transition from Rococo to Neoclassicism and in the artistic rediscovery of classical antiquity Much celebrated in his time Bouchardon created some of the most iconic images of the age of Louis XV His oeuvre demonstrates a remarkable variety of themes from copies after the antique to subjects of history and mythology portraiture anatomical studies ornament fountains and tombs media drawings sculptures medals prints and techniques chalk plaster wax terracotta marble bronze With five essays by experts on Bouchardon's sculpture and graphic arts more than 140 catalogue entries and a detailed chronology this book aims to demonstrate the originality of Bouchardon's art within the cultural and social context of the period while suggesting the subtle relationship between as well as the relative autonomy of the artist s two careers as a sculptor and a draftsman This lavishly illustrated publication represents an unprecedented and thorough survey on this major and unique artist from the Age of Enlightenment offering indepth scholarship based on unpublished material Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1964-2005 Metropolitan Museum of Art, 2012-10-09 The present volume Publications of The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1964 2005 is a successor to a volume published by the Museum in 1965 entitled Publications of The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1870 1964 These two bibliographic volumes endeavor to list all the known books pamphlets and serial publications bearing the Museum's imprint and issued by the institution during the first 135 years of its existence through June 2005 The first volume was compiled by Albert TenEyck Gardner at the time an Associate Curator of American Paintings and Sculpture and the present volume has been compiled from the Annual Reports issued by the Museum during the relevant years Together the two volumes testify to the tremendous contributions made to knowledge by the curators and conservators of the Metropolitan and by the many other experts who have contributed to the Museum's exhibition catalogues Various issues of the Bulletin emphasize the great sweep of the Museum's acquisitions during these years and the exhibition catalogues a number of them Alfred H Barr Jr Award or the George Wittenborn Award testify to the continuity of the institution's dedicated program to enrich people's lives through knowledge of art This title was originally published in 2006

François Boucher and the Art of Collecting in Eighteenth-Century France Jessica Priebe, 2021-11-29 While earlier studies have focused predominantly on artist Fran ois Boucher's artistic style and identity this book presents the first full length interdisciplinary study of Boucher's prolific collection of around 13 500 objects including paintings sculpture prints drawings porcelain shells minerals and other imported curios It discusses the types of objects he collected the networks through which he acquired them and their spectacular display in his custom designed studio at the Louvre where he lived and worked for nearly two decades This book explores the role his collection played in the development of his art his studio his friendships and the burgeoning market for luxury goods in mid eighteenth century France In doing so it sheds new light on the relationship between Boucher's artistic and collecting practices which attracted both praise and criticism from period observers The book will appeal to scholars working in art history museum studies and French history

eighteenth century Jean Honor Fragonard 1732 1806 was a virtuoso draftsman whose works on paper count among the great achievements of his time This book showcases Fragonard s mastery and experimentation in a range of media from vivid red chalk to luminous brown wash as well as etching watercolor and gouache With essays that focus on the role of drawing in his creative process and provide a modern reevaluation of his graphic work the book offers fresh perspectives on this innovative and independent artist who began his career in the Rococo era but lived through and adapted to changing times in France and who chose to leave the more defined path of official patronage in order to work for private clients Unlike many earlier painters who used drawings primarily as preparatory tools Fragonard explored their potential as works of art in their own right ones that permitted him to work with great freedom and allowed his genius to shine The 100 featured works come from New York collections public and private balancing a mix of well loved masterpieces new discoveries and works that have long been out of the public eye Fragonard Drawing Triumphant illuminates the approach of a ceaselessly inventive artist whose draftsmanship was at the core of his remarkable body of work French Architectural and Ornament Drawings of the Eighteenth Century Mary L. Myers, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1991 Re-Reading the Eighteenth-Century Novel Jakub Lipski, 2021-08-12 Re Reading the Eighteenth Century Novel adds to the dynamically developing subfield of reception studies within eighteenth century studies Lipski shows how secondary visual and literary texts live their own lives in new contexts while being also attentive to the possible ways in which these new lives may tell us more about the source texts To this end the book offers five case studies of how canonical novels of the eighteenth century by Daniel Defoe Henry Fielding and Laurence Sterne came to be interpreted by readers from different historical moments Lipski prioritises responses that may seem non standard or even disconnected from the original appreciating difference as a gateway to unobvious territories as well as expressing doubts regarding readings that verge on misinterpretative appropriation The material encompasses textual and visual testimonies of reading including book illustration prints and drawings personal documents reviews literary texts and literary criticism. The case studies are arranged into three sections visual transvaluations reception in Poland and critical afterlives and are concluded by a discussion of the most recent socio political uses and revisions of eighteenth century fiction in the Age of Trump 2016 2020 Raphael to Renoir Stijn Alsteens, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), National Gallery of Scotland, 2009 The works from the Bonna Collection are illustrated in color and whenever possible at their actual sizes They are arranged chronologically by the artist s date of birth and are grouped according to the main artistic schools This volume is introduced by an interview with Jean Bonna by George Goldner Each drawing is then described in an entry many of which have comparative illustrations that shed further light on individual works BOOK JACKET French Paintings in The Metropolitan Museum of Art from the Early Eighteenth Century through the Revolution Katharine Baetjer, 2019-04-15 This publication catalogues The Met's remarkable collection of eighteenth century French paintings in the context of the powerful institutions that governed the visual arts of the time the Acad mie Royale de Peinture et de Sculpture the Acad mie de France Rome and the Paris Salon At the height of their authority during the eighteenth century these institutions nurtured the talents of artists in all genres The Met s collection encompasses stunning examples of work by leading artists of the period including Antoine Watteau Mezzetin Jean Sim on Chardin The Silver Tureen Fran ois Boucher The Toilette of Venus Joseph Siffred Duplessis Benjamin Franklin Jean Baptiste Greuze Broken Eggs Hubert Robert the Bagatelle decorations Jacques Louis David The Death of Socrates the Van Blarenberghes The Outer Port of Brest and Fran ois G rard Charles Maurice de Talleyrand P rigord In the book s introduction author Katharine Baetjer provides a history of the Acad mie its establishment principles and regulations along with a discussion of the beginnings of public art discourse in France taking us through the reforms unleashed by the Revolution The consequent democratizing of the Salon brought about by radicals under the leadership of Jacques Louis David encouraged the formation of new publics with new tastes in subject matter and genres The catalogue features 126 paintings by 50 artists Each section includes a short biography of the artist and in depth discussions of individual paintings incorporating the most up to date scholarship Pastel Portraits Katharine Baetjer, Marjorie Shelley, 2011 Seventeenth and Eighteenth Century French Drawings from the Robert Lehman Collection Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), George Szabó, 1980

The Painter's Touch Ewa Lajer-Burcharth, 2018-01-08 A new interpretation of the development of artistic modernity in eighteenth century France What can be gained from considering a painting not only as an image but also a material object How does the painter s own experience of the process of making matter for our understanding of both the painting and its maker The Painter's Touch addresses these questions to offer a radical reinterpretation of three paradigmatic French painters of the eighteenth century In this beautifully illustrated book Ewa Lajer Burcharth provides close readings of the works of Fran ois Boucher Jean Sim on Chardin and Jean Honor Fragonard entirely recasting our understanding of these painters practice Using the notion of touch she examines the implications of their strategic investment in materiality and sheds light on the distinct contribution of painting to the culture of the Enlightenment Lajer Burcharth traces how the distinct logic of these painters work the operation of surface in Boucher the deep materiality of Chardin and the dynamic morphological structure in Fragonard contributed to the formation of artistic identity Through the notion of touch she repositions these painters in the artistic culture of their time shifting attention from institutions such as the academy and the Salon to the realms of the market the medium and the body Lajer Burcharth analyzes Boucher's commercial tact Chardin's interiorized craft and Fragonard's materialization of eros Foregrounding the question of experience that of the painters and of the people they represent she shows how painting as a medium contributed to the Enlightenment's discourse on the self in both its individual and social functions By examining what paintings actually say in brushstrokes texture and paint The Painter's Touch transforms our understanding of the role of painting in the emergence of modernity and provides new readings of some of the most important and beloved works of art of the era Nineteenth- and Twentieth-century European
