Keepers of the Motherland Dagmar C. G. Lorenz, 1997-01-01 Keepers of the Motherland is the first comprehensive study of German and Austrian Jewish women authors Dagmar Lorenz begins with an examination of the Yiddish author Glikl Hamil whose works date from the late seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries and proceeds through such contemporary writers as Grete Weil Katja Behrens and Ruth Kl_ger Along the way she examines an extraordinary range of distinguished authors including Else Lasker Sch_ler Rosa Luxemburg Nelly Sachs and Gertrud Kolmar Although Lorenz highlights the author's individualities she unifies Keepers of the Motherland with sustained attention to the ways in which they all reflect upon their identities as Jews and women In this spirit Lorenz argues that the themes and characters as well as the environments evoked in the texts of Jewish women authors writing in German resist patriarchal structures The term motherland defining the domain of the Jewish woman's native language regardless of political or ethnic boundaries is juxtaposed with the concept fatherland referring to the power structures of the nation or state in which she resides Lorenz describes a vital diverse and largely dissident literary tradition a brilliant countertradition in effect that has endured in spite of oppression and genocide Combining careful research with inspired synthesis Lorenz provides an indispensable work for students of German Jewish and women's writings Focus on Literatur, 2000 Soul of Wood Jakob Lind, 2010-01-05 Soul of Wood made Jakob Lind's reputation as one of the most boldy imaginative postwar writers and it remains his most celebrated achievement In the title novella and six subsequent stories Lind distorts and refashions reality to make the deepest horrors of the twentieth century his own Set during World War II Soul of Wood is the story of Wohlbrecht a peg legged veteran of World War I who smuggles Anton Barth a paralyzed Jewish boy to a mountain hideout after the boy's parents have been sent to their deaths Abandoning the helpless boy to the elements Wohlbrecht returns to Vienna where having been committed to an insane asylum he helps the chief psychiatrist to administer lethal injections to other patients But Germany is collapsing and the war will soon be over The one way Wohlbrecht realizes that he can evade retribution is by returning to the woods to redeem his hidden Jew Others however have had the same bright idea struggles This monograph focuses on four authors who bore literary witness to the Shoah H G Adler Fred Wander Edgar Hilsenrath and Ruth Kluger It analyzes their autofictional critical and autobiographical works written between the early 1950s and 2015 which depict their postwar experiences of writing publishing and publicizing Holocaust testimony These case studies shed light on the devastating aftermaths of the Holocaust in different contexts Adler depicts his attempts to overcome marginalization as a writer in Britain in the 1950s Wander reflects on his failure to find a home either in postwar Austria or in the GDR Hilsenrath satirizes his struggles as an emigrant to the US in the 1960s and after returning to Berlin in the 1980s Finally in her 2008 memoir Ruth Kluger follows up her earlier highly impactful memoir of the concentration camps by narrating the misogyny and antisemitism she experienced in US and German academia Helen Finch analyzes how these under researched texts intertwine transgressive political criticism with the shadow of trauma Drawing on scholarship on Holocaust testimony transnational memory and affect theory her book reveals new perspectives on canon formation and exclusion in postwar German literature

Contemporary Jewish Writing in Austria Dagmar C. G. Lorenz, 1999-01-01 Devoted to collecting the finest Jewish writing from around the world the Jewish Writing in the Contemporary World series consists of anthologies by country that are designed to present to the English speaking world authors and works deserving international consideration As a series the books permit a broad examination of the international crosscurrents in Jewish thought and culture Contemporary Jewish Writing in Austria presents a gathering of writers from several generations who have published a remarkable range of works in recent decades The result is a diverse portrait of Jewish experience in Austria since the Second World War Dagmar C G Lorenz has assembled an extraordinary roster of literary talents ranging from authors born in the early decades of this century to writers born after the Shoah The volume maps a complex tradition of Jewish discourse marked by a profound awareness of the literary past by the failure of a long anticipated Austrian Jewish symbiosis and by the unparalleled tragedy of the Shoah It is a modern tradition that has made an essential contribution to Austria's literary history while remaining in Lorenz's words distinct and unassimilated

Encyclopedia of Contemporary German Culture John Sandford, 2013-04-03 Pre and post unification culture Includes Austria and Switzerland Annotated suggestions for further reading English and German language works

Translingual Identities Tamar Steinitz, 2013 Explores the psychology of literary translingualism in the works of two authors finding it expressed as loss and fragmentation in one case and as opportunity and mediation in the other The works of translingual writers those who write in a language other than their native tongue present a rich field for study but literary translingualism remains underresearched and undertheorized In this work Tamar Steinitz explores the psychological effects of translingualism in the works of two authors the German Stefan Heym 1913 2001 and the Austrian Jakob Lind 1927 2007 Both were forced into exile by the rise of Nazism both chose English as a language of artistic expression Steinitz argues that translingualism which ruptures the perceived link between language and world as the writer chooses between systems of representation leads to a psychic split that can be expressed in the writer's work as a schizophrenic existence or as a productive doubling of perspective Movement between languages can thus reflect both the freedom associated with geographical mobility and the emotional price it entails Reading Lind's and Heym's works within their postwar context Steinitz proposes these authors as representative models respectively of translingualism as loss and fragmentation and translingualism as opportunity and mediation Tamar Steinitz teaches English literature at Queen Mary and Goldsmiths colleges University of London She has also worked as a literary translator
