an end has a central position in poetry philosophy and religion often leading to questions and answers as to how one can best live one's life and how can one deal with the burden of mortality that is inherent in every human being The Greeks devoted a considerable amount of their literary production in an attempt to answer these questions through a variety of different media whereas similar concerns appear to have been at the core of the ancient world in general This volume represents the first to examine the influences intersections and developments of understandings of death and the afterlife between poetic religious and philosophical traditions in ancient Greece in one resource Greek thinking on death and the afterlife was neither uniform simple nor static and by offering an examination of these matters in a properly interdisciplinary context this collection of papers aims to demonstrate the full richness complexity and flexibility of these ideas in the ancient Greek world and illuminate how freely writers from various genres drew inspiration from each other's thinking concerning eschatological matters Contributors Alberto Benarab Rick Benitez Nicolo Benzi Chiara Blanco Radcliffe Edmonds George Alexander Gazis Anthony Hooper Vaios Liapis Alex Long Ioannis Ziogas Light, 1921 Heritage or Heresy B.
