Human Nature and the Discipline of Economics Patricia Donohue-White, 2002-01-01 Foundations of Economic Personalism is a series of three book length monographs each closely examining a significant dimension of the Center for Economic Personalism s unique synthesis of Christian personalism and free economic market theory In the aftermath of the momentous geo political and economic changes of the late 1980s a small group of Christian social ethicists began to converse with free market economists over the morality of market activity This interdisciplinary exchange eventually led to the founding of a new academic subdiscipline under the rubric of economic personalism These scholars attempt to integrate economic theory history and methodology with Christian personalism s stress upon human dignity humane social structures and social justice This second volume in the series surveys the anthropological foundations to the disciplines of economics and moral theology The first part of the book presents an overview of the German French and Polish branches of personalist thought Particular attention is given to theological anthropology especially as it is developed by such thinkers as Emmanuel Mounier Max Scheler Gabriel Marcel Karol Wojtyla and Emil Brunner Part two surveys models of human nature that have been espoused by various schools of free market thought including mainstream neoclassical economics In conclusion the authors demonstrate how an expanded

Wealth of Persons John McNerney, 2016-08-31 Thomas Piketty's Capital in the Twenty First Century initiated a great debate not just about inequality but also regarding the failures found in the economic models used by theoreticians and practitioners alike Wealth of Persons offers a totally different perspective that challenges the very terms of the debate The Great Recession reveals a great existential rift at the core of certain economic reflections thereby showing the real crisis of the crisis of economics In the human sciences we have created a kind of Tower of Babel where we cannot understand each other any longer The breakdowns occur equally on the personal social political and economic levels There is a need for an about face in method to restore harmony among dissociated disciplines Wealth of Persons offers a key to such a restoration applying insights and analysis taken from different economic scholars schools of thought philosophical traditions various disciplines and charismatic entrepreneurs Wealth of Persons aims at recapturing an adequate understanding of the acting human person in the economic drama one that measures up to the reality The investigation is a passport allowing entry into the land of economic knowledge properly unfolding the anthropological meaning of the free economy
