Macro-economic Model of the Nigerian Economy, 2003

The Future of Ecowas: Critical Perspectives Mansourou El-Moumin A. Radji, 2020-12-18 The book delves into the regional organization in both form and content and pinpoints why since 1975 political dysfunction and self help undermine the economic arrangement within the sub region It highlights the most systematic analysis of how policies are half implemented and laws enacted to move the region forward failed to make any difference From China's imperialistic ambitions on West Africa the economic integration to Morocco's attempt and the single currency Mansourou takes readers deep into political criminality and relies on impressive quantitative analysis to reach compelling and unusual outcomes He argues against the tide of unnecessary Chinese Killer loans that is spreading across West Africa

Encountering the Nigerian State W. Adebani, E. Obadare, 2010-07-05

This volume advances extant reflections on the state constituted as the Ur Power in society particularly in Africa It analyzes how various agents within the Nigerian society encounter the state ranging from the most routine form of contact to the spectacular While many recent collections have reheated the old paradigms of the perils of federalism corruption ethnicity etc our focus here is on encounter that is the nuance and complexity of how the state shapes society and vice versa Through this we depart from the standard state versus society approach that proves so limiting in explaining the African political landscape

African Political Economy in the Twenty-First Century Ernest T. Aniche, Stephen N. Azom, Emeka C. Iloh, 2023-09-12 African Political Economy in the Twenty First Century Theories Perspectives and Issues edited by Emeka C Iloh Ernest T Aniche and Stephen N Azom fills the gap in the discourses on African political economy from an African perspective Since the end of colonialism in the second half of the twenty first century a wide ranging debate has opened on the future of African development and the nature and character of its political economy especially as it concerns its web of relationships in the international political and economic system Two decades into the twenty first 21st century the debate still rages on and is likely to continue for a long time This book contributes to the debate by addressing the important question of how African countries can strategically and tactically approach global political economy at multilateral continental and regional levels in view of North South versus South South configurations African Political Economy in the Twenty First Century further suggests how African countries can effectively utilize global forces to Africa s advantage in advancing domestic regional and continental development objectives Trade Unions and Sustainable Democracy in Africa Gerard Kester,Ousmane Oumarou Sidibe,2019-05-23 First published in 1997 this volume sets out to open a dialogue with the trade union movement and its social partners including civil society political leaders and the scientific community The authors all of whom work closely with APADEP have drawn on their personal experience and have been guided by a simple yet flexible theme trends in the last few decades in their countries with the emphasis on transition over the last five years Part I consists of an overview of sub Saharan Africa based on selected documentation Part II is given over to an analysis of the specific situations obtaining in ten African countries in different geographical and language areas Each case study provides its own democratisation scenario Competence Utilization and Transfer in Informal Sector Production and Service Trades in Ibadan, Nigeria Susanna Adam,1995 Competence of the entrepreneurs is regarded as one of the factors which are most important for survival and development in the informal sector However an educational perspective alone would not have been an appropriate approach to this sector Therefore an interdisciplinary approach combining educational with socio economic research was chosen for this study The research included other important factors such as infrastructure financing marketing technology and informal relations
