

Good-bye, And Keep Cold

*This saying good-bye on the edge of the dark
And cold to an orchard so young in the bark
Reminds me of all that can happen to harm
An orchard away at the end of the farm
All winter, cut off by a hill from the house,
I don't want it girdled by rabbit and mouse,
I don't want it dreamily nibbled for browse
By deer, and I don't want it budded by grouse.
(If certain it wouldn't be idle to call
I'd summon grouse, rabbit, and deer to the wall
And warn them away with a stick for a gun.)
I don't want it stirred by the heat of the sun.
(We made it secure against being, I hope,
By setting it out on a northerly slope.)
No orchard's the worse for the wintriest storm;
But one thing about it, it mustn't get warm.
"How often already you've had to be told,
Keep cold, young orchard. Good-bye and keep cold.
Dread fifty above more than fifty below."
I have to be gone for a season or so.
My business awhile is with different trees,
Less carefully nourished, less fruitful than these,
And such as is done to their wood with an axe--
Maples and birches and tamaracks.
I wish I could promise to lie in the night
And think of an orchard's arboreal plight
When slowly (and nobody comes with a light)
Its heart sinks lower under the sod.
But something has to be left to God.*

Newdick's Season of Frost William A. Sutton, Robert S. Newdick, 1976-06-30 In 1935 Professor Robert Newdick of Ohio State University wrote to Robert Frost already America's most famous living poet in order to suggest certain revisions in the arrangement of the poet's collected poems The brief letter was to begin a relationship of nearly five years ending only with Newdick's untimely death in 1939 in which Newdick assiduously gathered materials from a wide variety of sources for a projected but not authorized Frost biography Although only part about 100 pages of the biography was actually written Newdick left behind him several files of factual data as well as observations and comments by Frost and by many people who knew him These materials have not heretofore been published nor were they used in any subsequent biography In the present volume William A Sutton brings together Newdick's partial biography with his various notes and letters adding a narrative of the Frost Newdick relationship which sheds new light on the poet and on the identity of poets With Newdick as with subsequent researchers the fiction making Frost was often playing a game of hide and seek so that he would never be completely found out as a mere empirical datum although there is evidence that his candor with Newdick was at times greater than it would be in later years Newdick a perceptive admirer of Frost's poetry had to struggle with his own realizations of such Frostian characteristics as secretiveness ambivalence and capriciousness and so the book reveals a great poet who could be both generous and arch a professor relentless in his search for information a famous man fitfully bothered then amused by a young academic's earnest efforts on his behalf and a biographer devoted to but at times exhausted by the demands of his biographical subject Frost appears as one who thought of both biography and biographer as attractive nuisances The original materials brought together here manifest therefore both a kind of biography and a chronicle of the act of biography a fresh look at the creative personality and a running account of how a biographer attempts to bring such a
