invaluable starting point for all readers needing a cogent introduction to Israel today Israel: the First Hundred Years Efraim Karsh, 2014-02-25 The Zionist Movement was born in the wake of Jewish emancipation in Western Europe and at a time of increased persecution in Eastern Europe This volume addresses the intellectual social and political ramifications of Jewish settlement in Eretz Israel before the creation of the State of Israel The Politics of Denial Nur Masalha, 2003-10-20 The 1948 war ended in the expulsion of hundreds of thousands of Palestinians from their homes Israeli settlers moved in to occupy their land and the Palestinian refugees found themselves expelled Today there are nearly four million Palestinian refugees and they want the right to go home Since 1948 Israeli refugee policy has become a classic case of denial the denial that Zionist transfer committees had operated between 1937 and 1948 denial of any wrong doing or any historical injustice denial of the right of return denial of restitution of property and compensation and indeed denial of any moral responsibility or culpability for the creation of the refugee problem This book analyses Israeli policies towards the Palestinian refugees as they evolved from the 1948 catastrophe or nakba to the present It is the first volume to look in detail at Israeli law and policy surrounding the refugee question Drawing on extensive primary sources and previously classified archive material Masalha discusses the 1948 exodus Israeli resettlement schemes since 1948 Israeli approaches to compensation and restitution of property Israeli refugee policies towards the internally displaced present absentees and Israeli refugee policies during the Madrid and Oslo negotiations The Jewish Divide Over Israel Paul Bogdanor, 2017-07-05 Before 1967 Israel had the overwhelming support of world opinion So long as Israel's existence was in harmony with politically correct assumptions it was supported or at least accepted by the majority of progressive Jews especially in the wake of the Holocaust This is no longer the case The Jewish Divide Over Israel explains the role played by prominent Jews in turning Israel into an isolated pariah nation After their catastrophic defeat in 1967 Arabs overcame inferiority on the battlefield with superiority in the war of ideas Their propaganda stopped trumpeting their desire to eradicate Israel Instead in a calculated appeal to liberals and radicals they redefined their war of aggression against the Jews as a struggle for the liberation of Palestinian Arabs The tenacity of Arabs rejection of Israel and their relentless campaign in schools universities churches professional organizations and above all the news media to destroy Israel's moral image had the desired impact Many Jewish liberals became desperate to escape from the shadow of Israel's alleged misdeeds and found a way to do so by joining other members of the left in blaming Israeli sins for Arab violence Today Jewish liberals rationalize violence against the innocent as resistance to the oppressor excuse Arab extremism as the frustration of a wronged party and redefine eliminationist rhetoric and physical assaults on Jews as criticism of Israeli policy Israel's Jewish accusers have played a crucial and disproportionate role in the current upsurge of antisemitism precisely because they speak as Jews The essays in this book seek to understand and throw back the assault on Israel led by such Jewish liberals and radicals as Tony Judt Noam Chomsky George Steiner Daniel Boyarin Marc Ellis Israel Shahak and many others Its writers demonstrate that the foundation of the state of Israel far from being the primal sin alleged by its accusers was one of the few redeeming events in a century of blood and shame Israel in History Derek Penslar,2007-01-24 This collection of essays provide a comparative historical analysis of Israel s history In particular they tackle the often contentious issues of the nature of Zionism whether Israel is a colonial state historiography and antisemitism as well social and cultural developments Constructing Boundaries Deborah Bernstein,2000-03-31 An interdisciplinary study discussing the impact of the national crisis in Mandatory Palestine on relations between Jewish and Arab workers and their respective labor movements
