illustrates brilliantly why interest in textual studies has grown so dramatically in recent years For the distinguished authors of these essays a text is more than a document or material object It is a cultural event a matrix of decisions an intricate cultural practice that may focus on religious traditions modern underground literary movements poetic invention or the irreducible complexity of cultural politics Drawing from classical Roman and Indian to modern European traditions the volume makes clear that to study a text is to study a culture It also demonstrates the essential importance of heightened textual awareness for contemporary cultural studies and critical theory and indeed for any discipline that studies human culture
