The Gospel According to St. Mark. Greek Text with Introduction, Notes and Indexes. By VINCENT TAYLOR. London: Macmillan and Co. 5os.

THE classical work of H. B. Swete, first published in 1898, has served the needs of two generations of students of St. Mark's Gospel, and its value in respect of its wealth of philological and patristic learning remains unimpaired. But even when Swete's commentary was published, the tides of critical and historical research were sweeping past it in full stream, and advancing to new positions, particularly in the matter of the source-analysis of the Synoptic material, and, since then, over wide areas of investigation important results have been registered. New textual sources—Chester-Beatty papyrus 45, Codex Koridethi, and Codex Washington, etc.—have been collated. There has been a revaluation and regrouping of the types of ancient text. Progress has been made in lexical research, especially in the study of the Greek Koine and Aramaic. Form-criticism has opened new avenues to the understanding of the Synoptic material, and since Wrede and Schweitzer there has come a quickening of theological insight into the nature of the primitive tradition with a better focussing of the questions demanding solution, not least in the matter of eschatology.

It is fortunate that the task of producing the new commentary in succession to Swete has been entrusted to the accomplished hands of Dr Vincent Taylor, whose technical qualifications in the field of Synoptic studies have found eloquent expression in a series of critical works, beginning with Behind the Third Gospel (1926), and including The Formation of the Gospel Tradition (1933) and Jesus and His Sacrifice (1937). But Dr Taylor brings to the work not only the highest degree of critical and theological scholarship, but a dispassionate and almost incredible patience shown in his exhaustive survey of the current and casual literature bearing on his subject and hidden away in encyclopedias, monographs and learned journals. 'The wealth of relevant literature', he writes, 'is the inspiration and despair of the student.' In the interests of his comprehensive purpose he has exercised an extraordinary self-restraint, disclaiming the intention to write a definitive commentary, choosing rather, as he modestly puts it, 'to report progress and perhaps to Burdette,2008-08 In 1517 Martin Luther took a stand for justification by faith alone in the finished work of Christ upon Calvary As a result of his position he suffered persecution for adhering to the Scriptures alone and not to traditions This book traces my spiritual journey from legalism to freedom in Christ In sixteen chapters I map out my heritage within the Churches of Christ and the motivations that eventually led me out of bondage to liberty One of the lengthiest chapters in this book is Where the Scriptures Speak One objective of this chapter is to help individuals to understand that one may speak where the Bible speaks and not necessarily speak as the Bible speaks Chapters 11 12 and 13 represent the very heart of my escape from authoritarianism to my dependence upon God s righteousness a righteousness from God through faith in Jesus Chapter 14 focuses on preaching in the early church Without an understanding of the Gospel that the apostles proclaimed Christians will never learn the spirit of toleration for differences within the Christian community Chapters 8 15 and 16 give attention to the Last Supper The communion should be a constant reminder of the Cross and true unity among God s children Chapter 1 2 and 3 outline my original journey of faith Dallas Burdette has been a serious student teacher and preacher of the Bible for fifty eight years supporting himself for many years as an agent for AFLAC He has written numerous articles for religious journals as well as many essays and sermons which are available on his website He has developed a keen interest in promoting unity among God's people through a more accurate reading of the Word He has degrees from Amridge University formerly Southern Christian University where he also was Director of Extended Learning for five years He holds the Doctor of Ministry degree 1999 from Erskine Theological Seminary

Parabolic Figures or Narrative Fictions? Charles W. Hedrick, 2016-06-10 Hedrick contends that parables do not teach moral and religious lessons they are not in whole or part theological figures for the church Rather parables are realistic narrative fictions that like all effective fiction literature are designed to draw readers into story worlds where they make discoveries about themselves by finding their ideas challenged and subverted or affirmed The parables have endings but not final resolutions because the endings raise new complications for careful readers which require further resolution The narrative contexts and interpretations supplied by the evangelists constitute an attempt by the early church to bring the secular narratives of Jesus under the control of the church's later religious perspectives Each narrative represents a fragment of Jesus's secular vision of reality Finding himself outside the mainstream of parables scholarship both ecclesiastical and critical Hedrick explored a literary approach to the parables in a series of essays that among other things set out the basic rationale for a literary approach to the parables of Jesus These early essays form the central section of the book They are published here in edited form along with unpublished critiques of a thoroughgoing literary approach and his response
