Jack St. Hilaire

Effects Of Law Enforcement Accreditation Officer Selection Promotion And Education:

Effects of Law Enforcement Accreditation Stephen A. Baker, 1995-11-20 For many years law enforcement administrators government officials and researchers have explored the possibility of professionalizing law enforcement agencies and their officers Some have called for mandatory college education requirements while others have argued for the formation of a national police force In 1979 police practitioners from various law enforcement executive organizations met to develop a process to professionalize police agencies by instituting standards covering the wide range of police functions The Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies Inc CALEA was born This book describes the results of a study that evaluated the impact of CALEA accreditation on specific personnel administration practices in municipal police departments The author compares accredited and non accredited departments for personnel practices including procedures for officer selection promotion and the integration of formal education requirements

Managing Policy and Reform in an Era of American Police Conflict Jack St. Hilaire, 2023-08-11 The Greek philosopher Socrates posed a guardian model that would protect his Athenian world the custodes watchmen yet mused who would guard them but themselves In The Republic Plato spoke favorably about the guardians of the republic they should be trusted to behave and perform their duties appropriately without oversight Half a millennium later the Roman satirist Juvenal proposed that men who feared their wives infidelity could neither trust them nor the guardians who guarded them Similarly James Madison opposed oppression through blind trust and thus conceptualized Madisonian Democracy Quis custodiet ipsos custodies Who will guard the guardians In an era of conflict with America s police and the communities they serve today s publicly expressed attitudes toward law enforcement often reflect Socrates dilemma and the concerns of Juvenal more than that of Plato s tributes Contemporary debates concerning the increase in violent crime and the need for fundamental changes to American policing reached a new intensity and stalemate with the death of George Floyd in Minneapolis in May 2020 Police officers shot and killed 999 people in 2019 and 1021 people in 2020 in the United States 2020 was also one of the deadliest years for law enforcement with 264 officers killed the highest since 1974 In the first six months of 2021 523 civilians were shot and killed by officers Numerous active and former police officers face criminal charges for the January 6 United States Capitol Attack in Washington DC in 2021 Many current and former employees of the U S Border Patrol were discovered to be members of a Facebook group that posted racist and anti immigration content Sixty current members were found to have committed misconduct by posting explicit and violent messages mocking migrants and threatening lawmakers on the site Communities are now hiring civilians to high positions in the police department s command staff justifying the need to improve deteriorating community relations For the first time in its 27 years of measuring confidence in the police in the United States Gallup found that most American adults do not trust law enforcement This book investigates and exposes the complex challenges facing law enforcement leaders and government officials with police reform policies and standards police accreditation and police legitimacy in the eyes of the community Through informative and educational discussions with law enforcement leaders from various agencies professional police organizations and academic researchers the book qualitatively evaluates individual autonomy organizational culture and political environments which influence strategic decisions made on policy and reform efforts by law enforcement officials in the United States within the milieu of national police accreditation

The State of American Policing David J. Thomas, 2018-11-09 Written by a veteran police officer turned college professor this modern day study of American policing covers hot button issues including police use of deadly force against and bias toward minorities Grounded in research of historical and current events this text examines police practices and the psychological impact that those practices have on minority communities Author David J Thomas a retired police officer and associate professor of criminal justice looks at and beyond historical perspectives to address many of today's most controversial issues central to minority communities Topics covered include the repeated failure to convict officers for fatally shooting unarmed subjects the rise of heated debates between the Black Lives Matter and Blue Lives Matter movements the militarization of police agencies and police response to protests by NFL players The text also offers insight into the psychology of race police culture implicit bias and the decision to use deadly force Thomas additionally examines possible solutions to these problems College students researchers academics and readers interested in politics will find this work informative and thought provoking

Effective Crime Reduction Strategies James F. Albrecht, Dilip K. Das, 2011-02-22 The International Police Executive Symposium IPES www.ipes.info coordinates annual international conferences to evaluate critical issues in policing and recommend practical solutions to law enforcement executives deployed across the globe Drawn from the 2005 proceedings hosted by the Czech Republic in Prague Effective Crime Reduction Strategies Police and State Crime in the Americas Daniel Gascón, Sebastián Sclofsky, Xavier Perez, Jhon Sanabria, Analicia Mejia Mesinas, 2024-02-24 This book advances a much needed postcolonial framework in analyzing the police It seeks to deepen our understanding of the police role in maintaining Western global domination throughout the American region despite the violent end of colonial rule Building on Chevigny's 1995 classic study this book seeks to draw renewed attention to the role of police in perpetrating state violence and serving as the tip of the spear of state power It seeks to understand the construction of marginality and the multiple and intersecting structures of colonial domination before shining a light directly on the crimes of the state in an attempt to hold criminal state organizations to account It draws on interdisciplinary perspectives and methodologies that center marginalized and colonized experiences and allows for the development of countercolonial knowledge It speaks to academics and students in criminology sociology political science and law as well as to ethnic and area studies programs such as Chicano Latino and Latin American Studies and to police administrators and policymakers
