Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz, 2008-09-05 When it began modern Spanish cinema was under strict censorship forced to conform to the ideological demands of the Nationalist regime In 1950 the New Spanish Cinema was born as a protest over General Francisco Franco's policies a new series of directors and films began to move away from the conformist line to offer a bold brand of Spanish realism In the 1950s and early 1960s filmmakers such as Juan Antonio Bardem Luis García Berlanga and Luis Buñuel expressed a liberal image of Spain to the world in such films as Muerte de un ciclista Death of a Cyclist Bienvenido Señor Marshall Welcome Mr Marshall and Viridiana The emergence of new directors continued into the sixties and seventies with Carlos Saura José Luis Borau Víctor Erice and others After Franco's death in 1975 censorship was abolished and films openly explored such formerly taboo subjects as sexuality drugs the church the army and the Civil War The Spanish cinema was no longer escapist and entertaining but at long last mirrored the society it depicted While established directors like Saura Bardem and Berlanga continued to produce distinguished work the new wave of Spanish cinema included brilliant films by the likes of Montxo Armendáriz Tasio Fernando Trueba First Work Imanol Uribe The Death of Mikel and Pedro Almodóvar Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown In the last couple of decades exciting works by established filmmakers and newcomers alike continue to be produced including Alejandro Amenábar's Thesis José Luis García's The Grandfather and Almodóvar's Talk to Her and Volver In

Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz presents a compendium of outstanding Spanish films from the pre Francoist era through the Spanish New Wave of the 80 s and 90 s and into the present day Schwartz provides background plot and commentaries of key films from six decades of Spanish cinema In addition to identifying European Film Noir Andrew Spicer,2019-01-04 European Film Noir is the first book to bring together specialist discussions of film noir in specific European national cinemas Written by leading scholars this groundbreaking study provides an authoritative understanding of an important aspect of European cinema and of film noir itself for too long considered as a solely American form The Introduction reviews the problems of defining film noir its key characteristics and discusses its significance to the development of European film the relationship of specific national films noirs to each other to American noir and to historical and social change Eight chapters then discuss film noir in France Germany Britain and Spain analysing both earlier developments and the evolution of neo noir through to the present A further chapter explores film noir in Italian cinema where its presence is not so well defined Each piece provides a critical overview of the most significant films in relation to their industrial and social contexts European Film Noir is an important contribution to the study of European cinema that will have a broad appeal to undergraduates cin astes film teachers and researchers Historical Dictionary of Film Noir Andrew Spicer,2010-03-19 Film noir literally black cinema is the label customarily given to a group of black and white American films mostly crime thrillers made between 1940 and 1959 Today there is considerable dispute about what are the shared features that classify a noir film and therefore which films should be included in this category These problems are partly caused because film noir is a retrospective label that was not used in the 1940s or 1950s by the film industry as a production category and therefore its existence and features cannot be established through reference to trade documents The Historical Dictionary of Film Noir is a comprehensive guide that ranges from 1940 to present day neo noir It consists of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography a filmography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on every aspect of film noir and neo noir including key films personnel actors cinematographers composers directors producers set designers and writers themes issues influences visual style cycles of films e g amnesiac noirs the representation of the city and gender other forms comics graphic novels television and videogames and noir s presence in world cinema It is an essential reference work for all those interested in this important cultural phenomenon Iberian Crime Fiction Nancy Vosburg,2011-02-15 Iberian Crime Fiction is the first volume in English to provide an extensive overview of crime fiction in Spain and Portugal While the origins of peninsular crime fiction are traced in Nancy Vosburg s introductory chapter to the volume the essays focus on specific topics that provide readers with a sense of the development of the genre in the second half of the 20th century and current trends in the 21st century Patty Hart whose The Spanish Sleuth introduced English speaking readers to early crime fiction in Spain provides a summary account of the development of the crime novel from the 1950s through the 1980s highlighting the major authors and works that set the stage for the boom that followed the establishment of the novela negra tradition in the 1970s This tradition spearheaded by Manuel Vazquez Montalban is the subject of a separate essay by Maria Balibrea that analyzes the socio political conditions that gave rise to the novela negra NancyVosburg studies the emergence of a feminine feminist crime novel in the 1980s and 1990s and the subversion of masculine codes associated with crime fiction while Stewart King analyzes crime fiction from the Catalan Basque and Galician autonomous regions of Spain focusing on the political realities that resulted in a different use of the genre as a vehicle of regional nationalism David Knutson traces contemporary trends in Spanish crime fiction beginning in the 1990s and up to the present Paul Castro s essay documents the emergence of crime fiction in Portugal and the major works authors through to the present Transatlantic Mysteries William J. Nichols,2011 Transatlantic Mysteries presents a comparative study that brings together authors Paco Ignacio Taibo II and Manuel V zquez Montalb n from two specific political contexts post 1968 Mexico and post Franco Spain who both work in one specific genre noir detective fiction In this so called age of globalization Spain and Mexico have witnessed an explosion in the production of noir detective fiction which these authors choose purposefully in order to infiltrate the market with formulaic popular literature while simultaneously critiquing the effects of the neoliberal strategies embraced by their countries By locating themselves at the crossroads where literature meets the market they not only underscore the effects of capital on literary and cultural production but also explore the possibility for their writing to resist the influences of capital and question the role of an intellectual in an era of globalization At the core of their writing Taibo and V zquez Montalb n examine the revolutionary possibilities of literature and popular culture to offer a new kind of Marxist project that revitalizes the Left by redefining the role of socially engaged literature in a globalized landscape Resisting Invisibility Diana Aramburu,2019-05-09 Engaging with pre feminist and male authored crime literature Resisting Invisibility offers a comparative reading of women s bodies as represented in Spanish crime literature from the mid nineteenth century to the present Utilizing the twin concepts of visibility and invisibility the book establishes a genealogy of differing viewpoints regarding women s positions in these narratives before and after the birth of the modern Spanish female detective This examination of the politics of female visibility expands our understanding of the aesthetic regimes that have governed the female body from the early phases of the genre s evolution While most scholars understand the feminization of the crime genre as a response to second wave feminism Resisting Invisibility demonstrates that even in the earliest representations of delinquent women the politics surrounding the female body are problematized and are more complex than previously conceptualized Drawing on gender and queer studies Resisting Invisibility investigates the gendering of crime fiction forcing us to reconsider the literary history of female visibility and prompting us to establish an alternative genealogy for Spanish crime literature Historical Dictionary of Spanish Cinema Alberto Mira,2019-12-04 Historical Dictionary of Spanish Cinema covers Spanish cinema its treasures its constant attempts to break through internationally reaching out towards universal themes and conventions and the specific obstacles and opportunities that have shaped the careers of filmmakers and stars This book contains a chronology an introduction an appendix and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on titles movements filmmakers and performers and genres such as homosexuality nuevo cine espa ol or horror This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Spanish cinema

Investigating Identities Marieke Krajenbrink, Kate M. Quinn, 2009 Investigating Identities Questions of Identity in Contemporary International Crime Fiction is one of the relatively few books to date which adopts a comparative approach to the study of the genre This collection of twenty essays by international scholars examining crime fiction production from over a dozen countries confirms that a comparative approach can both shed light on processes of adaptation and appropriation of the genre within specific national regional or local contexts and also uncover similarities between the works of authors from very different areas Contributors explore discourse concerning national and historical memory language race ethnicity culture and gender and examine how identity is affirmed and challenged in the crime genre today They reveal a growing tendency towards hybridization and postmodern experimentation and increasing engagement with philosophical enquiry into the epistemological dimensions of investigation Throughout the notion of stable identities is subject to scrutiny While each essay in itself is a valuable addition to existing criticism on the genre all the chapters mutually inform and complement each other in fascinating and often unexpected ways This volume makes an important contribution to the growing field of crime fiction studies and to ongoing debates on questions of identity It will therefore be of special interest to students and scholars of the crime genre identity studies and comparative literature It will also appeal to all who enjoy reading contemporary crime fiction

Crime Scene Spain Renée W. Craig-Odders, Jacky Collins, 2014-01-10 This essay collection examines the changing cultural political and physical landscape of Spain as represented in Spanish crime fiction of the last three decades The first several essays focus on crime fiction set in Barcelona and look at among other topics the symbiotic relationship between the city and the detective in Francisco Gonzalez Ledesma s long running Inspector Mendez series Manuel Vazquez Montalban s treatments of the 1992 Summer Olympic Games and place and identity in Alicia Gimenez Bartlett s Petra Delicado series Other essays examine regional and cultural illiteracy in Jorge Martinez Reverte s Galvez series and Spain s changing urban centers as represented in Andreu Martin s El blues de la semana mas negra

Thinking Barcelona Edgar Illas, 2012-01-01 Thinking Barcelona studies the ideologies that redefined Barcelona during the 1980s and helped the city adapt to a new economy of tourism culture and services Looking specifically at the lead up to the 1992 Olympic Games and the urban renewal geared toward establishing Barcelona as a happy combination of European cosmopolitanism and Mediterranean rootedness Edgar Illas situates Barcelona as a key example of contemporary urban rebranding after the fall of communism and the establishment of the neoliberal end of history Looking at a host of materials associated with the games as well as contemporary architectural and literary works he offers a compelling look at postmodern globalization as it manifests itself through urban regeneration

A Companion to Spanish Cinema Bernard P. E.

Bentley,2008 This volume offers a detailed chronological account of the history of Spanish cinema Hispanic and Luso-Brazilian Detective Fiction Renée W. Craig-Odders,Jacky Collins,Glen S. Close,2006-03-20 The image of the hard boiled private investigator from gritty pulp fiction a terse and mysterious figure has become increasingly universal as the detective novel crosses more and more borders A booming genre in Latin America Spain and other Hispanic cultures detective fiction has transcended the limitations of its influences Hispanic authors relatively new to the genre have published novels and series popular with the public while a number of well known writers have adapted the genre to reflect the concurrent globalization of modern society and the crimes within it This volume presents a compilation of 11 critical essays on genero negro contemporary detective fiction in the Hispanic and Luso Brazilian canon Surveying the last twenty years the text analyzes emerging trends in this rapidly evolving genre as well as the mutations and innovations taking place within the style The first section of the book is dedicated to the detective fiction of Spain and Portugal The second section surveys works from Latin America and the United States where topics touch on universal subjects like crime identity and feminism

Radical Justice Luis Martín-Cabrera,2011-08-16 Radical Justice investigates the convoluted relationship between memory and justice as it is portrayed in political documentaries and detective fiction from Spain and the Southern Cone It argues that the possibility of achieving justice in these regions lies beyond market and state and is yet to come Rather than focusing on high literature Radical Justice uses popular culture as a site from which to question both the inability of the State and the transnational market to come to terms with the dictatorial past and to deliver justice This book will interest a wide range of scholars from national literature and film specialists of Argentina Chile and Spain to philosophers and students of ethics human rights and questions of justice Contemporary Hispanic Crime Fiction G. Close,2016-04-30 This study examines representations of the cityscape and of a so called new urban violence in both detective centered and detectiveless crime fiction produced in Spanish America and Spain during recent decades It documents the emergence and permutations of this production as an index not only of local perceptions of contemporary urban experience and of a contemporary urban ecology of fear but also as a transnational index of the globalization of literary forms and markets It centers on the inscription of urban space in novels set in the metropolitan centers of the Hispanic World Mexico City Bogota Buenos Aires and Barcelona
