Extreme Fiction Fabulists And Formalists:

Extreme Fiction Robin Hemley, Michael Martone, 2004 This survey of thought provoking and noteworthy nonrealistic and nonnarrative short fiction will expand and enrich the scope of any short story or fiction writing course Students will think about the literature and fiction writing in a new light while being exposed to a wide range of gender ethnic and stylistic diversity Page 4 of cover

A Field Guide for Immersion Writing Robin Hemley, 2012-03 For centuries writers have used participatory experience as a lens through which to better see the world at large and as a means of exploring the self Considering various types of participatory writing as different strains of one style immersion writing Robin Hemley offers new perspectives and practical advice for writers of this nonfiction genre Immersion writing can be broken down into the broad categories of travel writing immersion memoir and immersion journalism Using the work of such authors as Barbara Ehrenreich Hunter S Thompson Ted Conover A J Jacobs Nellie Bly Julio Cortazar and James Agee Hemley examines these three major types of immersion writing and further identifies the subcategories of the quest the experiment the investigation the infiltration and the reenactment Included in the book are helpful exercises models for immersion writing and a chapter on one of the most fraught subjects for nonfiction writers the ethics and legalities of writing about other people A Field Guide for Immersion Writing recalibrates and redefines the way writers approach their relationship to their subjects Suitable for beginners and advanced writers the book provides an enlightening provocative and often amusing look at the ways in which nonfiction writers engage with the world around them A Friends Fund Publication

Turning Life Into Fiction Robin Hemley, 2006-05-02 With lively style good humor and insight Robin Hemley helps you turn all that you experience into fresh and powerful fiction By learning to reimagine you ll focus on translating real world people and events into characters and scenes that happen on paper for the first time You ll think what if instead of what is in order to take control of your material and cut loose the inhibitions of real life In these pages you ll learn how to hone your observation skills and fill your journal with rich and vivid details Because as Hemley writes Life is in the details and so is good fiction You ll see how to decide which ideas to bring to fiction and which ones to let go And you ll learn how to find the right form novel short story vignette memoir for the story you want to tell use triggers to start your reader s imagination rolling keep your fiction emotionally honest by making the right choices between the way it happened and what the story dictates ask Is it believable not Did it happen create composites of real people and places that fit the unique needs of your story and empower your imagination focus your fiction Make sure everything every character counts and eliminate people who sit at the end of the bar without a role to play fictionalize ethically and legally other people s stories Learn your rights as a writer versus their rights to privacy Can you use actual names When do you need to get permission To illustrate how writers feed their fiction with reality Hemley uses examples from his own work and from fiction masters of yesterday and today At the end of each chapter challenging exercises help you apply the basic theories and push them even further An adventurous read Turning Life Into Fiction will help you create fiction that's just as strange and wonderful and real as the life that inspires it Teaching Creative Writing Heather Beck, 2012-10-21 Teaching Creative Writing includes lively contributions from over two dozen leading practitioners in the field. Topics addressed include history of Creative Writing workshops, undergraduate/postgraduate reflective activities, assessment, critical theory, and information technology.

Black Earth and Ivory Tower Zachary Michael Jack, 2005 The collected reflections and wisdoms of 30 contemporary farmer-writer-teachers heralding the seventy-fifth anniversary of the quintessential agrarian anthology I'll Take My Stand. Zachary Michael Jack himself, a fourth-generation farmer's son, has assembled North America's foremost contemporary writers on the present rural experience to provide their own twenty-first-century insights. In the grand tradition of farmer-writers Robert Frost, Henry David Thoreau, and Andrew Lytle, Black Earth and Ivory Tower: New American Essays from Farm and Classroom gathers the disparate wisdoms of modern-day stewards of the land, including Victor David Hanson, Michael Martone, Linda Hasselstrom, John Hildebrand, Country Things cartoonist Bob Artley, and Duane Acker, former U.S. Assistant Secretary of Science and Education and former president of Kansas State University. These gifted teachers and growers offer hard-won inspiration from the field and the classroom, exemplifying the multifaceted farm-grounded talents that call them to lives as writers, visual artists, conservation tillers, environmentalists, economists, policymakers, extension agents, and grassroots activists. Seeking a balanced life that reconciles the hands, heart, and head, they follow roads less traveled to find agrarian lifestyles at once enlightening and challenging. At a time when less than two percent of Americans count themselves as farmers, these writers, all of whom have cultivated the earth and climbed the ivory tower, underscore the diversity of the American farm as a wellspring of learning. Their plainspoken commentaries on modern farming, teaching, and living will remind older generations of time-honored agrarian values and provide a new generation with a literate critical account of shifting national priorities.

The Best Travel Writing 2010 James O'Reilly, 2010-09 The Best Travel Writing 2010 is the seventh volume in the annual Travelers' Tales series launched in 2004 to celebrate the world's best travel writing from Nobel Prize winners to emerging new writers. The points of view and perspectives are global, and themes encompass high adventure, spiritual growth, romance, hilarity, and misadventure, service to humanity, and encounters with exotic cuisine.

Interdisciplinary Literary Studies, 2005 Story Matters Margaret-Love Denman, Barbara Shoup, 2006 Story Matters offers students an inspiring and insightful approach to writing short fiction with 21 short stories and in-depth in-person conversations with their accomplished authors. Each writer describes his or her source of ideas, motivation, and writing strategies to give a personal perspective on the book's narrative of the elements of short fiction. Throughout the book, writing prompts offer ideas, advice, and jumping-off points for workshop or individual writing exercises. The writers, from Dave Eggers to Jamaica Kincaid, explain and explore the intent, technique, and meaning of their fiction, offering expert insight into the craft of writing stories. Part One, Writing Matters, This series of brief chapters provides an introduction to writing short fiction from the spark that starts a story to the finishing touches of revision.

Writing prompts integrated throughout invite readers to exercise and expand their writing muscles to create the best story possible Part Two Stories and Conversations A showcase for 21 acclaimed writers this section combines a short story a conversation with that story s author and related writing prompts By reading the stories and listening to the writers talk about the joys and frustrations of the creative process students will come to understand the challenge and satisfaction of writing well Appendices include a set of questions a writer may want to ask when approaching a short story a list of favorites of the authors interviewed in this book and a bibliography of further resources in creative writing G.K.
