Face Detection and Gesture Recognition for Human-Computer Interaction Ming-Hsuan Yang, Narendra Ahuja, 2012-12-06 Traditionally scientific fields have defined boundaries and scientists work on research problems within those boundaries However from time to time those boundaries get shifted or blurred to evolve new fields For instance the original goal of computer vision was to understand a single image of a scene by identifying objects their structure and spatial arrangements This has been referred to as image understanding Recently computer vision has gradually been making the transition away from understanding single images to analyzing image sequences or video understanding Video understanding deals with understanding of video sequences e g recognition of gestures activities facial expressions etc The main shift in the classic paradigm has been from the recognition of static objects in the scene to motion based recognition of actions and events Video understanding has overlapping research problems with other fields therefore blurring the fixed boundaries Computer graphics image processing and video databases have obvious overlap with computer vision The main goal of computer graphics is to generate and animate realistic looking images and videos Researchers in computer graphics are increasingly employing techniques from computer vision to generate the synthetic imagery A good example of this is image based rendering and modeling techniques in which geometry appearance and lighting is derived from real images using computer vision techniques Here the shift is from synthesis to analysis followed by synthesis

FACE: (New) Facets of a Sociopragmatic Concept ,2024-12-02 Face has become a key concept in current socio pragmatics By virtue of its metaphorical force it enables researchers to explain universal processes of human communication mostly reflected in language use Yet being an English construct in intercultural comparison face provokes critical debates putting in doubt namely its relation to politeness theories The 8 articles in this volume tie on these issues putting face under linguistic scrutiny With different approaches and methods some reconsider the notion of face comparing labels and expressions in lingua cultures other than English others explore the verbal enactment of face in selected speech acts conversational moves and interactional settings

Similarity Measures for Face Recognition
Enrico Vezzetti ,Federica Marcolin,2015-04-27 Face recognition has several applications including security such as authentication and identification of device users and criminal suspects and in medicine corrective surgery and diagnosis Facial recognition programs rely on algorithms that can compare and compute the similarity between two sets of images This eBook explains some of the similarity measures used in facial recognition systems in a single volume Readers will learn about various measures including Minkowski distances Mahalanobis distances Hansdorff distances cosine based distances among other methods The book also summarizes errors that may occur in face recognition methods Computer scientists facing face and looking to select and test different methods of computing similarities will benefit from this book The book is also useful tool for students undertaking computer vision courses

Face and the Cripple Paul Ebbs,2020-09-01 First off I didn't mean to kill my Dad Sam Croker did just that and yet it was the least of his problems Crash landed and alone in the South American rainforest kilometers from anywhere with no equipment or survival skills would be the ultimate challenge for almost anyone But Sam has been paraplegic for years He can't walk Has no feeling in his legs Has no food and no means to obtain it If he lasts three days without being drowned poisoned or eaten it will be a miracle That miracle arrives from two unexpected directions a hideous face carved into a tree which invades Sam's fevered mind as if it were alive and the disabled girl who worships it as her God and so the first glimmers of possible rescue begin to shine But the Kik Kik wants to keep Sam for herself and drug smugglers want to hunt down and kill them all Tree Face and the Cripple is a story of survival against the odds and an awkward unlikely friendship based on profound misunderstandings It is both a high action suspense thriller with a shattering climax and a spiritual journey for Sam from bitter defeated spoilt rich kid into someone altogether stronger Well it could be if Sam lives that long Love, Mortality and the Moving Image E. Wilson, 2012-02-21 In their use of home movies collages of photographs and live footage moving image artists explore the wish to see dead loved ones living This study closely explores emotions and sensations surrounding mortality and longing with new readings of works by Agnès Varda Pedro Almodóvar Ingmar Bergman Sophie Calle and many others

The Politics of Fandom Hannah Mueller, 2022-01-20 Fandom has been celebrated both as a harmonious tolerant space and as apolitical and detached from reality Yet fandom is neither harmonious nor apolitical Throughout the past century fandom has been shaped by recurring controversies and sparked by the emergence of new circles platforms and discourses Since the earliest days of science fiction fandom fans have conceived of their communities as quasi political bodies and of themselves as public actors in discursive spaces They are concerned with the organizational structures norms and borders of fandom as well as their own position within it all This latter concern has moved to the forefront as fan practices and platforms have been coopted by the entertainment industry and by political actors forcing fans to situate their fannish and political identities in relation to both sprawling transmedia franchises and right wing groups exploiting fannish formations for political ends Through case studies of Glee and The Hunger Games fandoms as well as events such as Gamergate RaceFail 09 and the Hugo Awards controversies this book explores the complexities of political fandom
