Face at the Edge of the World Eve Bunting, 1985-01 To the Edge of the World Christian Wolmar, 2014-08-05 To the Edge of the World is an adventure in travel full of extraordinary personalities more than a century of explosive political economic and cultural events and almost inconceivable feats of engineering Christian Wolmar passionately recounts the improbable origins of the Trans Siberian railroad the vital artery for Russian expansion that spans almost 6 000 miles and seven time zones from Moscow to Vladivostok The world's longest train route took a decade to build in the face of punishing climates rampant disease scarcity of funds and materials and widespread corruption The line sprawls over a treacherous landmass that was previously populated only by disparate tribes and convicts serving out their terms in labor camps where men were regularly starved tortured or mutilated for minor offenses Once built it led to the establishment of new cities and transformed the region's history Exceeding all expectations it became according to Wolmar the best thing that ever happened to Siberia It was not all good news however The railroad was the cause of the 1904 1905 Russo Japanese War and played a vital and at times bloody role in the Russian Revolution and the subsequent Civil War More positively the Russians were able to resist the Nazi invasion during the Second World War as new routes enabled whole industries to be sent east Siberia previously a lost and distant region became an inextricable part of Russia's cultural identity And what began as one meandering single track line is now arguably the world's most important railroad ALONG THE EDGE OF ANNIHILATION

The Face of God Roger Scruton, 2012-03-08 Roger Scruton explores the place of God in a disenchanted world His argument is a response to the atheist culture that is now growing around us and also a defence of human uniqueness He rebuts the claim that there is no meaning or purpose in the natural world and argues that the sacred and the transcendental are real presences through which human beings come to know themselves and to find both their freedom and their redemption In the human face we find a paradigm of meaning And from this experience Scruton argues we both construct the face of the world and address the face of God We find in the face both the proof of our freedom and the mark of self consciousness One of the motivations of the atheist culture is to escape from the eye of judgement You escape from the eye of judgement by blotting out the face and this Scruton argues is the most disturbing aspect of the times in which we live In his wide ranging argument Scruton explains the growing sense of destruction that we feel as the habits of pleasure seeking and consumerism deface the world His book defends a consecrated world against the habit of desecration and offers a vision of the religious way of life in a time of trial Heaven's Face, Thinly veiled Sarah Anderson,1998-03-17 Women religious and secular medieval and modern have always demonstrated their own unique approach to matters of the spirit Limited in their public roles throughout much of history women have been compelled to turn inward developing rich interior lives in uniquely feminine ways This anthology brings together women s writing from classic religious literature Christian Jewish Buddhist Muslim and Hindu as well as many passages of fiction and poetry that are truly undiscovered treasures of women s spirituality With writers ranging from Helen Keller to Aung San Suu Kyi from Agatha Christie and Ursula K Le Guin to Rabi a the Mystic and Hildegard of Bingen Sarah Anderson s collection proves beyond a doubt that the exploration of the hidden seas within is a journey on which we can all embark Face at the Edge of the World Eve Bunting,1988-09-01 Haunted by the suicide of a gifted young black writer who was his best friend Jed pursues the reason for it The Edge of Reality Hagan Debra Dillinger,2003-12 Abducted from a loving family by a psychotic mother Alexis Rivers has lived a life surrounded by abuse drugs and unsavory characters In disguise and running from killers as well as police she returns to the city of her birth St Augustine Florida There she wants to make peace with her past and find solace in her memories Raised by a generous and loving friend of his deceased father Lt Chad Wallace finds himself drawn to a young prostitute masquerading as his missing stepsister This girl brings trouble and danger to the family Chad would die for yet everyone is compelled to keep her near and discover her true identity Can he save her and keep his loved ones safe Or will she bring their world crashing down Edge of Empire Aki McKenzi,2024-09-13 Ariana Sirenia has wanted to join the ranks of the Braxian Neo Warriors ever since she was a child and now at the age of eighteen she has been named the newly appointed Neo Warrior for the House of Neptune following the death of her cousin Michael Leaving her home island of Neyara to travel to the mainland for the very first time she begins her training under the Neo Warriors strongest Commander Caspian Feior As far as Ariana is concerned she is finally living her dream but dreams don t last forever and reality has a habit of kicking you in ways that you never expected Before Ariana has even finished her training war breaks out with the neighbouring Cimmerian once again and her home at the very edge of the Braxian Empire is suddenly in the firing line As events begin to unfold Ariana begins to discover what it really means to be a Neo Warrior Realism with a Human Face Hilary Putnam,1992 One of America s great philosophers says the time has come to reform philosophy Putnam calls upon philosophers to attend to the gap between the present condition of their subject and the human aspirations that philosophy should and once did claim to represent His goal is to embed philosophy in social life On the Edge of Tomorrow , Edge of the Screen Murray

Pomerance, 2024-11-14 This book is a series of seventeen meditations that revolve around the notion of the viewer's placement at the edge of the screen. Every page is an opportunity to think about an aspect of film or of film viewing in new ways and to begin reconsidering deeply ingrained ways of unthinkingly characterizing and accounting for what it is that we watch when we watch a film: what happens to us and how we make sense of and appreciate it. This volume follows from three others by the author: Virtuoso: Film Performance and the Actor's Magic (2020), The Film Cheat: Cinematic Artifice and Viewing Pleasure (2021), and Uncanny Cinema: Agonies of the Viewing Experience (2022). All of these, including Edge of the Screen, meander and interrogate cinema as we watch it, both connecting us to and disconnecting us from the moment of pleasure. Each meditation is characterized by a deep penetration of the inquiring continually hungry authorial mind and a very extensive set of analyses of filmic moments from myriad films, including 2001: A Space Odyssey, Memento, Zabriskie Point, An American in Paris, Planet of the Apes (1968), Superman (1978), Possessed, The Jungle Book (1942), The Spy Who Came In from the Cold, The Toll of the Sea, Rope, and numerous others. These meditations are careful and philosophical as much as energetically ruminative yet are written in an accessible style for all interested readers who both love cinema and wonder about that love. Each chapter can stand alone even though all work together to challenge perspectives on what we encounter, experience, think, and feel when we watch films. Across its chapters, Edge of the Screen takes on a wide range of topics: the ontology of film, the relation between characters, actors, and the figures who appear onscreen; film's relationships to the other arts, especially painting, but also novels and theatre; the passage of time in film and its momentary character; film criticism, including deeply held values such as coherence; film's relationship to mortality, and more.

In Face of Reality Thomas A. James, 2011-04-01 This study of the work of noted liberal theologian Gordon Kaufman tracks his career from his first published book, Relativism: Knowledge and Faith (1960), through his 2006 book, Jesus and Creativity, in light of recent conversations about divine action and modern scientific knowledge. James interprets Kaufman's mature position as a sophisticated reconstruction of divine activity that makes use of recent scientific theory and its naturalistic assumptions in order to revitalize a theocentric frame of reference rooted in classical theological tradition. Though there are costs to be paid in the construction of a theology of radical naturalism, particularly with respect to the relation between divine action and the human good, Kaufman's program offers a distinctive way forward. After developing a critical analysis of the limitations and possibilities of Kaufman's mature position, James suggests that a christological reconsideration of the meaning of human flourishing offers the prospect of an even more radically naturalistic and theocentric theology.

The Edge of the Sword Fred M. White, 2018-01-19 A nobleman is found in his library half dead and laying by the side of the safe. The key is missing. But this extraordinary mystery has only just begun. Fred M. White weaves a classic mystery tale of complexity and intrigue in The Edge of the Sword.
