Goodbye Gutenberg Anthony Smith,1980 Goodbye Gutenberg Anthony Smith,1980 Managing Innovation Sven B. Lundstedt,E. William Colglazier,2013-10-22 Managing Innovation The Social Dimensions of Creativity Invention and Technology focuses on the relationship between inventions and innovations with industrial development and economic advancement The book stresses the point that advancement in industries and economy can be more successful when these are in balance Containing the works of various authors the book proceeds by highlighting the social dimension of invention and innovation The role of the government in the promotion of innovations and inventions is also noted The book also reiterates the point that human factors have definitely affected innovation and productivity This stance is supported by the discussion on a case study in labor management cooperation Inventions and innovations in the social dimension are also established to be related with industrial productivity The book also touches upon how education has influenced the advancement of technology in Japan The text is best suited to those who are interested in pushing the role of inventions and innovations in shaping the society Electric Language Michael Heim,1999-01-01 In this book Michael Heim provides the first consistent philosophical basis for critically evaluating the impact of word processing on our use of and ideas about language This edition includes a new foreword by David Gelernter a new preface by the author and an updated bibliography Not only important but seminal on the cutting edge furrowing new conceptual territory Walter J Ong S J A philosopher ponders how the word processor has affected language use and our ideas about it Heim shrewdly updates a school of thought associated with such thinkers as Walter Ong that maintains all changes in writing technology tend to change the way we perceive the world His argument that word processing leads to fragmented thinking should be addressed and debated Carlin Romano Philadelphia Inquirer The arguments range over all of Western philosophy and some Eastern as well from the ancient Greeks to contemporary phenomenology Everyone who has used a word processor will find much to think about in Heim s ideas David Weinberger Byte Fascinating clear and well done stimulating and challenging Don Ihde Philosophy and Rhetoric News Corporation, Technology and the Workplace Timothy Marjoribanks,2000-02-10 This book which includes extensive interview material and primary research examines technological innovation and workplace restructuring carried out by News Corporation in its newspaper holdings in Britain the United States and Australia Timothy Marjoribanks finds that while some outcomes at various local sites were similar many were dramatically different His study reveals that the nature of existing social relations in a particular location has a major impact on workplace reforms The book finds that the prevailing balance of power between trade unions and workers management and employers and the role of the state in these relationships are the most influential factors in determining the course of events Significantly it emphasises the importance of analysing the connections between events occurring locally nationally and globally if we are to understand the growing influence of corporate actors such as News Corporation Videotex Journalism David H. Weaver,2015-07-16 Originally published in 1983 Videotex technology the capacity to deliver computer stored textual information and graphics electronically to the home television screen was becoming widespread in the 1980s This book looks at how this affected journalists and other news media and how the flow of news existed in society at the time Based on observations and interviews with journalists the book addresses technological political and economic questions as well as provides a concise description of teletext and viewdata systems in various countries The findings presented offer a fascinating view of the opinions and actions of journalists working in the 1980s not only on teletext systems For example questionnaire results are presented on how journalists saw the role of their job and what actions they felt appropriate such as hidden cameras and phone taps These issues of greater visibility in the 21st Century make this a fascinating look at the history Knowledge Management in the Digital Newsroom Stephen Quinn, 2013-07-31 If you are an editor or newsroom manager seeking new and more efficient ways of managing the ever increasing flow of information through your newsroom this book will provide the information you need to make informed decisions about crucial organisational and equipment changes Case studies from newsrooms worldwide are used to present an overview of the information management tools and processes that are available to help journalists and media executives deal with information Answers are suggested for some of the most pressing issues including What are the factors driving change in newsrooms How are news organizations around the world re organising their newsrooms to deal with information in new ways How are the opposing needs to cut costs and yet maintain journalistic quality being met What digital tools are currently available e g for computer assisted reporting How can reporters become more mobile How can trainee journalists be better prepared for operating within the changing newsroom environment Each chapter is supplemented by a how to learn more section suggesting further resources for tackling each issue Whether you are planning major change in your newsroom or simply wish to keep up with the latest industry trends this is the book you have been waiting for Selling Culture Richard Malin Ohmann, 1996 Surveys the new practices of advertising mass distribution of goods and the birth of the inexpensive mass audience magazine at the end of the 19th century and their role in the creation of the American professional managerial class Focuses on magazine publishing careers of key personalities in the publishing world and the role of fiction in the magazines For students and general readers Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Journalism in the Digital Age John Herbert, 1999-11-03 Provides the practical techniques and theoretical knowledge that underpin the fundamental skills of a journalist It also takes a highly modern approach as the convergence of broadcast print and online media require the learning of new skills and methods The book is written from an international perspective with examples from around the world in recognition of the global marketplace for today's media This is an essential text for students on journalism courses and professionals looking for a reference that covers the skill technology and knowledge required for a digital and converged media age The book's essence lies in the way essential theories such as ethics and law are woven into practical newsgathering and reporting techniques as well as advice on management skills for journalists providing the wide intellectual foundation which gives credibility to reporting

Mass Communications Research Resources Christopher H. Sterling, James K. Bracken, Susan B. Hill, 2016-05-06 This reference book is designed as a road map for researchers who need to find specific information about American mass communication as expeditiously as possible Taking a topical approach it integrates publications and organizations into subject focused chapters for easy user reference The editors define mass communication to include print journalism and electronic media and the processes by which they communicate messages to their audiences Included are newspaper magazine radio television cable and newer electronic media industries Within that definition this volume offers an indexed inventory of more than 1 400 resources on most aspects of American mass communication history technology economics content audience research policy and regulation The material featured represents the carefully considered judgment of three experts two of them librarians plus four contributors from different industry venues The primary focus is on the domestic American print and electronic media industries Although there is no claim to a complete census of all materials on print journalism and electronic media what is available is now too vast for any single guide the most important and useful items are here The emphasis is on material published since 1980 though useful older resources are included as well Each chapter is designed to stand alone providing the most important and useful resources of a primary nature organizations and documents as well as secondary books and reports In addition online resources and internet citations are included where possible

Digitizing the News Pablo J. Boczkowski, 2005 A study of the development of nonprint publishing by American daily newspapers how new media emerge by combining existing media structures and practices with new technical capabilities

Digital Roots Gabriele Balbi, Nelson Ribeiro, Valérie Schafer, Christian Schwarzenegger, 2021-09-07 As media environments and communication practices evolve over time so do theoretical concepts This book analyzes some of the most well known and fiercely discussed concepts of the digital age from a historical perspective showing how many of them have pre digital roots and how they have changed and still are constantly changing in the digital era Written by leading authors in media and communication studies the chapters historicize 16 concepts that have become central in the digital media literature focusing on three main areas The first part Technologies and Connections historicises concepts like network media convergence multimedia interactivity and artificial intelligence The second one is related to Agency and Politics and explores global governance datafication fake news echo chambers digital media activism The last one Users and Practices is finally devoted to telepresence digital loneliness amateurism user generated content fandom and authenticity The book aims to shed light on how concepts emerge and are co shaped circulated used and reappropriated in different contexts It argues for the need for a conceptual media and communication history that will reveal new developments without concealing continuities and it demonstrates how the analogue digital dichotomy is often a misleading one

When MBAs Rule the Newsroom Doug Underwood, 1995 Writing with anger but with a deep affection for the trade he examines the growing economic pressures within the industry the roots of the managerial revolution and the impact of marketplace journalism on the operation of the newsroom and employee morale

Estimating Equilibrium Exchange Rates John Williamson, 1994 The problems of exchange rate misalignments and the resulting payments imbalances have plagued the world economy for decades At the Louvre Accord of 1987 the Group of Five industrial countries adopted a system of reference ranges for exchange rate management influenced by proposals of C Fred Bergstan and John Williamson for a target zone system The reference range approach has however been operated only intermittently and half heartedly and questions continue to be raised in policy and scholarly circles about the design and operation of a full fledged target zone regime This volume with chapters by leading international economists explores one crucial issue in the design of a target zone system the problem of calculating Williamson s concept of the fundamental equilibrium exchange rate FEER Williamson contributes an overview of the policy and analytic issues and a second chapter on his own calculations

Women, Men and News Paula Poindexter, Sharon Meraz, Amy Schmitz Weiss, 2010-12-22 This multi authored scholarly volume explores the divide between men and women in their consumption of news media looking at how the sexes read and use news historically and currently how they use technology to access their news and how today s news pertains to and is used by women The volume also addresses diversity issues among women s use of news considering racial ethnic international and feminist perspectives The volume is intended to help readers understand adult news use behavior a critical and timely issue considering the state of newspapers and television news in today s multi media news environment

How the News Makes Us Dumb C. John Sommerville, 2009-09-20 We who live at the end of the twentieth century are better informed and more quickly informed than any people in history So why do we also seem more confused divided and foolish than ever before Some pundits criticize the news media for political bias Other analysts worry that up to the minute news reports on radio and television oversimplify complex realities Still more critics point out that today s reporters can t possibly be experts on the wide variety of subjects they cover Historian C John Sommerville thinks the problem with news is more basic Focusing his critique on the news at its best he concludes that even at its best it is beyond repair Sommerville argues that news began to make us dumber when we insisted on having it daily Now millions of column inches and airtime hours must be filled with information every day every hour every minute The news Sommerville says becomes the driving force for much of our public culture News schedules turn politics into a perpetual campaign News packaging influences the timing content and perception of government initiatives News frenzies make a superstition out of scientific and medical research News polls and statistics create opinion as much as they gauge it Lost in the tidal wave of information is our ability to discern truly significant news and our ability to recognize and participate in true community This eye opening book is for everyone dissatisfied with the state of the news media but especially for those who think the news really informs them about and connects them with the real world Read it and you may never again know the tyranny of the daily newspaper or the nightly news broadcast

The Politics and Poetics of Journalistic Narrative Phyllis Frus, 1994-06-24 The Politics and Poetics of Journalistic Narrative investigates the textuality of all discourse arguing that the ideologically charged distinction between journalism and fiction is socially constructed rather than natural Phyllis Frus separates literariness from aesthetic definitions regarding it as a way of reading a text through its style to discover how it makes reality
