MacLaren's Commentary- Expositions of Holy Scripture Alexander MacLaren, All thirty two of the original volumes are included in this one volume There are two linked indexes in this volume a main index at the front of this volume that will take you to the beginning each of the books of the bible and another index at the beginning of each book there is a linked scripture index leading to the particular subject MacLaren's Expositions of Holy Scripture is considered one of the greatest expositor's commentary of all time This commentary has more than 1 500 sermons arranged in canonical order with more than 46 000 scriptural references making this collection one of the fullest expositor's commentary ever For his work MacLaren drew praise from many A T Robertson said of MacLaren His matchless discourses are the fruit of the most exact scholarship and spiritual enthusiasm F B Meyer said As an expository preacher none of them equaled MacLaren of Manchester and no other sermons were so widely read the world around MacLaren was born in Glasgow on February 11 1826 and died in Manchester on May 5 1910 He had been for almost sixty five years a minister entirely devoted to his calling He lived more than almost any of the great preachers of his time between his study his pulpit his pen His ministry fell into a quiet routine for which he was always grateful two sermons on Sunday a Monday prayer meeting and a Thursday service and lecture His parishioners thought his sermons to them were the best he ever preached In April 1858 he was called to be minister at Union Chapel in Manchester No ministry could have been happier The church prospered and a new building had to be erected to seat 1 500 every sitting was taken His renown as preacher spread throughout the English speaking world His pulpit became his throne He was twice elected President of the Baptist Union He resigned as pastor in 1905 after a ministry of forty five years MacLaren s religious life was hid with Christ in God He walked with God day by day He loved Jesus Christ with a reverent holy love and lived to make Him known In his farewell sermon at Union he said To efface oneself is one of a preacher s first duties Expositions of Holy Scripture Alexander MacLaren,2014-01 Expositions of Holy Scripture The Acts Bible Study Essentials Alexander Maclaren Includes Vols I and II The Ascension is twice narrated by Luke The life begun by the supernatural birth ends with the supernatural Ascension which sets the seal of Heaven on Christ s claims and work Therefore the Gospel ends with it But it is also the starting point of the Christ s heavenly activity of which the growth of His Church as recorded in the Acts is the issue Therefore the Book of the Acts of the Apostles begins with it The keynote of the treatise lies in the first words which describe the Gospel as the record of what Jesus began to do and teach Luke would have gone on to say that this second book of his contained the story of what Jesus went on to do and teach after He was taken up if he had been strictly accurate or had carried out his first intention as shown by the mould of his introductory sentence but he is swept on into the full stream of his narrative and we have to infer the contrast between his two volumes from his statement of the contents of his first

Expositions of Holy Scripture Alexander MacLaren,2014-01-11 Expositions of Holy Scripture St Mark Bible Study Essentials Alexander Maclaren The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ Mark i 1 My purpose now is to point out some of the various connections in which the New Testament uses that familiar phrase the gospel and briefly to gather some of the important thoughts which these suggest Possibly the process may help to restore freshness to a word so well worn that it slips over our tongues almost unnoticed and excites little thought The history of the word in the New Testament books is worth notice It seldom occurs in those lives of our Lord which now are emphatically so called and where it does occur it is the gospel of the Kingdom quite as frequently as the gospel of the King The word is never used in Luke and only twice in the Acts of the Apostles both times in quotations The Apostle John never employs it either in his gospel or in his epistles and in the Apocalypse the word is only once found and then it may be a question whether it refers to the good news of salvation in Jesus Christ John thought of the word which he had to proclaim as the message the witness the truth rather than as the gospel We search for the expression in vain in the epistles of James Jude and to the Hebrews Thrice it is used by Peter The great bulk of the instances of its occurrence are in the writings of Paul who if not the first to use it at any rate is the source from which the familiar meaning of the phrase as describing the sum total of the revelation in Jesus Christ has flowed
