Edward James Lennox Vol 1 Builder Of Toronto:

Edward James Lennox Marilyn M. Litvak,1996-09-01 From 1876 to 1915 Edward James Lennox was a formidable force in Toronto's architectural community. Many of his buildings are still landmarks in a city that continues to evolve. Born and educated in Toronto, Lennox looked to the past for inspiration but was never captured by it. His prototypical Annex houses on Madison Avenue, Old City Hall and Casa Loma bear witness to his technical expertise and aesthetic sensibilities. Through text and illustrations, this volume tells the story of the resolute architect whose vision helped shape an emerging city and who in his time was called the builder of Toronto. Edward James Lennox Builder of Toronto is the first volume in the Canadian Master Architect series. Each publication will profile the work of an individual Canadian architect. The series editor is Marilyn M. Litvak.

Essays in the History of Canadian Law, Volume X J. Phillips, R. Roy, J. McMurry, J. T. Saywell, 2008-09-18. Covering a broad range of topics, this volume examines developments over the last two hundred years in the legal profession and the judiciary, nineteenth-century prison history as well as the impact of the 1815 Treaty of Paris. Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975. Essays in the History of Canadian Law J. Phillips, R. Roy, J. McMurry, J. T. Saywell, 2008-09-18. Written to honour the life and work of the late Peter N. Oliver, the distinguished historian and editor in chief of the Osgoode Society for Canadian Legal History from 1979 to 2006, this collection assembles the finest legal scholars to reflect on the issues in and development of the field of legal history in Canada. Covering a broad range of topics, this volume examines developments over the last two hundred years in the legal profession and the judiciary, nineteenth-century prison history as well as the impact of the 1815 Treaty of Paris. The introduction also provides insight into the history of the Osgoode Society and of Oliver's essential role in it, along with an illuminating analysis of the Society's publications program which produced sixty-six books during his tenure. A fitting tribute to one of the foremost legal historians, this tenth volume of Essays in the History of Canadian Law is a significant contribution to the discipline to which Oliver devoted so much.

Unbuilt Toronto Mark Osbaldeston, 2008-10-27. Unbuilt Toronto explores never-realized building projects in and around Toronto from the city's founding to the twenty-first century. Delving into unfulfilled and largely forgotten visions for grand public buildings, landmark skyscrapers, highways, subways and arts and recreation venues, it outlines such ambitious schemes as St. Alban's Cathedral, the Queen subway line and early city plans that would have resulted in a Paris by the Lake. Readers may lament the loss of some projects such as the Eaton's College Street tower, be thankful for the disappearance of others, a highway through the Annex and marvel at the downtown that could have been with underground roads and walkways in the sky. Featuring 147 photographs and illustrations, many never before published, Unbuilt Toronto casts a different light on a city you thought you knew.
