Sander van Maas, 2015-09-01 Thresholds of Listening addresses recent and historical changes in the ways listening has been conceived Listening having been emancipated from the passive subjected position of reception has come to be asserted as an active force in culture and in collective and individual politics The contributors to this volume show that the exteriorization of listening brought into relief by recent historical studies of technologies of listening involves a re negotiation of the theoretical and pragmatic distinctions that underpin the notion of listening Focusing on the manifold borderlines between listening and its erstwhile others such as speaking reading touching seeing or hearing the book maps new frontiers in the history of aurality They suggest that listening's finitude defined in some of the essays as its death or deadliness should be considered as a heuristic instrument rather than as a mere descriptor Listening emerges where it appears to end or to run up against thresholds and limits or when it takes unexpected turns Listening's recent emergence on the cultural and theoretical scene may therefore be productively read against contemporary recurrences of the motifs of elusiveness finitude and resistance to open up new politics discourses and technologies of aurality Craving for Ecstasy and Natural Highs

A Commentary on the Holy Scriptures: Minor prophets Johann Peter Lange,Philip Schaff,1876 Critical Rhetorics of Race Michael G. Lacy,Kent A. Ono,2011-07-11 According to many pundits and cultural commentators the U S is enjoying a post racial age thanks in part to Barack Obama s rise to the presidency This high gloss of optimism fails however to recognize that racism remains ever present and alive spread by channels of media and circulated even in colloquial speech in ways that can be difficult to analyze In this groundbreaking collection edited by Michael G Lacy and Kent A Ono scholars seek to examine this complicated and contradictory terrain while moving the field of communication in a more intellectually productive direction An outstanding group of contributors from a range of academic backgrounds challenges traditional definitions and applications of rhetoric From the troubling media representations of black looters after Hurricane Katrina and rhetoric in news coverage about the Columbine and Virginia Tech massacres to cinematic representations of race in Crash Blood Diamond and Quentin Tarantino s films these essays reveal complex intersections and constructions of racialized bodies and
