Mobile Technologies in Educational Organizations Forkosh Baruch, Alona, Meishar Tal, Hagit, 2019-03-15 The use of mobile technology for learning in organizations and the workplace is spreading widely with the development of infrastructure and devices that allow ubiquitous learning and training Since learning teaching and training in a mobile saturated environment is a developing field implications for a combined overview of these topics may be beneficial both for research and practice in the broader view of a user s lifespan Mobile Technologies in Educational Organizations is a collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of mobile technologies in learning and training and explores best practices of mobile learning in organizations and the workplace While highlighting topics including ethics informal education and virtual reality this book is ideally designed for teachers administrators principals higher education professionals instructional designers curriculum developers managers researchers and students Encyclopedia of Educational Reform and Dissent Thomas C. Hunt, 2010-01-20 The history of American education is replete with educational reform and to a lesser extent educational dissent Consider the present you have various forms of privatization school choice the No Child Left Behind act home schooling value added accountability alternative teacher preparation programs on line instruction etc This range of activity is not exceptional For instance consider the past progressive education open education the junior high school the middle school Life Adjustment education career education vocational education the comprehensive high school school to work year round schooling behavioral objectives proficiency exams high stakes testing whole language learning packages and self paced instruction modular scheduling site based management all presented as the way to reform American schools at least in part Then you have the reformers themselves such as John Dewey George Counts Herbert Kohl John Holt Charles Silberman Admiral Hyman Rickover James Bryant Conant all the way back to Horace Mann himself Dissenters and dissenting movements while not as numerous and certainly not as well known in educational circles count the various faith based schools and individuals such as Archbishop Hughes of New York Clearly this is an area rich in ideas rife with controversy and vital in its outcome for individuals and the nation as a whole And yet strangely enough there exists no major encyclopedia bringing the varied strands together in one place as a ready reference for scholars teachers school administrators and students studying to enter the educational profession This two volume work is intended to be that authoritative resource Key themes and topics include biographies of reformers and dissenters theoretical and ideological perspectives key programs and legislation judicial verdicts impacting educational change in America the politics and processes of educational reform and policy making dissent and resistance to reform technology s impact on educational reform A Reader s Guide in the front matter groups entries around such themes to help readers find related entries more easily

Cross-national Attraction in Education Hubert Ertl, 2006-05-15 The comparison and borrowing of national policies is a widespread phenomenon in all major policy areas In education the PISA study has resulted in a renewed interest in cross national comparison and reception of policies In particular the unexpectedly low results of Germany in the PISA study have sparked increased interest in educational policies and practice elsewhere The chapters cover a wide variety of educational sectors vocational education and training preparation for career choice citizenship education secondary and higher education teacher training and language learning policy These chapters are framed by more general accounts of the influence of foreign educational reform on national reform agendas and the German reaction to the results of the PISA study This book provides insights into educational policy formation and implementation of policies into educational practice in England and Germany from a comparative perspective and is aimed at academics students policy makers and the wider public with an interest in the latest developments in the long standing mutual interest in educational matters in the two countries
