Ruzzante,2018-04-24 Government financial assets are increasingly recognized as playing an important role in assessing fiscal sustainability However very little research has been done on the dynamics of government financial assets compared to liabilities In this paper we investigate the impact of recent financial crises and macroeconomic shocks on government balance sheets decomposing the separate effects on financial assets and liabilities Using quarterly Government Finance Statistics GFS data we analyze a panel of 27 countries over the period 1999Q1 2017Q1 through fixed effects and panel VAR techniques Financial crises are shown to deteriorate the net financial worth of governments but no significant impact is found on assets suggesting that they are not being used as fiscal buffers in bad times On the contrary countries that suffered both financial and banking crises experienced an artificial increase of their asset position through bank bailouts
