The Reader in the Book Stephen Orgel, 2015-10-30 The Reader in the Book is concerned with a particular aspect of the history of the book an archeology and sociology of the use of margins and other blank spaces One of the most commonplace aspects of old books is the fact that people wrote in them something that until very recently has infuriated modern collectors and librarians But these inscriptions constitute a significant dimension of the book's history and what readers did to books often added to their value Sometimes marks in books have no relation to the subject of the book merely names dates prices paid blank spaces were used for pen trials and doing sums and flyleaves are occasionally the repository of records of various kinds The Reader in the Book deals with that special class of books in which the text and marginalia are in intense communication with each other in which reading constitutes an active and sometimes adversarial engagement with the book The major examples are works that are either classics or were classics in their own time but they are seen here as contemporaries read them without the benefit of centuries of commentary and critical guidance The underlying question is at what point marginalia the legible incorporation of the work of reading into the text of the book became a way of defacing it rather than of increasing its value why did we want books to lose their history Orientalism John MacKenzie,1995-07-15 The Orientalism debate inspired by the work of Edward Said has been a major source of cross disciplinary controversy in recent years John MacKenzie offers a comprehensive re evaluation of this vast literature of Orientalism and brings to the subject highly original historical perspectives This study provides the first major discussion of Orientalism by a historian of imperialism Setting the analysis within the context of conflicting scholarly interpretations John MacKenzie then carries the discussion into wholly new areas testing the notion that the western arts received genuine inspiration from the East by examining the visual arts architecture design music and theatre Fourth Reader Henry Mandeville,1850 The Middle East and Islamic World Reader Marvin E. Gettleman,Stuart Schaar,2012-04-10 The many facets of Middle Eastern history and politics are admirably represented in this far ranging anthology Publishers Weekly In this insightful anthology historians Marvin E Gettleman and Stuart Schaar have assembled a broad selection of documents and contemporary scholarship to give a view of the history of the peoples from the core Islamic lands from the Golden Age of Islam to today With carefully framed essays beginning each chapter and brief introductory notes accompanying over seventy readings the anthology reveals the multifaceted societies and political systems of the Islamic world Selections range from theological texts illuminating the differences between Shiite and Sunni Muslims to diplomatic exchanges and state papers to memoirs and literary works to manifestos of Islamic radicals This newly revised and expanded edition covers the dramatic changes in the region since 2005 and the popular uprisings that swept from Tunisia in January 2011 through Egypt Libya and beyond The Middle East and Islamic World Reader is a fascinating historical survey of complex societies that now more than ever are crucial for us to understand Ambitious A timely work it focuses mainly on sociopolitical texts dating from the rise of Islam to the debates concerning U S foreign policy in the post 9 11 world Choice A Reader's Guide to Contemporary Literary Theory Raman Selden,1993-06-08 Unsurpassed as a text for upper division and beginning graduate students Raman Selden s classic text is the liveliest most readable and most reliable guide to contemporary literary theory Includes applications of theory cross referenced to Selden s companion volume Practicing Theory and Reading Literature A Practical Reader in Contemporary Literary Theory Peter Brooker,Peter Widdowson,2014-05-22 This introduction to practicing literary theory is a reader consisting of extracts from critical analyses largely by 20th century Anglo American literary critics set around major literary texts that undergraduate students are known to be familiar with It is specifically targeted to present literary criticism through practical examples of essays by literary theorists themselves on texts both within and outside the literary canon Four example essays are included for each author text presented

After Said Bashir Abu-Manneh,2019 This book focuses on the problems and opportunities afforded by Edward Said s work and develops a materialist critique of postcolonial studies

The Re-Emergence of the Single State Solution in Palestine/Israel Cherine Hussein,2015-02-11 Providing the first in depth intellectual and organizational mapping of the single state idea s recent resurgence in Palestine Israel this book enquires into its nature as a phenomenon of resistance as well as into its potential as a counterhegemonic force in the making against the processes of Zionism Reconstructing this moment of re emergence through primary material and interviews with diverse influential intellectuals its analysis highlights their self understandings worldviews strategies and perceptions of the phenomenon in which they are involved while questioning whether the single state idea has the potential to become a Gramscian inspired movement of resistance against Zionism In presenting this rare insight into a resistance movement in the making this book resurrects an empowering image of Antonio Gramsci infused with the writings of Edward Said This it does in an effort to both problematize the dominant interpretations of Gramsci s writings in International Relations and to decolonise the abstract way in which resistance and counter hegemony are often studied in the discipline Contributing a mapping of a silenced alternative and hopeful way forward in the context of escalating violence this book is essential reading for those studying the Arab Israeli conflict Middle East Politics and International Relations
