Half in Shadow Shanna Greene Benjamin, 2021-04-01 Nellie Y McKay 1930 2006 was a pivotal figure in contemporary American letters The author of several books McKay is best known for coediting the canon making Norton Anthology of African American Literature with Henry Louis Gates Jr which helped secure a place for the scholarly study of Black writing that had been ignored by white academia However there is more to McKay s life and legacy than her literary scholarship After her passing new details about McKay s life emerged surprising everyone who knew her Why did McKay choose to hide so many details of her past Shanna Greene Benjamin examines McKay s path through the professoriate to learn about the strategies sacrifices and successes of contemporary Black women in the American academy Benjamin shows that McKay s secrecy was a necessary tactic that a Black working class woman had to employ to succeed in the white dominated space of the American English department Using extensive archives and personal correspondence Benjamin brings together McKay's private life and public work to expand how we think about Black literary history and the place of Black women in American culture The Prentice Hall Anthology of African American Literature Rochelle Smith, Sharon Lynette Jones, 2000 B Tracing African American literary and artistic contributions from the 1700s to the 1990s this anthology presents a diverse collection that includes fiction nonfiction poetry drama speeches songs paintings and photography Readers learn about historical context literary content and rhetorical strategies while exploring sections on The Colonial Period 1746 1800 The Reconstruction Period 1865 1900 The Harlem Renaissance Period 1900 1940 The Protest Movement 1940 1959 The Black Aesthetics Movement 1960 1969 The Neo Realism Movement 1970 Present and Literary Criticism For those interested in African American literature art and history Translation that Openeth the Window David G. Burke, 2009 In celebration of the work of the translators of the King James Bible and the fruit of their labors the authors of this volume representing a wide range of disciplines and perspectives examine the cultural and religious monument that is the King James Bible After David G. Burke's introduction to the volume Alister McGrath Benson Bobrick Lynne Long and John R. Kohlenberger III explore in part 1 The World of Bible Translation before the King James Version In part 2 A Kenneth Curtis Barclay M. Newman and Charles Houser and Jack Lewis investigate The Making of the King James Bible In part 3 Leonard J. Greenspoon Cheryl J. Sanders Lamin Sanneh David Lyle Jeffrey and James R. White review The World of Bible Translation after the King James Bible Paperback 296 pages African-American Writers Philip Bader, 2014-05-14 African American authors have consistently explored the political dimensions of literature and its ability to affect social change African American literature has also provided an essential framework for shaping cultural identity and solidarity From the early slave narratives to the folklore and dialect verse of the Harlem Renaissance to the modern novels of today Spirit in the Dark Josef Sorett, 2016-08-01 Most of the major black literary and cultural movements of the twentieth century have been understood and interpreted as secular secularizing and at times profane In this book Josef Sorett demonstrates that religion was actually a formidable force within these movements animating and organizing African American literary visions throughout the years between the New Negro Renaissance of the 1920s and the Black Arts movement of the 1960s Sorett unveils the contours of a literary history that remained preoccupied with religion even as it was typically understood by authors readers and critics alike to be modern and therefore secular Spirit in the Dark offers an account of the ways in which religion especially Afro Protestantism remained pivotal to the ideas and aspirations of African American literature across much of the twentieth century From the dawn of the New Negro Renaissance until the ascendance of the Black Arts movement black writers developed a spiritual grammar for discussing race and art by drawing on terms such as church and spirit that were part of the landscape and lexicon of American religious history Sorett demonstrates that religion and spirituality have been key categories for identifying and interpreting what was or was not perceived to constitute or contribute to black literature and culture By examining figures and movements that have typically been cast as secular he offers theoretical insights that trouble the boundaries of what counts as sacred in scholarship on African American religion and culture Ultimately Spirit in the Dark reveals religion to be an essential ingredient albeit one that was always questioned and contested in the forging of an African American literary tradition

Field Hollers And Freedom Songs: The Anthology C. Sade Turnipseed, 2022 Taking place annually in the most southern place on earth aka the Cotton Kingdom the Sweat Equity Investment in the Cotton Kingdom Symposium offers a platform to honor celebrate and recognize the legacy of the African Americans who labored in the cotton fields of the Mississippi Delta The symposium intends to trigger discussions and provide a space where the histories and contributions of those Americans can be heard and learned from Born in the antebellum south the soul of America came to be through the tearful occupation of planting chopping picking and ginning cotton where it was then brined within a system of enslavement sharecropping and international trade that in so many ways provided America its greatness Carefully compiled from works presented at the symposia this anthology looks to expose the tortured cotton pickin spirit embedded in America's soul A spirit that is rendered in song chants spoken word and field hollers and revealed in this volume through the selected articles lyric poetry proverbs speeches slave narratives and workshop proposals The rich and varied content of this book reflects the uniqueness of not only the Mississippi Delta but also the histories of those who lived and worked there

Fictions of the Black Atlantic in American Foundational Literature Gesa Mackenthun, 2004 This book applies critical concepts developed within postcolonial theory to American texts written between the national emergence of the United States and the Civil War

Re-Membering and Surviving Shirley A. James Hanshaw, 2020-10-01 The first book length critical study of the black experience in the Vietnam War and its aftermath this text interrogates the meaning of heroism based on models from African and African American expressive culture It focuses on four novels Captain Blackman 1972 by John A Williams Tragic Magic 1978 by Wesley Brown Coming Home 1971 by George Davis and De Mojo Blues 1985 by A R Flowers Discussions of the novels are framed within the historical context of all wars prior to Vietnam in which Black Americans fought The success or failure of the hero on his identity quest is predicated upon the extent to which he can reconnect with African or African American cultural memory He is engaged therefore in re membering a term laden with the specificity of race that implies a cultural history comprised of African retentions and an interdependent relationship with the community for survival. The reader will find that a common history of racism and exploitation that African Americans and Vietnamese share sometimes results in the hero's empathy with and compassion for the so-called enemy, a unique contribution of the black novelist to American war literature.
