Verma, Christopher Bagley, 1983-06-18      The Effects of a Psychological Education Program on the Self-concepts of Elementary School Children Myra Helen Malmé, 1974

Educational Attainments Gajendra Verma, Peter Pumfrey, 2017-07-20 Originally published in 1988 This book presents an account of some of the challenges to society involved in multicultural education together with recent empirical evidence concerning the educational attainments of British pupils of Afro Caribbean Asian and British origins Promising policies and practices are identified Individuals from different ethnic groups and professional orientations have contributed to this book The first six chapters are devoted to contemporary complex and controversial issues the final six chapters present empirical evidence from national and local studies      SELF - Driving Positive Psychology and Wellbeing Frédéric Guay, Herbert Marsh, Dennis M. McInerney, Rhonda G. Craven, 2017-08-01 Research on the Self relates to various phenomena including self esteem self concept self verification self awareness identity self efficacy passion self determination goals etc that are predictive of optimal functioning and well being Such a research endeavor is consistent with the positive psychology movement focusing on the scientific study of what makes people psychologically healthy happy and satisfied in their lives as well as on their strengths and virtues The positive psychology movement cultivates a sensible approach to optimal human functioning and well being in various life contexts Chapters in this volume will illustrate some of the best of the research on the interplay between the self and positive psychology to show the potential of this research for transforming our societies SELF Driving Positive Psychology and Well being thus provides a unique insight into self and its fundamental role for well being This volume is intended to develop both theoretical and methodological ideas and to present empirical evidence of various phenomenon important for well being The scope of the volume is thus very broad and provides a framework for the development of the chapter as authors see most appropriate      Human Abilities in Cultural Context S. H. Irvine, John W. Berry, 1988-09-30 Originally published in 1988 Human Abilities in Cultural Context constituted a major development in conceptualising and studying human abilities It formed a unique reference frame This study offers a re evaluation of ability theory by the editors S H Irvine and J W Berry and strong individual statements by H J Eysenck Arthur R Jensen Joseph R Royce and Robert J Sternberg who represent markedly different approaches to the measurement of intelligence It also focuses on contexts in which the limits of assessment by psychological tests are defined in minority native groups in North America in migrants to Britain in lower caste enclaves in India among African minorities and among Australian Aborigines Written by long term residents of the regions in question these chapters presented a wealth of fresh data in relation to Western formulations of theory and practice      A Comparative Study of the Self-concept and Academic Achievement of

100 Ways to Enhance Self-concept in the Classroom Jack Canfield,Harold C. Wells,Harold Clive Wells,1976 Grade level 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 k p e i s t      Academic Motivation of Adolescents Tim Urdan, Frank Pajares,2002-09-01 Few academic issues are of greater concern to teachers parents and school administrators than the academic motivation of the adolescents in their care There are good reasons for this concern Students who are academically motivated perform better in school value their schooling are future oriented in their academic pursuits and possess the academic confidence and positive feelings of self worth so necessary to increasing academic achievement Because academically motivated students engage their schoolwork with confidence and interest they are less likely to drop out of school suffer fewer disciplinary problems and prove resilient in the face of setbacks and obstacles It is precisely because academic motivation is so essential to academic achievement that motivation has taken a place along with cognition as one of the most followed lines of inquiry in educational psychology In this volume we are fortunate to gather together some of the most eminent scholars who have written extensively about the academic motivation of adolescents We are fortunate also in that they represent the varied theories and lines of inquiry that currently dominate research in this area In all we believe that in the dozen chapters that comprise this volume the authors provide elegant insights regarding the academic and social motivation of adolescents that will prove of interest to researchers students teachers school administrators parents policymakers and all others who play a pivotal role or are otherwise invested in the lives of adolescents in today s society It is our hope that these insights will not only further the conversation on adolescence and education but will serve as the impetus for further research capable of generating the creative ideas programs and structures so necessary to better the lives of the young people in our care

Sticks n' Stones... Improving Group Dynamics Through the Use of Cooperative and Leadership Games - an Integrated Approach Sandra Lauer,2014-04-08 An action research project that includes an instructional model with activities On a small scale this work explored the variables which were contributing to a complete shutdown of a 5th grade class toward another member creating a marginalization of that child Using a three phase interdisciplinary strategy this class was coached on interpersonal skills in the classroom with journal writing and participated in supportive physical education activities The objective of this study was to develop an interdisciplinary educational program with a global perspective designed to help increase awareness of self and others provide for the development of effective communication and listening skills encourage the use of critical thinking and promote the development of leadership abilities through the use of cooperative and small group activities role playing and journal writing      EDUCATION AND PSYCHOLOGY Dr. Mohammed Sayid Bhat, Dr. Sajad Ahmad Mir,      Quality Circle Time in the Secondary School Jenny Mosley, Marilyn Tew, 2014-03-05 First Published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Ethnicity and Educational Achievement in British Schools G. Verma, B. Ashworth, 1986-04-28      The Self Thomas M. Brinthaupt, Richard P. Lipka, 1992-07-01 What are the characteristics and dimensions of the self Is there a best way to measure the self How does the researcher s definition of the self affect the choice of research measure and methods These are the questions addressed by this book Unlike previous books on the self this one provides a systematic analysis of the theoretical and methodological issues involved It offers a description of several alternative methods for studying the self and discussions of the advantages and disadvantages of these different approaches Emphasized here are the phenomenological and experiential nature of the self its multidimensionality and hierarchical structure and the relationship between defining and measuring the self Among the methodological issues addressed are the impact of significant others on the self the factors that affect the process of reporting about the self between group comparison of self structure the structure of the self in relationship to others and the effects of differing cultural contexts      A Social Psychology of Schooling Colin Rogers, 2017-09-14 If a theory of education is to be helpful to the practising teacher it must take the social context of learning into account Originally published in 1982 Colin Rogers does just this exploring the implications of two decades detailed research in to the social psychology of teaching and learning The central theme that emerges from this study is the importance of the still controversial teacher expectancy effect the effect of teachers expectations on the performance of pupils By examining in detail the claims made by those who believe that the expectations of teachers can influence levels of pupils academic attainment the book shows the complexity of interpersonal interaction and perception within the classroom and the nature of problems involved in studying these It also focuses on the way that the mutual perceptions of teachers and pupils themselves affect and are affected by other aspects of life in a school and extensive use is made of research conducted in British schools to illustrate major points The conclusion of the study was that it is the classroom the very environment in which teachers and pupils interact rather than teacher training that may need reform      Introduction to Values Education E.
