Extraordinary Preaching Twenty Homilies By Roman Catholic Women:

Extraordinary Preaching Roslyn A. Karaban, Denise Winfield Mack, 1996 Like a Hammer Shattering Rock Megan McKenna, 2013-02-05 Renowned Catholic author Megan McKenna celebrates her 50th book with a controversial interpretation of the Gospels of Mark Matthew Luke and John and what they mean for the Church and society today In many ways modern audiences have become so familiar with the gospels that we've stopped listening and integrating their wisdom into our everyday lives Acclaimed author Megan McKenna explores the messages of the four gospels in the context of daily life when they were originally written and interprets their meaning for our modern world While some argue for the development of new gospels for the 21st century McKenna argues that we haven't paid due attention to the ones we already have in many cases we've ignored sections of these teachings entirely and twisted their meaning to suit our own agendas McKenna breaks it down gospel by gospel and shows us how the lessons of Jesus's apostles continue to resonate Catholic Women Writers Mary Reichardt, 2001-07-30 Women have been writing in the Catholic tradition since early medieval times yet no single volume has brought together critical evaluations of their works until now The first reference of its kind Catholic Women Writers provides entries on 64 Catholic women writers from around the world and across the centuries Each of the entries is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography of the author a critical discussion of her works especially her Catholic and women's themes an overview of her critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources Authors writing in all genres including fiction autobiography poetry children's literature and essays are represented The entries give special attention to the authors use of Catholic themes structures traditions culture and spirituality The writers surveyed range from Doctors of the Church to mystics and visionaries to those who employ Catholic themes primarily in historical and cultural contexts to those who critique the tradition An introductory essay places the writers within the historical and literary contexts of women's writing in the Catholic tradition and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Feminist and Womanist Pastoral Theology Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, Brita L. Gill-Austern, 1999 In the last decade the focus of pastoral theology has shifted dramatically from care defined as counseling to care understood within a wider social political and religious context Feminist and womanist theory as well as feminist and womanist faith convictions have played a key role in this development According to the authors feminists and womanists in pastoral theology have begun to reconstruct the definitions parameters and commitments of pastoral care and counseling These changes have critical implications for care within congregations and for the understanding of theology in seminaries and divinity schools Yet these developments in the theory and practice of pastoral theology and their broader ramifications have not been carefully analyzed or even acknowledged by pastoral theologian minister and religion scholar alike This is due to a failure to articulate clear understandings of the field the gap between congregational ministry and higher education in religion and conflicts in theological education in general over the place of practice and theory experience spirituality and practical theology To redress these problems this collection of essays has a threefold aim First the book identifies the many changes occurring in definitions of pastoral theology care and counseling Second the volume defines and develops new methods and approaches Third the authors attend to the implications of these changes for congregational care and theological education Roughly speaking the order of the chapters in this volume follows this threefold agenda moving from an exploration of the changes in pastoral theology to its reconstruction to some of the implications of recent innovations

The Rise of Charismatic Catholicism in Latin America Edward L. Cleary, 2018-07-02 Latin America in the twenty first century is no longer the way we have always imagined it and nowhere are the region's vast changes more evident than in the field of religion Ed Cleary brings his readers into the churches and communities of Latin America to introduce them to the Catholic Charismatic Movement the biggest and most important religious shift taking place in the region in recent decades Kenneth P Serbin University of San Diego Much has been made of the dramatic rise of Protestantism in Latin America Many view this as a sign that Catholicism's primacy in the region is at last beginning to wane Overlooked by journalists and scholars has been the parallel growth of Charismatic or Pentecostal Catholicism in the region Edward Cleary offers the first comprehensive treatment of this movement revealing its importance to the Catholic Church as well as the people of Latin America Catholic Charismatics have grown worldwide to several hundred million among whom Latin Americans number approximately 73 million participants These individuals are helping the church become more extroverted by drawing many into evangelizing and mission work The movement has rapidly acquired an indigenous Latin American character and is now returning to the United States through migration and is affecting Catholicism in the United States Cleary has witnessed firsthand the birth and maturing of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal in Latin America as both a social scientist and a Dominican missionary Drawing upon important findings of Latin American scholars and researchers he explores and analyzes the origins of the most important Catholic movement in Latin America and its notable expansion to all countries of the region bringing with it unusual vitality and notable controversy about its practices Edward L Cleary professor of political science and director of the Latin American studies program at Providence College and visiting scholar at Stanford University has authored or edited eleven books most recently Conversion of a Continent Religious Change in Latin America

Responding to God's Call Roslyn A. Karaban, Rosalyn A. Karaban, 1998 This is a book about discernment tuning in and listening to God's call prayerfully reflecting on that call clarifying what that call is and responding to what you feel and hear People involved in all sorts of ministry and those who would like to be involved but find their calling in discord with the position of the Church will find this book a valuable tool in determining what is of God and what is not and how to set their own direction The book includes a series of personal stories from both the author and others to help illustrate the concepts A unique feature of this process is that it can involve loss the loss of who you are today in order to become what is your calling Dr Karaban carefully shows how this process of loss closely resembles the grieving process and helps readers mourn and move through the losses to become what God and you want

A Legacy of Preaching, Volume

One---Apostles to the Revivalists Zondervan,2018-11-13 A Legacy of Preaching Volume One Apostles to the Revivalists explores the history and development of preaching through a biographical and theological examination of its most important preachers Instead of teaching the history of preaching from the perspective of movements and eras each contributor tells the story of a particular preacher in history allowing the preachers from the past to come alive and instruct us through their lives theologies and methods of preaching Each chapter introduces readers to a key figure in the history of preaching followed by an analysis of the theological views that shaped their preaching their methodology of sermon preparation and delivery and an appraisal of the significant contributions they have made to the history of preaching This diverse collection of familiar and lesser known individuals provides a detailed and fascinating look at what it has meant to communicate the gospel over the past two thousand years By looking at how the gospel has been communicated over time and across different cultures pastors scholars and homiletics students can enrich their own understanding and practice of preaching for application today Volume One covers the period from the apostles to the revivalists and profiles thirty preachers including Paul by Eric Rowe Peter by David R Beck Melito of Sardis by Paul A Hartog Origen of Alexandria by Stephen O Presley Ephrem the Syrian by Jonathan J Armstrong Basil of Caesarea by Jonathan Morgan John Chrysostom by Paul A Hartog Augustine of Hippo by Edward L Smither Gregory the Great by W Brian Shelton Bernard of Clairvaux by Elizabeth Hoare Francis of Assisi by Timothy D Holder Saint Bonaventure by G R Evans Meister Eckhart by Daniel Farca Johannes Tauler by Byard Bennett John Huss by Mark A Howell Girolamo Savonarola by W Brian Shelton Martin Luther by Robert Kolb Ulrich Zwingli by Kevin L King Balthasar Hubmaier by Corneliu C Simu William Tyndale by Scott A Wenig John Calvin by Anthony N S Lane William Perkins by Dwayne Milioni Richard Baxter by Simon Vibert John Owen by Henry M Knapp John Bunyan by Larry Steven McDonald Matthew Henry by William C Watson and W Ross Hastings Francois Frelon by Martin I Klauber Jonathan Edwards by Gerald R McDermott John Wesley by Michael Pasquarello III George Whitefield by Bill Curtis and Timothy McKnight Volume Two available separately covers the period from the Enlightenment to the present day and profiles thirty one preachers including Charles Haddon Spurgeon D L Moody Billy Sunday Karl Barth D Martyn Lloyd Jones John Stott Harry Emerson Fosdick Martin Luther King Jr Billy Graham and more

Women, Death and Literature in Post-Reformation England Patricia Phillippy, 2002-07-04 In Women Death and Literature in Post Reformation England Patricia Phillippy examines the crucial literal and figurative roles played by women in death and mourning during the early modern period By examining early modern funerary liturgical and lamentational practices as well as diaries poems and plays she illustrates the consistent gendering of rival styles of grief in post Reformation England Phillippy emphasises the period's textual and cultural constructions of male and female subjects as predicated upon gendered approaches to death She argues that while feminine grief is condemned as immoderately emotional by male reformers the same characteristic that opens women's mourning to censure enable its use as a means of empowering women

s speech Phillippy calls on a wide range of published and archival material that date from the Reformation to well into the seventeenth century providing a study that will appeal to cultural as well as literary historians      Parochial Sermons John Henry Newman,1844      Attending to Women in Early Modern England Betty Travitsky,Adele F.
