Semiotics in Poland 1894-1969 J. Pelc, 2012-12-06 In the Introduction to the Polish language version of the present book I expressed the hope that Polish studies in semiotics would before long be numerous enough to make possible another anthology on semiotics in Poland containing material published since 1970 That hope has in fact come true The fact that semiotic research has been gaining momentum in this country is reflected in the growing interest in the discipline in expanding international contacts and in the steady increase in the number of publications Thus 1972 saw the setting up of the Department of Logical Semiotics headed by the present writer at Warsaw University Institute of Philosophy The seminar on semiotics which I started in 1961 had met more than two hundred times by the end of 1976 since 1968 meetings have been held jointly with the Polish Semiotic Society Another seminar confined to university staff and concerned with logical semiotics which was initiated in 1970 had met more than fifty times by the end of 1976 The former seminar often plays host to foreign visiting professors so far scholars from Australia Belgium Britain Canada Czechoslovakia France the German Democratic Republic Italy the Netherlands the Soviet Union and the United States have attended

Linguistic Semiotics Mingyu Wang, 2020-02-25 This is the first book of its kind that explains the basic concepts theoretical foundations and systematic research of linguistic semiotics so as to establish a well founded framework for linguistic semiotics as an independent discipline While examining the major claims of different schools of semiotics it also addresses 12 central issues concerning linguistic semiotics and outlines semiotic studies in China focusing on the multiple research areas and accomplishments In addition to illustrations and tables the book offers an Index of References in Linguistic Semiotics consisting of 1 063 entries including monographs journal papers conference proceedings etc in Chinese English and Russian

Semantics and Lexicography Herbert Ernst Wiegand, 2011-05-02 This volume is a compilation of nine articles translated from German They deal with those lexicographic texts or text excerpts which have been formulated in order to convey the meaning of a lexical unit to a potential dictionary user who is not familiar with that meaning The articles not only critically analyze lexicographic practice in particular the so called lexicographic definitions and the items giving the synonyms in correlation with the examples in the light of different semantic approaches They also present ways towards a common understanding in the context of lexicographically imparting knowledge of meaning i e on the basis of an actional semantics approach which takes into account results obtained from analyses of everyday dialogs about word meanings Moreover they discuss how meaning conveying texts can serve their purposes in dictionary look up situations and they lay out all those aspects which are particularly to be taken into consideration in the formulation of lexicographic texts aimed at conveying meaning in dictionaries belonging to different types      Cultures, Ideologies, and the Dictionary Braj B. Kachru, Henry Kahane, 2013-03-01 A pioneering volume addressing issues related to cultures ideologies and the dictionary A cross cultural and cross linguistic study with focus on selected Western and non Western languages A number of in depth case studies illustrates the dominant role ideology and other types of bias play in the making of a dictionary The volume includes invited papers of 40 internationally recognized scholars      Historical, Indo-European, and Lexicographical Studies Hans H. Hock, 2011-06-24 TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS is a series of books that open new perspectives in our understanding of language The series publishes state of the art work on core areas of linguistics across theoretical frameworks as well as studies that provide new insights by building bridges to neighbouring fields such as neuroscience and cognitive science TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS considers itself a forum for cutting edge research based on solid empirical data on language in its various manifestations including sign languages It regards linguistic variation in its synchronic and diachronic dimensions as well as in its social contexts as important sources of insight for a better understanding of the design of linguistic systems and the ecology and evolution of language TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS publishes monographs and outstanding dissertations as well as edited volumes which provide the opportunity to address controversial topics from different empirical and theoretical viewpoints High quality standards are ensured through anonymous reviewing      *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
