story This approach makes the book both an instructional tool well as compelling story Organic Curriculum The rationale for and application of an organic personalized curriculum is explained and applied throughout the book as a model for others to use in working with this population A Longitudinal Perspective The initial work with Nora began many years ago so this book provides a long view of her life and tracks the influences that educational therapy exerted on her development into a fully functioning adult Cognitive Emotional Integration The core of educational therapy the interdependence of cognitive skills and emotional response is clearly documented throughout the book In addition to educational therapy students and practitioners this book is appropriate for those working in related fields such as special education school psychology school counselling and social work in educational settings Educational Therapy

Jerome Hellmuth,1966 Therapeutic Practice in Schools Lyn French,Reva Klein,2013-03 This book is an indispensable guide to providing therapy services for children and adolescents in primary and secondary school settings The contributors have extensive experience in the field and carefully examine every aspect of the work ranging from developing an understanding of the school context in all its complexity through to what to say and do in challenging therapy sessions and in meetings with school staff or parents and carers Therapeutic Practice in Schools opens with an overview of key psychoanalytic concepts informing therapy practice This is followed by a detailed exploration of the hopes and anxieties raised by providing therapy in schools the factors that either enable or impede the therapist s work and how to manage expectations as well as measure outcomes The practical aspects of delivering therapy sessions are also covered from the initial assessment phase through recognising and working with anxieties defences transference and counter transference to working with endings An awareness of the impact of social identity gender race and culture on both the therapist and client is woven into the book and is also discussed in depth in a dedicated chapter The manual offers a comprehensive yet highly readable guide to the complex world of school based therapy It provides practical examples of how therapists translate theory into everyday language that can be understood by their young clients ensuring that trainees starting a placement in schools as well as therapists beginning work in the educational setting for the first time are able to take up their role with confidence Skill Training for Community Living Arnold P. Goldstein,Robert P. Sprafkin,N. Jane Gershaw,1976

Structured Learning Therapy: Toward a Psychotherapy for the Poor Arnold P. Goldstein,1973 The author shows how Structured Learning techniques can be used to teach therapeutic skills to paraprofessionals and therefore help provide many more effective change agents than are currently available Book jacket Enlarging The Therapeutic Circle: The Therapists Guide To Robert Sherman, Ed.D.,Adala Shumsky, Ed.D.,Yvonne B. Roundtree, Ph.D.,1994-11-01 First published in 1995 Finally we have a book that addresses what research and common sense tell us children who dysfunction do it as a result of the systems in which they reside Although the data has been available professionals have not been willing to broaden their therapeutic circles and theoretical frameworks in order to change their professional practices The exciting thing about Enlarging the Therapeutic Circle is that it will make a real impact The authors present a strong rationale for ecosystemic intervention and a realistic discussion of the types of school and family resistance The authors have practiced this approach for over 25 years in a variety of settings and truly understand what they are presenting Teaching and Learning Sally French,Susan Neville,Jo Laing,2014-05-15 Teaching and Learning A Guide for Therapists aims to provide a broad and practical guide to the many teaching methods available to therapists These range from traditional methods like the lecture to those which involve considerable learner participation such as role play project work seminars and discussion groups The book discusses clinical teaching and teaching of practical skills and examines the essential activities of preparation assessment and evaluation Although some attention is given to the processes of learning the book is essentially a practical guide for the busy clinical therapist rather than an in depth treatise for a therapist undertaking a lengthy educational course Every effort has been made to ensure that the book is accessible to practitioners with no previous knowledge or experience of teaching It will also be useful to experienced tutors who are keen to extend their expertise The book is extensively referenced to assist those readers who require further information

Neurocognitive Learning Therapy: Theory and Practice Theodore Wasserman, Lori Drucker Wasserman, 2017-08-01 This groundbreaking volume introduces the theoretical base and clinical methods of Neurocognitive Learning Therapy an integrative framework for client centered intervention The model unifies psychology and neuroscience in revisiting the connections between brain and behavior replacing the cognitive versus affective binary traditional to clinical thinking with a scenario of the cognitive and emotional learning processes that work together to shape adaptive and pathological behavior This foundation in learning theory illuminates the therapeutic relationship synching how therapists teach with how clients learn with guidelines for educating to encourage change The unique flexibility of the NCLT model allows practitioners across clinical orientations the freedom to apply eclectic intervention strategies that fit clients learning styles and therapeutic needs Included in the coverage Neurocognitive Learning Therapy and Life Course Theory Reward recognition in Neurocognitive Learning Therapy Memory reconsolidation and Neurocognitive Learning Therapy How to be an NCLT therapist Neurocognitive Learning Therapy clinical procedures Treating children with Neurocognitive Learning Therapy Plus practice handouts and forms for therapists and patients Neuropsychologists child and school psychologists and social workers will welcome Neurocognitive Learning Therapy not only as a source of theoretical insight into the brain and behavior but also as an innovative system for enhancing their capacity for therapeutic teaching and their clients capacity for learning
