Edward James Lennox Vol 1 Builder Of Toronto:

Edward James Lennox Marilyn M. Litvak,1996-09-01 From 1876 to 1915 Edward James Lennox was a formidable force in Toronto's architectural community Many of his buildings are still landmarks in a city that continues to evolve Born and educated in Toronto Lennox looked to the past for inspiration but was never captured by it His prototypical Annex houses on Madison Avenue Old City Hall and Casa Loma bear witness to his technical expertise and aesthetic sensibilities Through text and illustrations this volume tells the story of the a resolute architect whose vision helped shape an emerging city and who in his time was called the builder of Toronto Edward James Lennox Builder of Toronto is the first volume in the Canadian Master Architect series Each publication will profile the work of an individual Canadian architect The series editor is Marilyn M Litvak Essays in the History of Canadian Law, Volume X J. Phillips,R. Roy McMurtry,John T. Saywell,2008-09-18

Covering a broad range of topics this volume examines developments over the last two hundred years in the legal profession and the judiciary nineteenth century prison history as well as the impact of the 1815 Treaty of Paris Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Essays in the History of Canadian Law J. Phillips,R. Roy McMurtry,John T.

Saywell,2008-09-18 Written to honour the life and work of the late Peter N Oliver the distinguished historian and editor in chief of the Osgoode Society for Canadian Legal History from 1979 2006 this collection assembles the finest legal scholars to reflect on the issues in and development of the field of legal history in Canada Covering a broad range of topics this volume examines developments over the last two hundred years in the legal profession and the judiciary nineteenth century prison history as well as the impact of the 1815 Treaty of Paris The introduction also provides insight into the history of the Osgoode Society and of Oliver's essential role in it along with an illuminating analysis of the Society's publications program which produced sixty six books during his tenure A fitting tribute to one of the foremost legal historians this tenth volume of Essays in the History of Canadian Law is a significant contribution to the discipline to which Oliver devoted so much Unbuilt

Toronto Mark Osbaldeston,2008-10-27 Unbuilt Toronto explores never realized building projects in and around Toronto from the city's founding to the twenty first century Delving into unfulfilled and largely forgotten visions for grand public buildings landmark skyscrapers highways subways and arts and recreation venues it outlines such ambitious schemes as St Alban's Cathedral the Queen subway line and early city plans that would have resulted in a Paris by the Lake Readers may lament the loss of some projects such as the Eaton's College Street tower be thankful for the disappearance of others a highway through the Annex and marvel at the downtown that could have been with underground roads and walkways in the sky Featuring 147 photographs and illustrations many never before published Unbuilt Toronto casts a different light on a city you thought you knew The Dundurn Group The Dundurn Group, Legal & Financial Aspects of Architectural

Conservation Marc Denhez,Stephen Dennis,1997-07-01 How do governments design their strategy for heritage property What do they try to accomplish in their laws and their tax systems to favour the re use of older buildings districts and cities

What institutional framework can assist the restoration of tourist designations and the conservation of neighbourhoods In this international study eighteen experts from ten countries describe the legal challenges and solutions relating to such property Beyond a carefully described theoretical framework actual case studies demonstrate how communities and countries can make adjustments to their legislation so that older buildings can be better protected This book stems from an international conference at Smolenice Castle in Slovakia in November 1994 The Heritage Strategy Planning

Handbook Marc Denhez,1997-10-10 Strategies for the conservation and revitalization of buildings and districts have preoccupied the international community for decades This book summarizes the five major legislative approaches the treaties and international declarations including The Habitat Agenda 1996 outlining how to deal with these properties e g in light of sustainable development Positive and negative examples from some twenty jurisdictions are cited but they are seldom place specific Indeed most of the problems and their solutions could occur in almost any country on earth Most European literature on monument conservation deals exclusively with the powers of public authorities Marc Denhez s book gives equal space to existing political and legal frameworks but always with an eye on the potential end user the citizen This conspicuously practical approach is the book s first advantage the second for a European reader is that it opens new horizons beyond the old Euro centric view of the subject Peter Rupp Minister of Culture France Advisor to the Council of Europe

Architecture and Urbanism in the British Empire G. A. Bremner,2016 A comprehensive overview of the architectural and urban transformations that took place across the British Empire between the seventeenth and mid twentieth centuries exploring the built heritage of Britain s former colonial empire as a fundamental part of how we negotiate our postcolonial identities The Queen Anne Revival Style in Canadian Architecture Leslie Maitland,Canadian Parks Service. National Historic Parks and Sites,1990 Contains an overview of the origin of the style in Great Britain and its American interpretation In examining the style in Canada it begins with the efforts made by Canadian architects to adapt it to a new and often difficult habitat The preponderant number of domestic examples reflects the popularity of the style for residential construction It also examines its influence on institutions resort buildings apartments and commercial constructions
