Wasserman,Mary Briody Mahowald,1998 How should we respond to individuals with disabilities What does it mean to be disabled Over fifty million Americans from neonates to the fragile elderly are disabled Some people say they have the right to full social participation while others repudiate such claims as delusive or dangerous In this compelling book three experts in ethics medicine and the law address pressing disability questions in bioethics and public policy Anita Silvers David

Wasserman and Mary B Mahowald test important theories of justice by bringing them to bear on subjects of concern in a wide variety of disciplines dealing with disability They do so in the light of recent advances in feminist minority and cultural studies and of the groundbreaking Americans with Disabilities Act Visit our website for sample chapters “The Time Is Fulfilled” Lynne Moss Bahr,2018-12-27 In this study Lynne Moss Bahr explores the concept of temporality as central to Jesus s proclamation of the Kingdom of God Using insights from continental philosophy on the messianic which expose the false claim that time progresses in a linear continuum Bahr presents these philosophical positions in critical dialogue with the sayings of Jesus regarding time and time s fulfillment She shows how the Kingdom represents the possibilities of a disruption in time one that reveals the intrinsic relation between God and humanity In illustrating how Jesus s sayings regarding time are thus expressions of his messianic identity as of the world and not of the world Bahr argues that the meaning of Jesus s identity as Messiah is embedded in the disjuncture of time in the impossibility of now from which the Kingdom comes Bahr s use of critical theory in this study expands the concept of God s Kingdom beyond the traditional confines of the discipline
