Elements Of Extemporisation:

The Elements of Extemporisation Sydney Hugo Nicholson, 1969 The elements of extemporisation Sydney H. Nicholson, 1950 Church Music Richard C. Von Ende, 1980 No descriptive material is available for this title Becoming a Garamut Player in Baluan, Papua New Guinea Tony Lewis, 2018-04-19 The garamut is a log idiophone that is found in many of the coastal and island areas of Papua New Guinea The instrument's primary use is as a speech surrogate and in some regions the garamut is also used in large ensembles to play complex music for dancing In Baluan Island within the Manus Province this style of garamut playing is comparatively highly developed This book follows the author's processes and methods in learning to play the music of the garamut to the level at which he became accepted as a garamut player by the people of Baluan Lewis argues that analysis is essential in learning to play the rapid tempi and complex rhythms of Baluan garamut music in a cultural context where there is no formal teaching process for the music The transcription and analysis of the Baluan garamut repertoire is the centrepiece of this study reflecting the cognitive structures of the learning process and revealing the inner workings of the music's complexity as well as a striking beauty of form and structure The book concludes with reflections on the process of a cultural outsider becoming a garamut player in Baluan and on the role of musical analysis in that process on the ethnomusicologist's role in transmission of the music and on the nature of continuity and change in a musical society such as Baluan

The Cambridge Companion to Roman Comedy Martin T. Dinter, 2019-04-04 Provides a comprehensive critical engagement with Roman comedy and its reception presented by leading international scholars in accessible and up to date chapters

Governance and Regulation in Social Life Augustine Brannigan, George Pavlich, 2007-03-06 With leading international contributors this text is the only work currently available that examines W G Carson and his crucial influence in the turn towards sociological approaches to criminology and a criminological interest in governance and social control

Global Insights on Theatre Censorship Catherine O'Leary, Diego Sánchez, Michael Thompson, 2017-09-19 Theatre has always been subject to a wide range of social political moral and doctrinal controls with authorities and social groups imposing constraints on scripts venues staging acting and reception Focusing on a range of countries and political regimes this book examines the many forms that theatre censorship has taken in the 20th century and continues to take in the 21st arguing that it remains a live issue in the contemporary world The book re-examines assumptions about prohibition and state control and offers a more complex reading of theatre censorship as a continuum ranging from the unconscious self censorship built into social structures and discursive practices through bureaucratic regulation or unofficial influence up to detention and physical violence An international team of contributors offers an illuminating set of case studies informed by both new archival research and the first hand experience of playwrights and directors covering theatre censorship in areas such as Spain Portugal Brazil Poland East Germany Nepal Zimbabwe the USA Ireland and Britain Focusing on right wing dictatorships post colonial regimes communist systems and Western democracies

the essays analyze methods and discourses of censorship identify the multiple agents involved examine the responses of theatremakers and show how each example reveals important features of its political and cultural contexts Expanding understanding of the nature and effects of censorship this volume affirms the power of theatre to challenge authorized discourses and makes a timely contribution to debates about freedom of expression through performance Dunkirk Sinclair McKay,2014-09-18 From the author of the Sunday Times bestseller The Secret Life of Bletchley Park When Churchill made one of the most inspiring speeches of the 20th century we will fight them on the beaches he was giving thanks for the miracle of deliverance the harrowing and breathless evacuation of over 338 000 troops from the beaches and harbour at Dunkirk Churchill was determined it shouldn't be labelled a victory He was already too late Hours later broadcaster JB Priestley was to call it an absurd English epic Those days of Dunkirk are still invoked now whenever the nation finds itself in any kind of crisis But there is a wider story too that involves a very large number of civilians from nurses to racing enthusiasts trades union leaders to dance hall managers novelists to seaside caf owners And even wider yet a story that starts in September 1939 of young civilian men being trained for a war that was already 25 years out of date and the increasing suspense and occasional surrealism of the Phoney War The absurd epic of Dunkirk told here through fresh interviews with veterans plus unseen letters and archival material is the story of how an old fashioned island was brutally forced into the modernity of World War Two Church Music at the Crossroads Lionel Dakers,1970 The Companion to Irish Traditional Music Fintan Vallely,1999 Fintan Vallely's survey of Irish traditional music examines a wide range of topics relating to the history of the genre the characters past and present who engage with the music and an analysis of the way the media represents it Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1890 The Old Songs are Always New Genevieve Campbell,2023-07-01 It's really great It's like they're all here I hear all of these voices and I sing with them you know Yikliya Eustace Tipiloura senior songman and Elder Perhaps the most defining feature of Tiwi song is the importance placed on the creative innovation of the individual singer composer Tiwi songs are fundamentally new unique and occasion specific and yet sit within a continuum of an oral artistic tradition Performed in ceremony at public events for art and for fun songs form the core of the Tiwi knowledge system and historical archive Held by song custodians and taught through sung and danced ritual generations of embodied practice are still being created and accumulated as people continue to sing In 2009 Genevieve Campbell and eleven Tiwi colleagues travelled to Canberra to reclaim over 1300 recordings of Tiwi songs made between 1912 and 1981 that are held in the archives at the Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies AIATSIS The Old Songs are Always New explores the return home of these recordings to the Tiwi Islands and describes the musical and vocal characteristics performance context and cultural function of the twelve Tiwi song types giving an overview of the linguistic and poetic devices used by Tiwi composers For the past 16 years Campbell has been working closely with Tiwi song custodians studying contemporary Tiwi song culture in the context of the maintenance of traditions and the development of new music forms Their musical collaboration has resulted in public performances community projects and recordings featuring current senior singers and the voices of the repatriated recordings For this publication Elders have enabled the transcription of many song texts and melodies for the first time shedding light on how generations of Tiwi singers have connected the past with the present in a continuum of knowledge transmission and arts practice
