Eighth Day And Toto The Hero:

The Cinema of the Low Countries Ernest Mathijs, 2004 Films from the Netherlands Belgium and Luxembourg have long been regarded as isolated texts The Cinema of the Low Countries points to the interconnectedness between these national cinemas from the point of view of genre language and format and their local and international importance by explicitly focusing on 24 key feature films and documentaries from the region Building on each film's relationship with its particular cultural context this volume presents twenty four specially commissioned essays that explore the particular significance and influence of a wide range of exemplary films Covering the work of internationally acclaimed directors such as Joris Ivens Henri Stock Paul Verhoeven and the Dardenne Brothers and featuring the films Turkish Delight The Vanishing Daughters of Darkness Rosetta Soldiers of Orange and Man Bites Dog this collection offers an original approach to the appreciation of a diverse and increasingly important regional cinema

Lord Eight Wind of Suchixtlan and the Heroes of Ancient Oaxaca Robert Lloyd Williams, 2010-01-01 In the pre Hispanic Mesoamerican world histories and collections of ritual knowledge were often presented in the form of painted and folded books now known as codices and the knowledge itself was encoded into pictographs Eight codices have survived from the Mixtec peoples of ancient Oaxaca Mexico a part of one of them the Codex Zouche Nuttall is the subject of this book As a group the Mixtec codices contain the longest detailed histories and royal genealogies known for any indigenous people in the western hemisphere The Codex Zouche Nuttall offers a unique window into how the Mixtecs themselves viewed their social and political cosmos without the bias of western European interpretation

At the same time however the complex calendrical information recorded in the Zouche Nuttall has made it resistant to historical chronological analysis thereby rendering its narrative obscure In this pathfinding work Robert Lloyd Williams presents a methodology for reading the Codex Zouche Nuttall that unlocks its essentially linear historical chronology Recognizing that the codex is a combination of history in the European sense and the timelessness of myth in the Native American sense he brings to vivid life the history of Lord Eight Wind of Suchixtlan AD 935 1027 a ruler with the attributes of both man and deity as well as other heroic Oaxacan figures Williams also provides context for the history of Lord Eight Wind through essays dealing with Mixtec ceremonial rites and social structure drawn from information in five surviving Mixtec codices

The New Yorker, 2002-11 The Cinema of the Dardenne Brothers Philip Mosley, 2013-03-19 The brothers Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne have established an international reputation for their emotionally powerful realist cinema Inspired by their home turf of Liège Seraing a former industrial hub of French speaking southern Belgium they have crafted a series of fiction films that blends acute observation of life on the social margins with moral fables for the postmodern age This volume analyses the brothers career from their leftist video documentaries of the 1970s and 1980s through their debut as directors of fiction films in the late 1980s and early 1990s to their six major achievements from The Promise 1996 to The Kid with a Bike 2011 an oeuvre that includes two Golden Palms at the Cannes film festival for Rosetta 1999 and The Child 2005 It argues that the ethical dimension of the Dardennes work complements rather than precludes their sustained expression of a fundamental political sensibility
