Decker,Virginia A. Decker,2003 Many Americans worry about what they see as a growing gulf between the American public and its public schools Troubling trends seem to indicate a fraying relationship among families schools and communities Education reform has become the topic of many conversations as well as books and articles There is widespread agreement that schools and education curricula need to be fixed but there is no agreement on how this can be accomplished Educators across the nation are implementing ideas and strategies that are making a difference in children s lives and in the health and well being of our communities Structured in ten chapters this book will help educators weave some of the best ideas for creating and sustaining family and community engagement into a comprehensive home school community partnership program tailored to their own communities Website references and URLs for additional exploration are included For educational leaders teachers and family and community advocates interested in creating and maintaining home school community partnerships and collaborative initiatives Creating Family-School Partnerships Sandra Webster,2023-12-22 Introducing a new model of family school partnership entitled Pathways to Partnership Sandra presents a template to teachers and school leaders for developing authentic genuine family school partnerships that reflect contemporary global thinking and practice She offers a new perspective on the family school partnership and provides support and guidance to school leaders to move away from outdated but ingrained approaches to more effective family school partnerships Globally schools are becoming less an education centre and more of a hub that integrates health and social services With this change the way schools regard family involvement has also shifted with family involvement being viewed as a strategically critical role This shift has been influenced not just by the recent pandemic but also by the global trend towards decentralisation and democratisation of the decision making power in schools in which parent empowerment is implicit However many schools have not followed a modern engagement model in the way they approach partnership with the family and still espouse approaches that are school centric and outdated in their orientation Pathways to Partnership helps move leaders from talking to towards learning with parents Using case studies and the voices of parents and teachers to bring the content to life Sandra provides strategies for school leaders and teachers to use to establish contemporary partnerships with families ones that reflect current thinking that leads schools into authentic collaboration with their most important partners Extending Educational Change Andy Hargreaves,2007-12-12 ANDY HARGREAVES Department of Teacher Education Curriculum and Instruction Lynch School of Education Boston College MA U S A ANN LIEBERMAN
