different systems of values and principles of conduct and how they can teach us to cope at times of trial Morality remains one of the most contested areas of thought and ethics in the modern world due to numerous misapprehensions and the move away from solidarity from what we share and hold in common particularly our inherent pursuit of virtue and consideration of principles concerning the distinction between right and wrong good and bad Featuring essays by scholars from countries which have seen traditions of virtue and character formation perish in the course of tragic social experiments this book highlights the role of literature and arts in educating about virtues and character in both a regional and global context The volume offers philosophical analysis of moral education and engages with the literary canon discussing the ways in which virtue was taught and can still be taught with Aristotle as one of the regained tools of learning The essays span countries from England Spain Italy and Belgium to the USA Costa Rica ancient China and Israel with Poland the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth and Central Europe receiving considerable coverage They address themes of virtue and character formation from the Bronze Age to the present and serve as inspiring reading for educators literary scholars historians ethicists artists and active readers
