Eyes Of Faith With Rousselots Answer To Two Attacks:

The Conversation of Faith and Reason Aidan Nichols, 2011 The Order of Things: The Realism of the Principle of Finality Fr. Reginald Garrigou-Lagrange, O.P., 2020-10-01
The Order of Things The Realism of the Principle of Finality is an exploration of the metaphysical principle Every agent acts for an end In the first part Fr Garrigou Lagrange sets forth the basics of the Aristotelian metaphysics of teleology defending its place as a central point of metaphysics After defending its per se nota character he summarizes a number of main corollaries to the principle primarily within the perspective established by traditional Thomistic accounts of metaphysics doing so in a way that is pedagogically sensitive yet speculatively profound In the second half of The Order of Things Garrigou Lagrange gathers together a number of articles which he had written each having some connection with themes concerning teleology Thematically the texts consider the finality and teleology of the human intellect and will along with the way that the principle of finality sheds light on certain problems associated with the distinction between faith and reason Finally the text ends with an important essay on the principle of the mutual interdependence of causes causae ad invicem sunt causae sed in diverso genere Nouvelle

Théologie and Sacramental Ontology Hans Boersma, 2009-05-08
In the decades leading up to the Second Vatican Council the movement of nouvelle th ologie caused great controversy in the Catholic Church and remains a subject of vigorous scholarly debate today In Nouvelle th ologie and Sacramental Ontology Hans Boersma argues that a return to mystery was the movement s deepest motivation Countering the modern intellectualism of the neo Thomist establishment the nouvelle theologians were convinced that a ressourcement of the Church Fathers and of medieval theology would point the way to a sacramental reintegration of nature and the supernatural In the context of the loss suffered by both Catholics and Protestants in the de sacramentalizing of modernity Boersma shows how the sacramental ontology of nouvelle th ologie offers a solid entry point into ecumenical dialogue The volume begins by setting the historical context for nouvelle th ologie with discussions of the influence of significant theologians and philosophers like M hler Blondel Mar chal and Rousselot The exposition then moves to the writings of key thinkers of the ressourcement movement including de Lubac Bouillard Balthasar Chenu Dani lou Charlier and Congar Boersma analyses the most characteristic elements of the movement its reintegration of nature and the supernatural its reintroduction of the spiritual interpretation of Scripture its approach to Tradition as organically developing in history and its communion ecclesiology that regarded the Church as sacrament of Christ In each of these areas Boersma demonstrates how the nouvelle theologians advocated a return to mystery by means of a sacramental ontology Forming the Church in the Modern World Thomas A. Baima, 2019
This book examines and comments on various aspects of the theology of Avery Cardinal Dulles SJ It demonstrates how important his ideas were in forming our current understanding of church and theology De Lubac: A Guide for the Perplexed David Grumett, 2007-11-03
This introduction to De Lubac a dominating figure in the renewal of theology in the twentieth century provides an overview of the whole of twentieth century French Catholic theology Balthasar for Thomists Aidan Nichols, 2020-07-01 Students of Catholic theology are often presented with a choice between two great masters Thomas Aquinas and Hans Urs von Balthasar What starts as a cordial difference in form and method often morphs into a bitter rivalry Dominican theologian Father Aidan Nichols sees no need for competition Balthasar for Thomists gives a panoramic view of Balthasar's thought and spirituality unearthing many of his innumerable debts to Aquinas and providing context for their points of divergence The enormous cultural project of Balthasar writes Father Nichols differs too much from St Thomas pedagogical one to count as a rival to Thomism on the latter's own ground and of course vice versa While constituting an original form of faithful Catholic thought Balthasar's approach may be regarded as a synthesis of the influences of Thomas and his Franciscan contemporary St Bonaventure In its breadth Balthasar for Thomists serves as a general introduction to Balthasar for those unacquainted with his profound and wide ranging theology The Beauty of God's House Francesca Aran Murphy, 2014-05-23 For thirty years Stratford Caldecott has been an inspirational figure in liturgy fantasy literature graphic novels spirituality education ecology and social theory Hundreds of people have learned from his spiritual approaches to the great existential questions The Beauty of God's House is a Festschrift dedicated to him The book seeks to cover the whole range of Caldecott's interests from poetics to politics Anyone interested in the field of theology and the arts will find much to intrigue them in this delightful multi authored volume The common core of Stratford's interests is in the beauty of the cosmos and how it reflects the beauty of God This book is about the beauty of God's realm and it conceives God's realm as the arts politics liturgy religions and human life It touches on the many places where beauty and spirituality overlap It is an engagement in theological aesthetics that goes well beyond the aesthetic Teilhard de Chardin David Grumett, 2005 Pierre Teilhard de Chardin 1881-1955 has been regarded for too long as an esoteric thinker who evacuates theology by subjecting it to scientific theory There is an urgent need to reclaim him as a French catholic theologian with intellectual roots in the early twentieth century Teilhard's imaginative and inspiring work is grounded in the constructive use of biblical and patristic motifs and in his own life experiences of war exile and scientific endeavour From these he develops a distinctive philosophical theology which combines elements frequently assigned to the separate domains of philosophy of religion systematic theology and mysticism Teilhard provides a detailed theology of human embodiment and natural substances whilst his theories of human action passion vision and virtue offer suggestive resources to pastoral theology His evolutionary cosmology and social democratic politics are discussed in their historical context and the significance of his work for the ongoing dialogue between science and religion is assessed Reimagining the Analogia Entis Philip John Paul Gonzales, 2019-01-15 In 1932 German theologian and philosopher Erich Przywara penned his Analogia Entis a vision of the analogy of being and a metaphysical exploration of the dynamic between God and creation A translation into English in 2014 made Przywara's brilliant and influential work available to more people than ever before In this book Philip Gonzales calls English speaking readers to embrace the Christian treasure of the Analogia Entis and to reimagine what it offers Christians today Gonzales brings Przywara's text into dialogue with debates in contemporary philosophy and theology engaging in conversation with Edith Stein Karl Barth Martin Heidegger the Nouvelle théologie Vatican II and leading figures in postmodern theology and the Continental turn to religion The first book of its kind in English Reimagining the Analogia Entis articulates a Christian vision of being for the postmodern era

Maurice Blondel Robert C. Koerpel, 2018-11-30 During the past few decades there has been renewed interest in the twentieth century French Catholic philosopher Maurice Blondel 1861-1949 and his influence on modern and contemporary theology but little scholarship has been published in the English speaking world In Maurice Blondel Transforming Catholic Tradition Robert Koerpel examines Blondel's work the historical and theological development of the idea of tradition in modern Catholicism tradition's relation to reason and revelation and Blondel's influence on Catholicism's understanding of tradition The book presents aspects of Blondel's thought that deserve to be more widely known and contributes to important debates in current theology on modern French Catholic thought and the emerging conversations surrounding them Koerpel looks to the cultural context from which Blondel's thought emerges by situating it within the broader conceptual historical and theological developments of modernity He examines the problem of reason and revelation in modern Catholicism the role and nature of tradition and the relationships between theology and history truth and change nature and grace and scripture and the development of doctrine This book provides readers with an appreciation of Blondel's conceptually creative answer to how tradition represents the Word of God in human history and why it is one of his most important contributions to modern and contemporary theology They will discover how his contribution restores the animated vitality between the institutional and liturgical dimensions of tradition essential to the living dynamic nature of Catholicism

Recognizing the Gift Daniel A. Rober, 2016-06-01 Recognizing the Gift puts twentieth century Catholic theological conversations on nature and grace particularly those of Henri de Lubac and Karl Rahner into dialogue with Continental philosophy notably the thought of Jean Luc Marion and Paul Ricoeur It argues that a renewed theology of nature and grace must build on the accomplishments of the recent past while acknowledging that an engagement with the political is unavoidable for theology Ultimately the aim is to revive and broaden discussion of nature and grace by drawing together the insights of contemporary theologians and Continental philosophers Too often these areas of inquiry remain quite separate in part due to differing priorities This work tries to open that conversation in part by critically pointing out in dialogue with Ricoeur the need in Marion's work for an acknowledgment of recognition reciprocity and the political It thus argues for a theology of nature and grace in terms of recognition of the gift drawing out the reciprocal and political nature of gift and givenness in opposition to those including Marion who would seek to avoid politics and reciprocity as a proper avenue of inquiry for theology

Faith in God Through Jesus Christ John Farrelly, 1997 In short readable essays this book looks at what ecumenical dialogue can teach us about the papacy teaching authority feminism dissent infallibility grace ordination the nature of unity and the future of the Church But mutual criticism also follows from an exchange of gifts and this book includes reflection on where reform of the Church is needed The Wounded Angel Paul Lakeland,2017-02-10 In this unique book readers are taken on a journey to explore the role of the imagination in the face of mystery whether it be the mystery of God whose full reality lies beyond our earthly horizons or the deepest mysteries of life hinted at in the work of fiction By attending to a series of novels Paul Lakeland proposes serious fiction as an antidote to the failure of the religious imagination today and shows how literature might lead the secular mind at least to the threshold of mystery Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association American Philosophical Association,1990 List of members in v 1

Early Works on Theological Method 2 Robert M. Doran,H. Daniel Monsour,2013-04-11 The papers deal with scientific mathematical theological and philosophical questions including discussions of such topics as the proper foundation of metaphysics the form of inference the nature of love and marriage and the role of the university in the modern world
