Economic Adjustment in New Democracies Diane Ethier, 1997 Economic Adjustment in New Democracies D. Ethier, 1997-05-29 The politics of economic adjustment in new democracies has received a lot of attention However none of the most recent examinations provide a thorough comparative analysis of Southern Europe Ethier's book fills this gap The book challenges many existing preconceptions about Southern Europe while confirming and complementing the main assertions of comparable studies on Eastern Europe Latin America Asia and Africa Constructing Democracy in Southern Europe Lauren M. McLaren, 2008-04-08 Why are some regimes democratic while others are not Specifically how have Spain and Italy managed to become democratic while Turkey which shares many similar characteristics has not Spain Italy and Turkey have shared common historical features which would have been disruptive to any new democracy however they represent a wide array of democratization experiences Providing a comparative case study analysis this book offers some clues as to the reasons for successful transitions to democracy This is done through a range of variables which include the degree of stateness problems learning from previous experiences with democracy and authoritarianism economic development the procedures used for designing the new rules of the regime the existence or absence of civil society and the connection between society and political institutions the democratic rules themselves the professionalization of the military the influence of external factors on democratic consolidation By examining these variables across the three countries Lauren McLaren narrows the range of possible explanations for differences in democratic consolidation The book will be of particular interest to students and researchers of European Politics and Democratization Studies Environment and Security M. Lowi, B. Shaw, 2000-05-16 This book is based on a conference addressing the relationship between the environment and security in the post Cold War world It brings together scholars and practitioners from a variety of different disciplines and perspectives in an effort to both explore the complexities of the relationship between environmental variables and security conditions and re focus the debate within the environmental community The book combines analytical frameworks and case study material with proposals for addressing environmental challenges and enhancing the security and welfare of peoples states and regions Canadian-Caribbean Relations in Transition Jerry Haar, Anthony Bryan, 1999-08-26 An up to date analysis and assessment of the evolving relationship between Canada and the Commonwealth Caribbean this volume focuses on three dynamic and important issues By presenting a current picture of the Canadian Caribbean relationship the book not only fills a void in academic contributions to the topic but serves as an invaluable reference guide for policy analysts non governmental representatives and public and private decision makers Rural Women and Triple Exploitation in Korean Development D.
