Donald Davidson: Life and Words Maria Baghramian, 2013-09-13 Donald Davidson 1917 2003 was one of the most prominent philosophers of the second half of the twentieth century His thinking about language mind and epistemology has shaped the views of several generations of philosophers This book brings together articles by a host of prominent philosophers to provide new interpretations of Davidson s key ideas about meaning language and thought The book opens with short commemorative pieces by a wide range of people who knew Davidson well giving us glimpses into the life of a great philosopher a beloved husband and father a colleague teacher and friend The chapter by Lepore and Ludwig and the ensuing heated debate with Frederick Stoutland on how to interpret Davidson demonstrate why Davidson s legacy has become a disputed intellectual territory The chapters by Kathrin Gl er Peter Pagin Barry Smith James Higginbotham and William Child all eminent philosophers of language are prime examples of just one strand of this legacy while the piece by Sophie Gibb gives us an opening to Davidson s enormous contribution to philosophy of mind Donald Davidson Life and Words closes with a piece by Davidson himself first published in 1995 in the International Journal of Philosophical Studies where he brings together the various strands of his work in a Unified Theory of speech and action This book comprises key articles first published in the International Journal of Philosophical Studies and previously unpublished commemorative pieces and serves as a fitting dedication to the work and memory of a great philosopher The Life of Words as the Symbols of Ideas Arsène Darmesteter, 1886 Science and Key of Life Alvidas, 1902 Phrenopathy Charles William Close, 1898 Close presents his philosophy of Spirit and an exploration of mind over matter There is a chapter on the relationship between the mind and the body with much on the improvement of health The ads note that Close published a number of self help books and a periodical called The Free Man The Life and Literature of the Ancient Hebrews Lyman Abbott, 1901 Words of Help for Everyday Life William Mann Statham, 1871 The Life and Words of Christ, Revised Edition Cunningham Geike, 1900 Lectures on the Fourteenth, Fifteenth, and Sixteenth Chapters of St. John's Gospel John Brown PATTERSON, 1840 New Outlook , 1907 The Life and Words of Christ Cunningham Geike, 1894 The Outlook Lyman Abbott, Hamilton Wright Mabie, Ernest Hamlin Abbott, Francis Rufus Bellamy, 1907 The Life and Words of Christ Cunningham Geike, 1884 The Life of Christ Frederic William Farrar, 1881 The Metaphysics of G. E. Moore David O'Connor, 2012-12-06 In this book setting aside his consideration of specifically ethical topics I try to provide a comprehensive interpretation of Moore s thought Against the background of this general interpretation I examine in detail his work on some of the central problems of metaphysics and because Moore s being able to sustain a consistent anti skepticism is essential to the survival of the base from which he works on those problems of epistemology too The interpretation of which I speak involves my taking as the centerpiece of Moore s philosophical work his book Some Main Problems of Philosophy written in 1910 as the text of a lecture series but left unpublished for over forty years thereafter That book is aptly titled for the issues with which Moore deals in it are indeed among the main problems of philosophy Not least of these are the problems of formulating a general categorial deScription of the world and then of defending that formulation However while I will discuss Moore s work in light of its contribution to this project of taking metaphysical inventory it is important to note that he in common with many other major figures in contemporary analytical philosophy did not approach specific philosophical puzzles with a view to possibly integrating solutions to them into a comprehensive theory about reality as a whole that is into what might be called a metaphysical system     Scripture Revelations of the Life of Man After Death William Henry Lyttelton,1876     Report of the “Conditional Immortality” Conference, held ...
