Geoffrey Winthrop Young      The Ecological Eugene O'Neill Robert Baker-White, 2015-09-25 The dramas of Eugene O'Neill often called America's first serious playwright exhibit an imagining of the natural world that enlivens the plays and marks the boundaries of the characters' fates. O'Neill's figures move within purposefully animated natural environments: ocean, dense forest, desert, plains, the rocky soil of New England. This new approach to O'Neill's dramas explores these ecological settings as crucial to his characters' ability to carry out their conscious and unconscious desires. O'Neill's career is covered from his youthful one acts to the middle years' experimental dramas to the mature tragedies of his late period. Special attention is paid to the connection of ecology and theological quest and to O'Neill's persistent evocation of an exotic natural other. Combining an ecocritical approach with an examination of Classical and philosophical influences on the playwright's creative process, the author reveals a new, less hermetic O'Neill.      Choreographing Copyright Anthea Kraut, 2016

Choreographing Copyright Provides a historical and cultural analysis of U.S.-based dance makers' investment in intellectual property rights. In a series of case studies stretching from the late nineteenth century to the early twenty-first, the book reconstructs dancers' efforts to win copyright protection for choreography and teases out their raced and gendered politics.
