Postclassical Greek Prepositions and Conceptual Metaphor William A. Ross, Steven Edward Runge, 2022-08-01 Traditional semantic description of Ancient Greek prepositions has struggled to synthesize the varied and seemingly arbitrary uses into something other than a disparate sometimes overlapping list of senses The Cognitive Linguistic approach of prototype theory holds that the meanings of a preposition are better explained as a semantic network of related senses that radially extend from a primary spatial sense These radial extensions arise from contextual factors that affect the metaphorical representation of the spatial scene that is profiled Building upon the Cognitive Linguistic descriptions of Bortone 2009 and Luraghi 2009 linguists biblical scholars and Greek lexicographers apply these developments to offer more in depth descriptions of select postclassical Greek prepositions and consider the exegetical and lexicographical implications of these findings This volume will be of interest to those studying or researching the Greek of the New Testament seeking more linguistically informed description of prepositional semantics particularly with a focus on the exegetical implications of choice among seemingly similar prepositions in Greek and the challenges of potentially mismatched translation into English

Tran,2022-06-29 This book centres the voices and agency of migrants by refocusing attention on the diversity and complexity of human mobility when seen from the perspective of people on the move in doing so the volume disrupts the binary logics of migrant refugee push pull and places of origin destination that have informed the bulk of migration research Drawn from a range of disciplines and methodologies this anthology links disparate theories approaches and geographical foci to better understand the spectrum of the migratory experience from the viewpoint of migrants themselves The book explores the causes and consequences of human displacement at different scales both individual and community level and across different time points from antiquity to the present and geographies not just the Global North but also the Global South Transnational scholars across a range of knowledge cultures advance a broader global discourse on mobility and migration that centres on the direct experiences and narratives of migrants themselves Both interdisciplinary and accessible this book will be useful for scholars and students in Migration Studies Global Studies Sociology Geography and Anthropology Art, Agency and Living Presence

Caroline van Eck,2015-03-10 Throughout history and all over the world viewers have treated works of art as if they are living beings speaking to them falling in love with them kissing or beating them Although over the past 20 years the catalogue of individual cases of such behavior towards art has increased immensely there are few attempts at formulating a theoretical account of them or writing the history of how such responses were considered defined or understood That is what this book sets out to do to reconstruct some crucial chapters in the history of thought about such reflections in Western Europe and to offer some building blocks towards a theoretical account of such responses drawing on the work of Aby Warburg and Alfred Gell The Prostitute's Body Nina Attwood,2015-10-06 Attwood examines Victorian attitudes to prostitution across a number of sources medical literary pornographic

Law and Consent Karla O'Regan,2019-06-28 Consent is used in many different social and legal contexts with the pervasive understanding that it is and has always been about autonomy but has it Beginning with an overview of consent s role in law today this book investigates the doctrine s inseparable association with personal autonomy and its effect in producing both idealised and demonised forms of personhood and agency This prompts a search for alternative understandings of consent Through an exploration of sexual offences in Antiquity medical practice in the Middle Ages and the regulation of bodily harm on the present day sports field this book demonstrates that in contrast to its common sense story of autonomy consent more often operates as an act of submission than as a form of personal freedom or agency The book explores the implications of this counter narrative for the law s contemporary uses of consent arguing that the kind of freedom consent is meant to enact might be foreclosed by the very frame in which we think about autonomy itself This book will be of interest to scholars of many aspects of law history and feminism as well as students of criminal law bioethics and political theory Poststructuralist Agency Gavin

Rae,2020-02-14 Gavin Rae shows that the problematic status of agency caused by the poststructuralist decentring of the subject is a central concern for poststructuralist thinkers He shows how this plays out in the thinking of Deleuze Derrida and Foucault and find the best explanation of agency for the founded subject in the work of Castoriadis Reasons and Intentions in Law and Practical Agency George Pavlakos, Veronica Rodriguez-Blanco, 2015-02-05 A collection of new essays on the interplay between intentions and practical reasons in law and practical agency Race and Reconciliation John B. Hatch, 2009-12-01 Hatch develops a robust rhetorical theory of reconciliation and applies it to contemporary national and global efforts to redress the racialized wounds and injustices created by slavery What emerges from this work is a profound vision for the prospects of meaningful reparation forgiveness and reconciliation in American race relations

Report of the Federal Security Agency United States. Office of Education, 1905 The Ideological Condition: Selected Essays on History, Race and Gender Himani Bannerji, 2020-09-25 The Ideological Condition Selected Essays on History Race and Gender is a reader comprised of many of Himani Bannerji s English writings over a long period of teaching and research in Canada and India Bannerji creates an interdisciplinary analytical method and extends the possibilities of historical materialism by predominantly drawing on Marx Gramsci and Dorothy Smith Essays here instantiate Marx s general proposition that while all ideology is a form of consciousness all forms of consciousness are not ideological Applying this insight to issues ranging from patriarchy through race class nationalism liberalism and fascism Bannerji breaks through East West binaries challenging the mystifying approaches to the constitution of the social and shows that a sustained struggle against ideological thinking is at the heart of a fundamental socialist struggle Shortlisted for the Deutscher Memorial Prize 2021 The Journal of Sacred Literature ,1855 The Journal of Sacred Literature and Biblical Record John Kitto, Henry Burgess, Benjamin Harris Cowper, 1855 The Agency of Children David Oswell, 2013 Uses the idea of children s agency to survey the main issues in childhood studies Euripides, "Ion" Gunther Martin, 2018-02-05 Euripides Ion is a highly complex and elusive play and thus poses considerable difficulties to any interpreter On the basis of a new recension of the text this commentary offers explanations of the language literary technique and realia of the play and discusses the main issues of interpretation In this way the reader is provided with the material required for an appreciation of this entertaining as well as provocative dramatic composition
