Hamied Ansari,1986      Is this Society Civil? Yahya Sadowski,1990      Composing Egypt Hoda Yousef,2016-06-22 In this innovative history of reading and writing Hoda Yousef explores how the idea of literacy and its practices fundamentally altered the social fabric of Egypt at the turn of the twentieth century She traces how nationalists Islamic modernists bureaucrats journalists and early feminists sought to reform reading habits writing styles and the Arabic language itself in their hopes that the right kind of literacy practices would create the right kind of Egyptians The impact of new reading and writing practices went well beyond the elites and the newly literate of Egyptian society and this book reveals the increasingly ubiquitous reading and writing practices of literate illiterate and semi literate Egyptians alike Students who wrote petitions women who frequented scribes and communities who gathered to hear a newspaper read aloud all used various literacies to participate in social exchanges and civic negotiations regarding the most important issues of their day Composing Egypt illustrates how reading and writing practices became not only an object of social reform but also a central medium for public exchange Wide segments of society could engage with new ideas about nationalism education gender and ultimately what it meant to be part of modern Egypt
