White,2008-02-21 This timely book traces ideas of pacifism in English literature particularly poetry Early chapters drawing on religious and secular traditions provide intellectual contexts There follows a chronological analysis of literature which rejects war and celebrates peace from the Middle Ages to the present day      What Rough Beasts? Irish and Scottish Studies in the New Millennium Shane Alcobia-Murphy,2008-12-11 What Rough Beasts presents an innovative and diverse collection of new research papers which investigate key literary and historical issues in Irish and Scottish Studies providing a view onto the range of current research interests both within and across the two disciplines From a selection of papers presented at an AHRC sponsored conference held at the University of Aberdeen the volume showcases original material by both emergent and established scholars Opening up illuminating conversations between often diverse areas of study this book covers issues including poetry and violence film and drama history and historiography ethnography and literature the politics of representation      The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries      The Fiction of Robin Jenkins ,2017-04-03 The Fiction of Robin Jenkins is the first ever volume of essays dedicated to Robin Jenkins 1912 2005 hailed by Andrew Marr as the best kept secret in Modern British Literature and by the Scotsman in 2000 as the greatest living fiction writer in Scotland the Scottish Thomas Hardy This new study of Jenkins includes essays across his entire astonishingly varied body of work It includes provocative new readings of a range of thematic issues by established experts on Jenkins and on Scottish Literature more broadly This volume also includes chapters dedicated to individual novels in Jenkins s corpus including his best known work The Cone

Gatherers as well as The Changeling Fergus Lamont and his posthumous novel The Pearl Fishers Contributors Ingibjörg Stóttir Timothy C Baker Linden Bicket Gerard Carruthers Cairns Craig Douglas Gifford Michael Lamont Margery Palmer McCulloch Isobel Murray Glenda Norquay Alan Riach David Robb Bernard Sellin Gavin Wallace Washing the Brain Andrew Goatly, 2007-01-01 Contemporary metaphor theory has recently begun to address the relation between metaphor culture and ideology In this wide ranging book Andrew Goatly using lexical data from his database Metalude investigates how conceptual metaphor themes construct our thinking and social behaviour in fields as diverse as architecture engineering education genetics ecology economics politics industrial time management medicine immigration race and sex He argues that metaphor themes are created not only through the universal body but also through cultural experience so that an apparently universal metaphor such as event structure as realized in English grammar is in fact culturally relative compared with e g the construal of cause and effect in the Algonquin language Blackfoot Moreover event structure as a model is both scientifically reactionary and as the basis for technological mega projects has proved environmentally harmful Furthermore the ideologies of early capitalism created or exploited a selection of metaphor themes historically traceable through Hobbes Hume Smith Malthus and Darwin These metaphorical concepts support neo Darwinian and neo conservative ideologies apparent at the beginning of the 21st century ideologies underpinning our social and environmental crises The conclusion therefore recommends skepticism of metaphor's reductionist tendencies Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1978 A Guide to English Literature F. W. Bateson, At first glance A Guide to English Literature may seem to be no more than a short bibliography of English literature with perhaps rather more extensive and certainly more outspoken comments on the principal editions commentaries biographies and critical works than bibliographies usually provide But it is something more this guide contains long inter chapters that provide reinterpretations of the principal periods of English literature in the light of modern research as well as two final sections summarizing in unusual detail the literary criticism that exists in English and recent scholarship in the field The purpose of this book then is to provide the reader with convenient access to a disciplined study of the texts themselves This guide proposes itself as a new kind of literary history The conventional history of literature has often tended to become a substitute for the reading of the literature it describes the better the history the greater the temptation to substitute it The present combination of reading lists and inter chapters cannot be a substitute for anything else Meaningless as literature in themselves they nevertheless provide the necessary preliminary information to meaningful reading Since oddities of arrangement derive from these assumptions the authors are not arranged alphabetically Instead there are chronological compartments with the divisions circa 1500 1650 and 1800 in which authors succeed each other in the order of their births This pioneering handbook is primarily a bibliographical laborsaving device It is meant mostly for students and the general reader in that it stops where original research by the reader is expected to begin However the last chapter on literary scholarship is devoted specifically to the research specialist and provides indispensable equipment for the reader There is also a general section on literary criticism which will be of use to all F W Bateson 1901-1978 was University Lecturer in English Literature at Oxford and a Fellow and Tutor of Corpus Christi College Founder and editor of the periodical Essays in Criticism he is also editor of the four volume Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature and the author of a number of critical studies of English poetry and drama Edinburgh Companion to Twentieth-Century Scottish Literature Ian Brown, 2009-07-03 This volume considers the major themes texts and authors of Scottish literature of the twentieth and so far twenty first century It identifies the contexts and impulses that led Scottish writers to adopt their creative literary strategies Moving beyond traditional classifications it draws on the most recent critical approaches to open up new perspectives on Scottish literature since 1900 The volume's innovative thematic structure ensures that the most important texts or authors are seen from different perspectives whether in the context of empire renaissance war and post war literary genre generation and resistance In order to provide thorough coverage these thematic chapters are complemented by chronological Arcade chapters which outline the contexts of the literature of the period by decades and by Overview chapters which trace developments across the century in theatre language and Gaelic literature Taken together the chapters provide a thorough and thought provoking account of the century's literature Edwin Muir, Uncollected Scottish Criticism Edwin Muir, 1982 Comprehensive Dissertation Index, 1861-1972: Language and literature Xerox University Microfilms, 1973
