shows that for upper class residents in the affluent neighborhoods of Ipanema Rio de Janeiro and El Condado San Juan parenting is particularly effective in providing moral grounding for neoliberal projects that disadvantage the overwhelmingly poor and racialized people who care for and teach their children Wealthy parents in Ipanema and El Condado cultivate a liberal cosmopolitanism by living in multicultural city neighborhoods rather than gated suburban communities Yet as Ramos Zayas reveals their parenting strategies which stress spirituality empathy and equality allow them to preserve and reproduce their white privilege Defining this moral economy as parenting empires she sheds light on how child rearing practices permit urban elites in the Global South to sustain and profit from entrenched social and racial hierarchies Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977 R.R.
