The remittance man — 1880 — 1920.

The remittance man in these notes refer to the young man from England who was sent out to the colonies for some misdemeanor. They were usually young men of good family, gentlemen by right of their money and breeding, usually younger sons who were debarred inheritance of family lands or businesses, those rights usually fell to the oldest son.

The younger sons usually took on the Cloth of the Church or purchased a commission in the army or joined the navy or the Colonial
