Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom, 2022-11-21 In Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S Herrstrom synthesizes and interprets the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from medieval to modern times The true subject of the book is making sense of the individual's relationship with light rather than the investigation of light's essential nature while telling the story of light seducing individuals from the Middle Ages to our modern times Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light optical science but rather with subjective reactions as reflected in art architecture and literature Instead of its evolution this book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light's character No individual experience of light being truer than any other

Edward Hopper Paints His World Robert Burleigh, 2014-08-19 As a boy Edward Hopper knew exactly what he wanted to be when he grew up on the cover of his pencil box he wrote the words EDWARD HOPPER WOULD BE ARTIST He traveled to New York and to Paris to hone his craft And even though no one wanted to buy his paintings for a long time he never stopped believing in his dream to be an artist He was fascinated with painting light and shadow and his works explore this challenge Edward Hopper's story is one of courage resilience and determination In this striking picture book biography Robert Burleigh and Wendell Minor invite young readers into the world of a truly special American painter most celebrated for his paintings Nighthawks and Gas

Rembrandt Is in the Wind Russ Ramsey,2022-03-22 How do art and faith intersect How does art help us see our own lives more clearly What can we understand about God and humanity by looking at the lives of artists Striving for beauty art also reveals what is broken It presents us with the tremendous struggles and longings common to the human experience And it says a lot about our Creator too Great works of art can speak to the soul in a unique way Rembrandt Is in the Wind is an invitation to discover some of the world s most celebrated artists and works and how each of them illuminates something about God people and the purpose of life Part art history part biblical study part philosophy and part analysis of the human experience this book is nonetheless all story From Michelangelo to Vincent van Gogh to Edward Hopper the lives of the artists in this book illustrate the struggle of living in this world and point to the beauty of the redemption available to us in Christ Each story is different Some conclude with resounding triumph while others end in struggle But all of them raise important questions about humanity s hunger and capacity for glory and all of them teach us to love and see beauty The artists featured in these pages artists who devoted their lives and work to what is good true and beautiful remind us that we can and should do the same Karen Swallow Prior author of On Reading Well

George Bellows Revisited Nannette Maciejunes, 2017-01-06 This essay collection by scholars from both the United States and Europe carefully examines the artwork of one of the most important 20th century American painters and printmakers George Bellows It builds on the Columbus Museum of Art s 2013 exhibition George Bellows and the American Experience and the National Gallery of Art s 2012 exhibition George Bellows The volume offers innovative research that explores his oeuvre from multiple viewpoints The essays challenge widely held perceptions of Bellows such as his Americanness hyper masculinity patronage response to the World War I and his relationship to fellow artist Edward Hopper This is an essential collection for any serious study on Bellows work
