Good-bye, Son and Other Stories Janet Lewis, 2019-08-27 Good bye Son and Other Stories Janet Lewis's only collection of short fiction was first published in 1946 but remains as quietly haunting today as it was then. Set in small communities of the upper Midwest and northern California in the 30s and 40s, these midcentury gems focus on the quiet cycles connecting youth and age, despair and hope, life and death. A mother's encounters with her deceased son, an aging woman sitting with the new knowledge of her troubled older sister's death, and a teenager disillusioned by her own mortality are among the characters, mostly women and girls, whom Lewis delivers. Her understated style and knack for unadorned observation embed us with them as they reckon with the disquieting forces, incomprehensible and destructive to some, enlightening to others, that move us from birth through life to death. In the process, Lewis has crafted a paean to the living. The Party and Other Stories Anton Chekhov, 2018-09-20 Reproduction of the original The Party and Other Stories by Anton Chekhov

It was inhabited by Amazons, and even the harnesses of the beasts they rode were gold. Thus began the rich literature of California. In a place that boasts so many claims to one's attention, short fiction has flourished. Great California Stories trumpets the immense short story tradition developed by visitors like Mark Twain and Ambrose Bierce, but mostly by natives like Jack London and John Steinbeck. The twenty-one stories in this anthology go back to the oral tradition of the American Indians and recall the Hispanic settlement, the gold rush of the 1850s, the agricultural epoch, the growth of cities like San Francisco and Los Angeles, the foibles of early Hollywood, and the rise of ghettos. The ethnic diversity of California is reflected in a cast of story characters including Indians, mission fathers, Asians, Mexican Americans, African Americans, and forty-niners and landseekers from the eastern states. California's varied scenery is drawn on in stories with a strong sense of place, whether Steinbeck's Salinas Valley or Raymond Chandler's Los Angeles. Besides Steinbeck and Chandler, authors represented are Theodora Kroeber, Bret Harte, Gertrude Atherton, Mark Twain, Ambrose Bierce, Edwin Cone, Jack London, Idwal Jones, Walter Van Tilburg Clark, Dashiell Hammett, Eugene Burdick, Janet Lewis, Wallace Stegner, and Danny Santiago. For them, California is a memorable background, sometimes a fabulous character, always a distinctive quality. My favourite Stories \( Well known Hindi Children Stories\) , scope of Harris Lopez's work is tremendous. From her coverage of noncanonical writers to her analysis of humor in the best-selling The Color Purple, she provides essential material that should inform all future readings of African American literature.
