Ecstasy Of Regret Poems:

Ecstasy of Regret Dannye Powell, 2002-07-01 Dannye Romine Powell writes of marriage parenthood and temptation of love in its many forms Her lyrical imagistic poems bring into sudden focus the subtle shifts of understanding and emotion within intimacy In her reworking of the primal story of Eve and Adam and throughout all the poems she elucidates how everyday life can sustain a family or sunder it With clarity and care she illuminates the world

Robert Browning: The Poems John Blades, 2017-10-25 This stimulating study takes a fresh look at Browning's poetry and at some of the key themes that run through his work Part I uses carefully selected extracts for close textual analysis while Part II examines Browning's life contexts and a sample of criticism Using some of Browning's most widely studied poems this book will develop students' close reading technique and help them to articulate their own responses to poetry The volume is an ideal introductory guide for A Level and undergraduate English Literature students or anyone studying Browning's poems for the first time

integral study of the fifty prose poems Baudelaire wrote between 1857 and his death in 1867 collected posthumously under the title Le Spleen de Paris Edward Kaplan resurrects this neglected masterpiece by defining the structure and meaning of the entire collection which Kaplan himself has translated as The Parisian Prowler Engaging in a dialogue with deconstructionists whose critical methods often obscure the meaning of the whole Kaplan rejects the view of prose poems as a random assemblage of melodic rhapsodies Instead he sees a coherent ensemble of fables of modern life that join lyricism and critical self awareness Kaplan defines three dimensions of experience that inform The Parisian Prowler from beginning to end the esthetic includes art ideal beauty and especially the intense immediacy of sensations fantasy and dream the ethical includes principles of right and wrong relations between intimates or between individuals and the community and the religious not to be confused with church or dogma points to the province of ultimate reality whether it be God or an absolute standard of truth justice and meaning These dimensions are explored by a narrator a complex highly self conscious writer whose passion for pure Beauty continually frustrates his yearning for affection He begins his tour through 1850s Paris alienated from reality becomes aggravated by conflicts between his ethical and esthetic drives to the point of despair and ends by expressing loyal friendship Analyzing the fables in relation to one another in pairs or groups Kaplan demonstrates how later pieces intermingle or even confuse the narrator's esthetic and ethical drives and how the most advanced theoretical fables through ironic puns on their form further undermine this simplistic dualism Baudelaire's fables of modern life radically challenge us to examine our presuppositions Kaplan argues Though rarely didactic the narrator's Socratic irony engages readers in a volatile dialogue provoking them to form their own judgments He often betrays self destructive anger rebelling against injustice or stupidity or against women who might love him At times he insults our complacency and self deception with vicious glee at other times he recognizes his own frailty nurturing a sense of fellowship with the oppressed Seeking both to analyze experience objectively and to sympathize with isolated individuals like himself Baudelaire's narrator joins criticism and poetry in a voyage of self discovery finally accepting experience as impure and mixed Kaplan contends that the prose poems constitute a genre parallel to the poems Baudelaire added to the 1861 edition of Les Fleurs du Mal both of which illustrate fundamental principles of the theory of modernity he developed in his essays on art The self reflective fables in The Parisian Prowler depicting a way of thinking beyond ideologies clarify Baudelaire's development as poet critic and thinker

Confronting Evil Scott M. Powers, 2016-04-15 Confronting Evil The Psychology of Secularization in Modern French Literature holds that the concept of evil is central to the psychology of secularism Drawing on notions of secularization as a phenomenon of ambivalence or dualism in which religion continues to exist alongside secularity in exerting influence on modern French thought author Scott M Powers enlists psychoanalytic theory on mourning and sublimation the philosophical concept of the sublime Charles Taylor's theory of religious and secular cross pressures and William James's psychology of conversion to account for the survival of religious themes in Baudelaire Zola Huysmans and Celine For Powers Baudelaire's prose poems Zola's experimental novels and Huysmans's and Celine's early narratives attempt to account for evil by redefining the traditionally religious concept along secular lines However when unmitigated by the mechanisms of irony and sublimation secular confrontation with the dark and seemingly absurd dimension of man leads modern writers such as Huysmans and Celine paradoxically to embrace a religious or quasi religious understanding of good and evil In the end Powers finds that how authors cope with the reality of suffering and human wickedness has a direct bearing on the ability to sustain a secular vision

Confession of a Lover Mulk Raj Anand, 1976 The Roman Poetry of Love Efrassini Spentzou, 2013-10-24 The Roman Poetry of Love explores the formation of a key literary genre in a troubled historical and political setting The short lived genre of Latin love elegy produced spectacular multi faceted and often difficult poetry Its proponents Catullus Tibullus Propertius and Ovid remain to this day some of the most influential poetic voices of Western civilisation This accessible introduction combines aesthetic analysis with socio political context to provide a concise but comprehensive portrait of the Roman elegy its main participants and its cultural and political milieu Focusing on a series of specific poems the title portrays the development of the genre in the context of the Emperor Augustus ascent to power following recognizable threads through the texts to build an understanding of the relationship between this poetry and the increasingly totalising regime Highlighting and examining the intense affectation of love in these poems The Roman Poetry of Love explores the works not simply as an expression of a troubled male psychology but also as a reflection of the overwhelming changes that swept through Rome and Italy in the
