in his First Reading Book namely to begin by reading aloud from a book fully pointed with a Moslem who is accustomed to recite the Qur'an in public prayer From 1880 to 1892 he was almost continually in the East As Mrs Thornton who accompanied her husband on all his journeys writes to me He was very quick at languages and thought much of correct pronunciation so that during several visits to Egypt he had one of the students from the University Mosque al Azhar Cairo to read Arabic with him His whole thoughts and time were given up to his projected Series and especially to the Arabic Grammar as he found so many in Egypt Army officers and missionaries who did not care to go to the expense or labour of learning the larger and more difficult Grammars About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Elementary Arabic Thornton Du Pre, 1905
