Education And The Legal System:

Education and the Legal System Susan D. Looney, 2004 Here is a complete yet accessible guide to the laws that most often affect policies and procedures in educational institutions A conversational reader friendly tone pervades the book its practical case study approach makes the discussion of key legal issues and examples of landmark cases easy for the reader to understand Its focus is the practice of preventive law allowing readers to recognize legal issues and challenges when they occur Up to date cases involving subjects and situations that readers can easily relate to school violence inclusion sexual harrassment and other topical subjects along with information about how to brief cases help users quickly learn and disseminate often complex material A full chapter on parents rights unique to this book ensures that readers understand the legal position of parents in the educational arena a comprehensive appendix Resources for Administrators familiarizes them with legislation that is pertinent to education Coverage includes torts and school liability religion in schools students with disabilities students rights discipline teachers rights and equal coverage under the law The comprehensive resource for teachers administrators parents and guardians this book serves as an excellent desk reference for anyone involved or interested in the legal aspects of effective education Restorative Justice in Legal Systems, Education and the Community Dr. Sandra Pavelka, Anne Seymour, 2024-08-21 Restorative justice realized in states and communities across the world is viewed as an innovative framework and growing global social movement providing a foundation for fairness and accountability in laws policies and practices Its application is integrated in legal systems educational settings and the workplace among others A wide range of expert voices in the restorative justice field come together in this book culminating in an insightful and critical assessment of restorative justice With authors from around the globe the international application of restorative justice is evidenced with case studies and examples of the impact of restorative practices and various models Relational practice its implementation its effects and its potential to grow is at the heart of each of the chapters thoughtfully arranged to guide the reader through the journey of restorative justice in education to legal systems youth offender programmes and the communities for whom restorative justice is integral The National Manpower Survey of the Criminal Justice System: Criminal justice education and training National Planning Association, 1978 Technology, Legal Education and Legal Profession in China and Australia Shu Zhang, Jie Luo, Peng Guo, 2025-02-04 This book adopts a comparative and empirical approach to the discussion relating to the subject matter The book compares various selected topics in both China and Australia drawing attention to historical contemporary and international characteristics Also in discussing the topics the authors will conduct surveys and interviews to get first hand materials and describe the real situations in both countries To the best knowledge of the authors this is the first time that this approach has been adopted to compare legal education and the legal profession focusing on China and Australia This book introduces legal education and the legal profession in China and Australia to lay a foundation based on which it further compares them More importantly this book discusses some selected topics relating to legal education and the legal profession in the context of globalization the digital age and COVID 19 The intended readership is an international audience including students at both undergraduate and graduate levels legal scholars and legal practitioners in general and those in China and Australia in particular This book intends to analyse the discourse of legal education and identify and create innovative ways of teaching and learning the law in China and Australia It focuses on research theory and practice within legal education and the legal profession based on imaginative and sophisticated educational thinking from an empirical and comparative perspective It also takes a broad view of theory and practice relating to legal education and the legal profession It is sensitive to the diversity of contexts in which law is taught learned and practised

The Export of Legal Education D. Wes Rist, 2016-03-16 This collection is the multifaceted result of an effort to learn from those who have been educated in an American law school and who then returned to their home countries to apply the lessons of that experience in nations experiencing social economic governmental and legal transition Written by an international group of scholars and practitioners this work provides a unique insight into the ways in which legal education impacts the legal system in the recipient's home country addressing such topics as efforts to influence the current style of legal education in a country and the resistance faced from entrenched senior faculty and the use of U S legal education methods in government and private legal practice This book will be of significant interest not only to legal educators in the United States and internationally and to administrators of legal education policy and reform but also to scholars seeking a more in depth understanding of the connections between legal education and socio political change

A Comparative Analysis of Systems of Education Law Charles J. Russo, Leijun Ma, 2024-05-08 This book focuses on enhanced educator awareness of issues involving the status of the right to education as guaranteed by various legal systems throughout the world in light of the growing interest in comparative and international studies including the law Consequently this interdisciplinary comparative book which includes original chapters by leading academicians with expertise in law and education is designed to serve as a resource for researchers in education and law as well as policymakers and students To this end the book provides readers with an enhanced awareness of the nature of legal systems impacting education throughout the world Education is the driving force of the world development as well as the basic way to realize human rights and values At the same time law plays an important role in the protection evaluation guidance and promotion in the process of the development of education The book thus has interdisciplinary appeal Various audiences will find this highly accessible book informative and valuable including scholars with an interest in Education Law university faculty and classes whether involved in teacher preparation or educational leadership legal practitioners and university libraries

Legal Education in Asia Stacey Steele, Kathryn Taylor, 2009-12-07 This book is a critique of the rapidly changing nature of legal education in major Asian jurisdictions as diverse as Afghanistan Australia Cambodia China Hong Kong Indonesia Japan Korea Singapore Taiwan and Vietnam It provides cross country comparative material including western legal education systems and particularly detailed coverage of Japan      The Internationalisation of Legal Education Christophe Jamin, William van Caenegem, 2016-04-30 This volume provides an overview of the state of internationalisation of legal education IOLE in many civil law and common law countries It provides a picture of the status of the debate about the shape and degree of internationalisation in the curriculum in the different countries and the debates surrounding the adoption of a more international approach to legal education in the contemporary world It is a compilation of the National Reports submitted for the August 2014 Congress of the IACL held at Vienna and contains an introductory general report Together the reports examine such questions as Why is the topic of internationalization of legal education on the agenda now Why is it a relevant subject for examination today Does the topic generate the same level of interest everywhere in the world Is enthusiasm for IOLE mainly driven by the academic sector by government by multinational corporations Is the interest closely linked with the globalization of the practice of law Or is globalisation of law itself something of a myth or a reality reserved for only a very small percentage of practising lawyers around the world The general and national reports make clear that there is indeed widespread interest in IOLE and numerous disparate initiatives around the world Nonetheless some National Reporters state that the topic is simply not on the agenda at all All in all the volume shows that the approaches to internationalisation are many and varied but every jurisdiction recognises the importance of introducing aspiring lawyers to a more integrated global environment      The Semiotics of Law in Legal Education Jan M. Broekman, Francis J. Mootz III, 2011-07-06 This book offers educational experiences including reflections and the resulting essays from the Roberta Kevelson Seminar on Law and Semiotics held during 2008 2011 at Penn State University's Dickinson School of Law The texts address educational aspects of law that require attention and that also are issues in traditional jurisprudence and legal theory The book introduces education in legal semiotics as it evolves in a legal curriculum Specific semiotic concepts such as sign symbol or legal language demonstrate how a lawyer's professionally important tasks of name giving and meaning giving are seldom completely understood by lawyers or laypeople These concepts require analyses of considerable depth to understand the expressiveness of these legal names and meanings and to understand how lawyers can say the law or urge such a saying correctly and effectively in the context of a natural language that is understandable to all of us The book brings together the structure of the Seminar its foundational philosophical problems the specifics of legal history and the semiotics of the legal system with specific themes such as gender family law and business law      Legal Education in a Changing World International Legal Center. Committee on Legal Education in the Developing Countries, 1975      Thinking About Clinical Legal Education Omar Madhloom, Hugh McFaul, 2021-11-25 Thinking About Clinical Legal Education provides a range of philosophical and theoretical frameworks that can serve to enrich the teaching and practice of Clinical Legal Education CLE CLE has become an increasingly common feature of the curriculum in law schools across the globe However there has been relatively little attention paid to the theoretical and philosophical dimensions of this approach This edited collection seeks to address this gap by bringing together contributions from the clinical community to analyse their CLE practice using the framework of a clearly articulated philosophical or theoretical approach Contributions include insights from a range of jurisdictions including Brazil Canada Croatia Ethiopia Israel Spain UK and the US This book will be of interest to CLE academics and clinic supervisors practitioners and students     The History of Legal Education in the United States Steve Sheppard,2007 An invaluable and fascinating resource this carefully edited anthology presents recent writings by leading legal historians many commissioned for this book along with a wealth of related primary sources by John Adams James Barr Ames Thomas Jefferson Christopher C Langdell Karl N Llewellyn Roscoe Pound Tapping Reeve Theodore Roosevelt Joseph Story John Henry Wigmore and other distinguished contributors to American law It is divided into nine sections Teaching Books and Methods in the Lecture Hall Examinations and Evaluations Skills Courses Students Faculty Scholarship Deans and Administration Accreditation and Association and Technology and the Future Contributors to this volume include Morris Cohen Daniel R Coquillette Michael Hoeflich John H Langbein William P LaPiana and Fred R Shapiro Steve Sheppard is the William Enfield Professor of Law University of Arkansas School of Law     Biopolitics and Structure in Legal Education Luca Siliquini-Cinelli,Thomas Giddens,2023-06-30 Taking up the study of legal education in distinctly biopolitical terms this book provides a critical and political analysis of structure in the law school Legal education concerns the complex pathways by which an individual becomes a lawyer making the journey from lay person to expert from student to practitioner To pose the idea of a biopolitics of legal education is not only to recognise the tensions surrounding this journey but also to recognise that legal education is a key site in which the subject engages and is engaged by a particular structure and here the particular structure of the law school This book explores that structure by addressing the characteristics of the biopolitical orders engaged in legal education including understanding the lawyer as a commodity unpicking the force relations in legal education examining the ways codes of conduct in higher education impact academic freedom as well as putting the distinctly Western structures of legal learning within a wider context Assembling original field defining essays by both leading international scholars and emerging researchers it constitutes an indispensable resource in legal education research and scholarship that will appeal to legal academics everywhere     Education and Educational Technology Yuanzhi Wang,2011-10-07 This volume includes extended and revised versions of a set of selected papers from the 2011 2nd International Conference on Education and Educational Technology EET 2011 held in Chengdu China October 1 2 2011 The mission of EET 2011 Volume 1 is to provide a forum for researchers educators engineers and government officials involved in the general areas of education and educational technology to disseminate their latest research results and exchange views on the future research directions of these fields 130 related topic papers were selected into this volume All the papers were reviewed by 2 program committee members and selected by the volume editor Prof Yuanzhi Wang from Intelligent Information Technology Application Research Association Hong Kong The conference will bring together leading researchers
