Medieval Texts and Contemporary Readers Laurie A. Finke, 2019-06-30 This collection brings together twelve original essays by prominent medievalists which address problems posed by contemporary literary and cultural theory Taken together the essays call into question the view that contemporary criticism has little to say about medieval literature and that medieval studies should remain isolated from the issues of contemporary criticism The contributors apply a variety of critical methodologies to explore issues in textuality intertextuality and the role of the reader in works of medieval writers as diverse as Chaucer Dante Christine de Pizan Anselm and Talavera Incorporating critical approaches such as deconstructionism Marxism feminism new historicism and reader response criticism the essays place these writers and their texts within a wider realm of cultural reference that embraces philosophy religion rhetoric history politics and anthropology

From Sorrow's Well Shaun T Griffin, 2015-07-30 Hayden Carruth survived isolation mental health problems and long struggle with drink and smoke to produce a vision of modern poetry rooted in the New England tradition but entirely his own Many feel his best poems emerged from the isolation of rural Vermont and his poems often are concerned with rural images and metaphors reflecting the land and hardscrabble people around him Together with his second love jazz Carruth's rural experiences infuse his poems with engaging and provocative ideas even as they present sometimes stark topics This volume collects essays and poems from such notable contributors as Donald Hall Marilyn Hacker Adrienne Rich Philip Booth Matthew Miller and Sascha Feinstein among many others The book's sections concern the kinds of writings and the values expressed in his writings for which Carruth was most famous including what editor Shaun T Griffin calls social utility jazz his impoverished rural environment and innovation in poetic form
